FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Every Saturday Club of Newtonville Celebrates Its 50th Anniversary

When a literary club grows to be fifty years old it naturally celebrates; for such semi-centennial birthdays do not often occur in organizations devoted to a serious study of problems of literature and life. Such a golden anniversary party was celebrated by the Every Saturday Club of Newtonville last Friday evening, Oct. 29, at the Newton Club House.

Invitations had been sent to all former members from Maine to California, many of whom sent letters of congratulation and greeting which were read between the courses of the banquet. After an informal reception in the Club House parlors, sixty-seven ladies and gentlemen sat down to dinner, thirty-six of the forty active members, thirteen former members, and eighteen guests. Blessing was asked by the Rev. Wm. E. Strong, and an address of welcome was given by President Percy R. Ziegler who then appointed Mr. Wallace C. Boyden, toastmaster of the occasion.

After the dinner, toasts to the Founders, to the Former Members and to the Newest and Youngest were responded to gracefully and eloquently by Mr. Wm. F. Whittemore, Mrs. Charles H. Ames, and Mr. Charles S. Thomas. Besides Mr. Whittemore four of the thirty original founders in 1870 were present—Mrs. Joseph H. Willey, Mrs. Charles A. Burgess, Mrs. W. H. Lucas, and Mr. John G. Thompson. Two of the other earliest members present were Mr. Joseph H. Willey, and Miss Josephine Danforth.

Following the speaking came the lighter part of the celebration in the large hall upstairs. This part of the program consisted of brief historical sketches, reminiscent and dramatic, by the five decades of the members according to the years in which they joined the Club. From the "Recollections of the Earliest Years," given by the Decade, 1870-1879, to "Miss Squeers' Super-Morning Circle," a remarkable kindergarten class of the Decade, 1910-1920, there was sparkling wit, laughter, and fun for all.

Between the "Acts," old-time songs were sung, and an interesting booklet containing a history of the Club was distributed. The Fiftieth Anniversary Party closed with all joining hands and singing Auld Lang Syne. The committee in charge of the celebration consisted of Samuel Thurber, chairman; Miss Marion D. Bassett, Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden, Mrs. Charles Davidson, Miss Margaret McGill, Miss Alice Nelson, John R. Prescott, Winfield S. Smyth, Wm. E. Strong, James R. Taylor, and John G. Thompson.

MUSICAL PROGRAM

The program next Sunday evening at the Methodist Church at 7.30 is as follows: Mr. Frederick L. Mahn, violinist; Mr. Pasquale Amerena, flutist; Mr. Carl Stockbridge, Cellist; Maestoso, Andante, from "Samson and Delilah," Intermezzo, Romance in G major, Solves Song, Andante, Devotion, Lohengrins Farewell, Woodland Whispers, Reverie.

UNION MEETING

Men's Clubs to be the Guests of Eliot Church Men's Club

A form of Get-To-Gether meeting, which has long been desired in the Newton Corner section, is being planned by the Five Men's Clubs of the Protestant Churches of that village. The meeting will be held in Eliot Church Chapel Wednesday evening, November 17. It will take the form of a "Good Government Night." Senator-Elect for this District, William J. Naphen of Natick, the three representatives-elect in the General Court, J. C. Brimblecom, Bernard Early, Abbott B. Rice; the Councilor-elect Chas. Sumner Smith of Lincoln, Mayor E. O. Childs and the six aldermen from Wards 1 and 7, are being invited to be present.

The state and city officials will be asked to express their views on various matters and to answer questions that may be asked them from the audience.

The Executive Committees of the five Men's Clubs are working hard to perfect all of the details, and it is expected there will be an attendance of at least 500 men. A fine musical program will be provided. The exercises will start at 7.45 and be followed by refreshments.

POLITICAL NOTES

Ex-Alderman George M. Heathcote of Lower Falls is prominently mentioned for alderman at large for two years from Ward 4. Alderman Harold F. Young will be a candidate for the unexpired term of Alderman Hollis as alderman at large.

Nomination Papers are in circulation for Mr. Leverett Saltonstall of Chestnut Hill for alderman at large for two years from Ward 6, as successor for Alderman Allen.

FIELD DAY

Newton Highlands Troop of Boy Scouts Wins First Place

The Rally and Field Meet on Claffin Field, Newtonville, held by the Boy Scouts last Saturday, proved to be a great success. Although the numbers were not so great, the spirit of the boys manifested itself time and again when Troop yells went to the skies upon the victory of respective teams. At the close of the Meet everyone felt that the boys had given a good account of themselves and were an honor to Scouting.

The Field Meet along with the Swimming Meet held the Wednesday previous made a complete contest between the Troops of the District. A Silver Cup presented to the Council, Boy Scouts of America, was the prize. The Swimming Meet proved to be a victory for Troop 4 of Newton Highlands. This troop gained 99 points, while the second troop, Troop 7 of West Newton secured 70½ points. From start to finish every event was hotly contested.

The Meet on Saturday in Claffin Field was another instance of Scout sport and spirit. All the events entered were Scouting by nature, and the various teams showed by their ability to do things that the training gained through the Scout weekly meetings was invaluable. Knot-tying, First Aid, Rescue Race, the ability to light a fire and boil water while a strong wind blew with disconcerting effect, signalling, etc., were all managed with mastery skill.

The final tally of points showed that Troop 4 of Newton Highlands won the Fall Contest with a total of 122 points; Troop 7 of West Newton came second with 112½; and Troop 11 of Newton, third with 52½.

Saturday, Nov. 13th, the Scouts of this district will contest with those of the Boston districts in the Greater Boston Rally.

BIG VOTE IN NEWTON

Tremendous Majority for the Entire Republican Ticket. Women Cast 95% Vote

Newton did its full share on Tuesday in rolling up the tremendous vote polled for Harding and Coolidge thru-out the entire country, giving the Republican candidates for President and Vice President 12,407 votes to 3689 for their principal opponents, Cox and Roosevelt, a plurality of 8,718. Debs and Steadman, the Socialists received 231, 63 of which were cast in the staid Republican precinct of Ward 7. Cox and Gillhaus received 18 votes in the entire city.

The Republican strength was taken right thru the entire ticket, Channing Cox having 12,526 votes and Walsh, Democrat, 3239 for governor, Fuller for lieutenant governor being somewhat cut, but still having 3102 votes to 4143 for Washburn, Independent and 3233 for Coolidge, Democrat. The independent candidacy of George H. Jackson for state treasurer was a big fizzle, as he received but 213 votes in the entire city. James Jackson, Republican, polling 12,309, almost as much as Harding.

For Congressman, Mr. Luce had the splendid endorsement of 12,037 votes while his opponent, McCarthy polled 3429. Algernon McCarthy, Democratic candidate for representative polled but 2940 votes, the regular Republican nominees, Early, Rice and Brimblecom, having over 11,000 each.

There was a great deal of interest taken over the referendum, particularly in regard to the one day off in eight for policemen, which was carried over two for one, the vote being, Yes 10,293, No 4,788, and that establishing the two platoon system for firemen which was rejected by a vote of 5764 Yes, 9479 No. The 2.75 per cent beer bill was decisively beaten in the city with a vote of 9547 Yes, to 9375 No.

The total vote of the city was 16,699 or 92 per cent of the total registration of 18,150 men and women. The women did far better than the men in the matter of voting, casting 94 per cent of their registration to 90 per cent vote of the men. In some of the precincts, as will be noted in the table we print elsewhere, the women polled almost 100 per cent of their registration. Committees of women were in attendance at each polling place to aid the women voters by explaining the ballot and showing how it should be marked, and automobiles were provided in abundance to get the women to the polls.

The election passed off without any special features, other than the advent of the woman voter and the necessity of using polling places adapted for some 8,000 voters to accommodate double that number. Between eight and eight-thirty, long lines had to be formed at most of the polling places, but after that rush of voters there was ample room at most of the booths and no delay was experienced. About 125 ballots were cast by absentee voters under the new law.

The election officers had a busy and a long day. Besides looking after the vote as it came in, the large number of ballots took considerable more time than usual to count, even with the extra counters authorized by the city government. All the larger precincts were quite late in reporting at City Hall, ward 7, the last not being received until about four o'clock and it was well after five o'clock before the vote of the city was tabulated, and City Clerk Grant, who had been on the job since 6 A.M. Tuesday could call it "a day."

The vote for the principal offices is given in full in another column, while the total vote for the others follows:—

For Secretary
Cook	12,217
Ginsberg	2,714

—Echo Bridge and Hemlock Gorge, ever beautiful in spring, summer or winter are exceptionally wonderful at this time of the year. All through the week, but especially Sundays, hundreds of autoists, as well as pedestrians take advantage of the truly lovely scenery.
—Miss Mabel Riley and Miss Margaret Cobb gave a very pleasing entertainment at the Stone Institute last week Wednesday afternoon. Miss Banks, of Newton sang the entire program of groups of songs, that she will give at her concert in Newton the first of next month. Miss Fleming accompanied her in a very able manner. Mrs. Riley furnished flowers for the decorations. Yellow chrysanthemums, for parlor and front rooms, and white chrysanthemums, and red dahlias, for dining room. Ice cream and cake and fancy candies were served. Miss Cobb distributed Halloween favors to each lady, which completed a very pleasant afternoon for the ladies.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. John McGrath of Newton Centre celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Friday with a solemn high mass of thanksgiving at the Church of the Sacred Heart followed by a breakfast at their home, 1288 Beacon street.

At the church, Mr. and Mrs. McGrath were ushered by Mr. William F. McGrath and Mr. Joseph G. Nevins and were followed by their children, grandchildren and other relatives, while Wagner's wedding march was played by Mrs. Myrtle Morse of Brookline.

The mass was celebrated by Rev. Timothy A. Curtin, the pastor, with Rev. William Powers of St. Rose Church, Chelsea, deacon. Rev. James F. Haney, sub-deacon and Rev. Charles Cunningham, master of ceremonies. Other clergymen in the sanctuary were Rev. James J. O'Brien of Somerville, Rev. Edward Murphy and Rev. Hilary T. Walsh of Brighton. Miss Catherine Curtin sang an Ave Maria and Gounod's mass was sung by the church choir.

The altar was decorated in gold with large gold vases of chrysanthemums while the sanctuary was adorned with potted plants and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. McGrath were married in old St. Peter's, Cambridge, Oct. 29, 1870, by Rev. Manassas P. Doherty and for 36 years resided in Arlington, both being actively interested in the building of St. Agnes' Church, the first Catholic church in that town. For the past 14 years they have resided in Newton Centre.

Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. McGrath, five of whom survive, as follows: Mrs. James P. Powers, Miss Elizabeth G. McGrath and Mr. William F. McGrath of Newton Centre, Mrs. S. J. Nevins of Brookline, and Sister Mary of St. Celine, of the House of the Good Shepherd, Roxbury.

THE RELIGION OF FULFILLMENT

Lecture on Christian Science by Samuel W. Greene, C. S., at Players' Hall

There was a large attendance last week Monday night at the Christian Science lecture held at Players Hall, West Newton.

In introducing the speakers, Mr. Harry I. Hunt, First Reader of the Church spoke as follows:

"If there ever was a time when mankind needed a right idea of God, now is that time. All the sin, sorrow and suffering in the world is the result of a misunderstanding of, or ignorance of, God. The God of Jewish history was a mighty, man-like king; and this idea of Deity still persists in spite of Jesus' plain declaration: 'God is a Spirit,' and of the Apostle John's inspired statement: 'God is Love.' Even among students of theology there does not seem to be a clear perception of the God of Jesus' teachings. I recall, in this connection, a conversation with a clergyman, a few years ago, in the course of which he made the remarkable confession, that he had never been able to formulate a conception of Deity that satisfied him. I asked him how long he had been preaching, and he told me that he had been a clergyman for twenty years. Then I asked him if he did not think it was time that he gained a right idea of God, and he answered, 'Yes, I do.'"

Christian Science is giving to the world an idea or concept of God that satisfies and is proving by its healing works that this concept is correct. For through the understanding of God which the student of Christian Science reaches, sin and sorrow and suffering are healed, and man made better, morally and physically. These lectures on Christian Science are designed to help mankind to gain a true idea of God, whom to know aright, Jesus assures us, "is life eternal." It gives me great pleasure to introduce to you as the speaker of the evening, Judge Samuel W. Greene, C. S., of Louisville, Kentucky, a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. Judge Greene spoke as follows:

Christian Science offers today the most comprehensive, the most startling, and yet the simplest, sanest program for human thought and action of which the world has heard since the days of Jesus of Nazareth and the early Christian teachers. The promise made through Christian Science as stated by its Discoverer and Founder, Mrs. Eddy, is "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need." (Science and Health, p. 494). Christian Science is the unfolding to human consciousness of divine Love and its practical application to the healing of all human disorders. Christian Science is first of all a religion, not-withstanding some of its un-informed critics have not so believed. It is the religion of Christ Jesus come again to the world to heal the sick and the sinning by the same principle and law.

Christian Science in its healing ministry is not a patent cure-all, nor is it blind faith cure. It is not the action of will power, nor is it the action of the human mind. On the contrary, it teaches that the human mind must yield to the divine Mind, to that Mind which was also in Christ Jesus. In proportion that Christian Science is understood, the life and words of Christ Jesus become practicable for all ages and all people.

Christian Science comes to the sick, the sorrowing, the sin-burdened, the dissatisfied, the discouraged, offering them a scientific explanation of the comforting words of Jesus, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest," and of another wonderful promise of the Master, "Read on, and you will have power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you."

Biblical Promises Practical
It might be asked, why one would say that Christian Science comes offering these assurances. Any one of us may say, I have read and known them always, but have they been realized in our experience? Have we made them and other Biblical promises of any practical import in our lives?

Christian Science comes teaching in the very words of Jesus of old that the kingdom of God, the kingdom of Heaven, is at hand—is here, is now, within us, around us, and about us. Through the practice and understanding of this teaching of Jesus, men and women in constantly increasing numbers are healed of all manner of sickness and sin, and their lives are made brighter, better and more satisfying. The theory that eternal life and happiness are to be had beyond the grave only, has always been a depressing element in religion. Christian Science shows that men do not have to wait for death or a final judgment day, before realizing and experiencing the joy of the fulfillment of God's promises. The Bible from beginning to end is filled with the most splendid promises for us as God's children, and unless we may believe that these promises are meant for here and now, even for today, as Saint Paul said, "We are of all men most miserable;" for otherwise, we are without God and a saving religion in this life. What the world is wanting—is seeking—is a religion that comes to the sick and tells them how to be well—that comes to the discouraged and despondent and lifts them out of the slough of despair and despond into the richness, into the fullness, into the joy, of a closer walk with God. Christian Science supplies this need, through the spiritual interpretation of the Bible and the consequent spiritual understanding of God; and enables the world to find the rest and the peace that are promised by the Master.

Jesus' Practical Ministry
Jesus taught and proved the possibility of solving all of life's problems here and now. He overcame all the man-made laws of disease by healing all manner of sickness. He overcame the laws of lack and want by providing food in abundance for the thousands in a desert place, and by finding tax money in the mouth of a fish. He overcame the law of gravity by walking upon the stormy wave. He overcame the law of space and time by entering into the boat in the midst of the sea, and immediately it was at the other side. He overcame the law of death by restoring to life those who had died, and in his own case reappeared to his wondering disciples after three days in the tomb.

One of the last things he said to his disciples was, "He that believeth on me, the works that I do, shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do, because I go into my Father." Also, perhaps in the last conversation he had with the eleven disciples, in perhaps the last hour of his human existence, he said, "These signs shall follow them that believe. In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; * * * * * they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover." With these and other positive promises made by Jesus we must believe in the present possibilities of healing the sick, raising the dead, and performing all these wonderful works if we do believe in him, that is, understand him and his teachings, which is the correct interpretation of the Greek word translated by our word believe in the new version.

Mrs. Eddy and the Text Book
In the light of the fruits of Christian Science during the last half century, does it not seem strange that the world should have waited so long since the time of the early Christian era for some one to appear and call attention to the promises of the Bible and the possibility of their practical fulfillment in our human experience? Even more strange, is it not, that when Mrs. Eddy, a sweet, gentle, pure-minded woman did appear and began to heal the sick and to perform many of these wonderful works and meekly and lovingly called the world's attention to her demonstration as being at least in part a fulfillment of Biblical promise, that she should have been subjected to persecution at the hands of Jesus' professed followers? Ignoring, however, the persecution, the lack of sympathy and interest manifested by the world in her discovery during the early years, Mrs. Eddy never wavered in her task, but patiently and earnestly studied the Bible, that she might find the positive rule for the solution of this problem of Mind-healing which had been so graciously and wonderfully revealed to her through her own instantaneous healing from what the doctors had pronounced an incurable physical condition. The result of her studies she has since given to the world in the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures," commonly called Science and Health, which was published in 1875.

In this book, there is a chapter devoted to Genesis, and another to the Apocalypse, or Revelation of St. John, wherein is set forth the spiritual correct interpretation of the Bible, thus justifying that part of the title, "Key to the Scriptures," the last chapter of the book called "Fruitage" is a series of wonderful testimonies from men and women from widely separated localities, testifying to having been healed of blindness, deafness, rheumatism, Bright's disease, tumor, dyspepsia, cancer, tuberculosis, fever, colds and nearly every known disease simply by reading this book, Science and Health. The book itself needs to be read, for therein is unfolded with simplicity and power, the theory of healing and salvation as taught by Jesus of Nazareth.

One of the practical tributes to the book is seen in the fact that it is to be found in public libraries all over the civilized world.

Contrary to some critics of Christian Science, Mrs. Eddy never intended that the text book should take the place of the Bible, but it is to be read in connection with the Bible. It was meant to be just what its name implies, a "Key to the Scriptures," and a text book on Christian Science. Within the pages of the book itself Mrs. Eddy says, "As adherents of Truth, we take the inspired word of the Bible as our sufficient guide to eternal life." (Science and Health, p. 497). Again she says, "In following these leadings of scientific revelation, the Bible was my only textbook." (Science and Health, p. 110).

As the years have come and gone since Mrs. Eddy's discovery, an ever-widening circle has been covered by Christian Science, and an ever increasing host of its adherents, men and women, are daily bearing witness to its healing and saving power, and rendering their tribute of praise and thanksgiving to its revered Discoverer and Founder. There is, however, nothing of worship or deification in the attitude of Christian Scientists toward Mrs. Eddy, but rather the natural spontaneous expression of gratitude, which one might expect from persons whose lives have been uplifted and are uplifted by the power of her inspired teaching.

It is possible that up to the time of her discovery of Christian Science, Mrs. Eddy never thought of becoming a great religious teacher or leader, and yet no other of the world's great leaders ever lived to see such a substantial and extensive growth and organization result from his own teaching. Such results, however, are to be expected always when work is done as was Mrs. Eddy's work.

The essence of God was a mere theory to her, but an actual fact on which she relied in establishing the Christian Science movement as well as in all other things.

Early in the practical operation of Christian Science, Mrs. Eddy saw that the then existing churches were not ready for Christian Science. Accordingly she established the Christian Science Church, The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston, Massachusetts. From time to time as occasion demanded, and as she was divinely led, she wrote the By-laws now comprising the Manual of the Mother Church for the government of the Mother Church members and for the organization of branch churches and societies and the government of their members. That the Manual is the work of inspiration is attested by the fact that its provisions have been broad enough to cover every question that has arisen in this rapidly growing world-wide organization. Mrs. Eddy ever looked to the Manual in making decisions and she said of it, "Of this I am sure, that each Rule and By-law in this Manual will increase the spirituality of him who obeys it, invigorate his capacity to heal the sick, to comfort such as mourn, and to awaken the sinner." (Miscellany, p. 230). Loyal Christian Scientists have always been grateful for the Manual and are ever attempting to follow obediently its provisions, thus meriting this tribute from their Leader, "Among the manifold soft chimes that will fill the haunted chambers of memory, this is the sweetest: 'Thou hast been faithful!'" (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 343).

Principle
Christian Science has revealed the correct concept of God. It has courageously and reverently asked the question, "What is God?" and has given the answer that is satisfying to thinking men and thinking women: God is Love, Life, Truth, Soul, Mind, Spirit, Principle. Perhaps the term Principle as used for God has more than any other aroused the opposition of the critics of Christian Science. They contend that to speak of God as Principle takes away His personality, robs Him of His fatherhood, tenderness, and other so-called human attributes. Christian Scientists believe that it is time for the world to get away from the idea of an anthropomorphic or man made God, a sort of superman. The text-book says, "Human philosophy has made God manlike, Christian Science makes man Godlike." (Science and Health, p. 269).

Principle is eternal, without beginning or end, is perfect, immovable, inviolable, unerring, ever active. Principle can not be moved by the praise or flattery, or by entreaty or by threat. In the thought of God as Principle, Christian Scientists have abandoned the idea that God interferes in the affairs of men at the behest of this one or that one, or that He interferes with His own laws, causing the unnatural or supernatural to be happening in the affairs of men. Christian Science shows that God's creation is already perfect, complete, consequently the true mission of Scientific Christianity is to reveal this fact to us and then to show us how to overcome in our own lives and experiences every thing and every thought that is unlike God and His creation.

Christian Science Treatment
As a practical illustration, let us suppose a man to be sick, and that he desires the help of God, and turns to Christian Science to be made well. Since God's work is already done, there is no specific or individual action required of God that this man's condition should be made right. The Bible says that God looked upon His work, and that it was very good. The treatment or prayer of the Christian Science practitioner, is a clear positive, knowing and understanding that God has made all and made all well. God created man in His own image and likeness, and as a necessary result of the law of creation, man in God's image and likeness must be Godlike. He must reflect the Godlike qualities, joy, peace, harmony, dominion, freedom, power. God being good, has not created and from the very nature of goodness, could not have created any fears, pains or ills of any kind, and since God is the only power, no other power has created them, and man can not have them, because they do not really exist.

To persons accustomed to the use of material remedies in case of illness such a system of course, only briefly and inadequately outlined by me, might not at first be considered scientific or beneficial, yet the actual experience of any one who will test it according to the principle and rule of Christian Science will prove that it is both Scientific and beneficial.

But says a friend, "Why try to say I am not and can not be sick when I know I have this pain?" No one can be found who will have more loving consideration for those suffering from disease and pain than a Christian Scientist. Christian Science is not an admonition to bear suffering patiently nor to endure it stoically, but is, on the contrary, a scientific system by which disease and suffering are to be overcome. It shows any person who will earnestly study and practice it that the evidence of the human senses is all there is to any suffering, and if this evidence be changed or overcome, the disease and suffering disappear.

Have you ever observed how the physical senses are so easily and commonly deceived? There is not a day, nor perhaps an hour, but what we are the victims of some false testimony of the senses. The school boy crosses the first two fingers of his hand, closes his eye, and has his crossed fingers rubbed over a marble and the sense of touch will indicate to him two or three marbles instead of one. found two distinct and dissimilar accounts of man's creation. Until I studied the subject of Christian Science, I never saw the distinction between these two accounts of creation, yet they are quite unlike.

In the first chapter of Genesis, the record runs, "So God created man in His own image, in the image of God, created He him, male and female created He them." Christian Science teaches that this is the correct account of man's creation. It sets forth the spiritual man. When Christian Science says that man cannot be sick, nor suffer, nor sin, nor die, reference is made to this real man, this God-created, this spiritual man; or, to use a scientific term, this God-idea.

Christian Science teaches that creation is not the molding of forms out of matter, but is the unfolding of spirit. It is the unfolding of the ideas of God, of infinite Mind. It is fine mental and spiritual growth to dwell in the consciousness of one's spiritual being and one is led thereby to see the force and truth of Mrs. Eddy's statement on page 14 of Science and Health, "Become conscious for a single moment that Life and intelligence are purely spiritual—neither in nor of matter, and the body will then utter no complaints. If suffering from a belief in sickness, you will find yourself suddenly well."

Other systems of religious instruction have likewise taught the perfection of spiritual man, but they have not made their teaching practical. They have generally assumed that man must first die and be resurrected and then be invested with his spiritual nature. They have scarcely dared to hope that this life could be other than the generally accepted "vale of tears." Christian Science shows that the truth concerning spiritual man is scientific truth, and through Christian Science may be understood, and become operative in behalf of humanity. It teaches that the presence of God in our lives is not and should not be a vague or far-off, uncertain thing, but a living throbbing vital presence on which man may and should rely in all circumstances, and under all conditions.

This will be a wonderful world when more men and women realize their God-given heritage and possession. There will be less envying, hating, judging, killing, and more of what Paul calls "the fruit of the spirit," love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, for man is the reflection of God's goodness, of God's love, indeed of all the qualities of God; and it is only in the perfect reflection that God is expressed in the world. Was not this spiritual man what Jesus had in mind when he said, "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father in Heaven is perfect?"

Now let us consider the other account of man's creation. In the second chapter of Genesis, the record runs, "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul." And then how woman was created, how God caused a deep sleep to fall upon man and from his side, He took a rib and of the rib, woman was made. Ever since that concept of man created from the dust, he has been the victim of sin, sickness, sorrow, and death. The historical part of the Old Testament is filled with an account of the sin, failures, destruction of this man of the dust. Earth's secular history today and for generations has been largely an account of the disappointments and disasters of this man of the dust. Has not the world been recently convulsed with its greatest tragedy all because of the false aims, hopes and ambitions of this man of the dust?

Woman, through the centuries has been regarded as an inferior creature, often a slave, all because of this false theory, that man is of the dust, and woman of his rib. It is only as Truth is enlightening the world that woman is achieving her rightful place as man's coequal; and it will only be as the truth covers the earth, even as the waters cover the sea, that the world will come to know and understand the "male and female" of God's creation as revealed in the first chapter of Genesis.

With these two pictures before us, man of the earth, earthy, bowed beneath the weight of human misery and woe, and man in God's image and likeness, reflecting the Godlike, the spiritual, the perfect, why do we hesitate to proclaim ourselves and our race of the true type with God given power and dominion over every living thing; for God has ordained this power and dominion in the first chapter of Genesis, the 28th verse. Is it not too in harmony with the promise of Jesus quoted in the beginning of this lecture, "Behold I give unto you power over all the power of the enemy?" Does it not occur to you that when Jesus came to his earthly ministry and found man sick, sinning, sorrowing and dying, he remembered this early ordinance of God and reenacted it in those stirring words, calling the world to action on a basis of spiritual power with a new promise, "and then proceeded to demonstrate by so-called miracles, step by step, man's power and ability to overcome all the power of the enemy?"

Mortal Mind
What is the enemy over which Jesus says we have power? Paul says: "To be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life, and peace, because the carnal mind is enmity against God." The enemy is, therefore, the carnal or fleshly mind, or as Mrs. Eddy calls it in Science and Health, the "mortal mind," as opposed to the divine Mind.

Mortal mind, as it is understood and used in Christian Science, is not an entity, but is rather the absence of the reflection of the divine Mind. It is, in other words, a state of ignorance and when it is the only mind that a human being has or knows anything about it subjects him to every ill to which the flesh is heir and this subject is not decreased but is rather increased by what is ordinarily called education, unless this education be carried on with an understanding of the truth about God as revealed in Christian Science. For instance, the man who knows most and is the best educated on the subject of so-called symptoms of disease, is soonest the victim of some disease, or the man who is best informed on the subject of human anatomy is oftentimes finding something wrong with his anatomy. Was not this thought in the mind of the wise man, king of Jerusalem when he wrote a long time ago, "for in much wisdom is much grief, and that which increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow."

Mortal mind is full of fear, doubt, anxiety, envy, hatred, malice, and what not of all this evil brood. It is no wonder that man governed by mortal mind is sick. Every so-called disease is some phase of mortal mind, fear, ignorance or sin. Jesus early in his ministry told his disciples that they had power over this enemy and this is easily understood, for everyone can see that in proportion as he becomes enlightened, he has power over ignorance, especially when he perceives that this ignorance has constituted his own mentality. This is what Jesus meant when he said at another time, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

As Christian Scientists, it is our mission, our constant effort and prayer to have always in us that Mind which was also in Christ Jesus. As Mrs. Eddy says "Hold thought steadfastly to the enduring, the good and the true, and you will bring these into your experience proportionately to their occupancy of your thoughts." (Science and Health, p. 261). Is not this perhaps what the prophet of old said in mind when he said of God, "Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil and canst not look upon iniquity?"

Unreality of Evil
This brings me to a discussion of the unreality of evil, for which teaching Christian Science has sometimes been criticized. What a wonderful world this would be if it could be rid of evil—and it can be. Evil is only in our consciousness and if we can understand that it is unreal we shall be rid of it. All will agree that God is good and that He has all power; and being good and having all-power, we must, to be logical, conclude that God has made all things good and consequently has not created any evil. Then you ask, where did evil originate? Someone may say it started with Satan, or devil, but surely God in His infinite goodness could never have conceived or created a monster of evil.

But you say, what will you do with the Satan or devil of the Bible? Hear what Jesus says of him: "He was a murderer from the beginning and abode not in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own, for he is a liar and the father of it." In these simple, emphatic words, Jesus at once and forever wiped out the lie about the devil that has been responsible for all the sickness, fear, doubt, sorrow and sin that have come to the world.

But it is not the lie of which we read in the beginning which said to Eve, God has not told you the truth? You have but to eat of the other fruit and you will become as God? Does it not come to us today in words like this, God is too big, too universal, too much concerned with other things to be conscious of the individual and you cannot be healed by him? And does it not say, what you need is to perfect yourself in material knowledge and learning and you will become as a god and heal yourself and solve your problems. It is all untrue. If we may not look to God for help in every human problem, we need not look to man.

Some one asks if the unreality of evil means that man is not to suffer for what we call evil deeds. His answer is plain. "God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting."

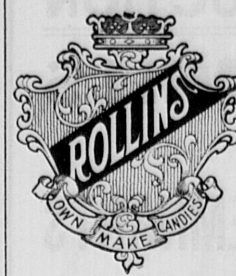

Evil is unreal, but we come to an understanding of this as the result of thought and demonstration. One does not learn mathematics by beginning with trigonometry and calculus, but by learning that one and one are two; two and two are four, and by working his way up through arithmetic, algebra and other branches to the higher mathematics, so with all sciences and so with Christian Science. One's understanding comes with careful study and demonstration. Would you know what is meant by demonstrating or proving the unreality of evil? One can prove the unreality, the nothingness of evil by proving the allness of God. Let us begin simply—we all believe that God is good and that God is Love. Let us go forth tomorrow with the thought of God's goodness and love in all things. Let us see nothing, say nothing, do nothing, be nothing, believe nothing, that is unlike goodness or Love. Do you hear a man cough? Do not turn instantly and fix cold or influenza or any other disease upon him. That would be unlike goodness and Love. Know that God never made a cough, therefore it is unreal and does not belong to man.

Do you see a man limping there on crutches? Do not fix lameness on him. That would be unlike goodness and Love. Lameness is no part of God's creation, therefore it does not belong to God's man, and should not bind him. Do you suppose Peter and John when they approached the temple and saw lying at the gate the man, a cripple from his mother's womb, began to think of weak muscles and undeveloped bones and structures? No, they saw nothing unlike goodness and Love. They saw God's man, and said to him, "In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk," and he was instantly made whole.

In Science and Health, page 123, we read "Divine Science, rising above physical theories, excludes matter, resolves things into thoughts, and replaces the objects of material sense with spiritual ideas."

Let us try this plan in our destruction of evil. We may begin on the members of the household by seeing them as thoughts; thoughts of God, expressions of His goodness and His love, existing to bless the home and all mankind. Contrariwise, let us not see them as selfish, impatient, intolerant, and all such evil thoughts or beliefs will be banished from the home. Then home will become the abiding place of love, goodness and harmony.

Maybe you are a teacher, then go forth to your school seeing the children not as disobedient, rude, mischievous, or unintelligent. Shall we not rather see them as thoughts of God, expressions of God's goodness, Love, and reflecting the intelligence of the divine Mind? You have no right to limit a child's intelligence when God has not. You can see how these uplifting thoughts will change your entire outlook and make a new school—one that will bless you, the children and all mankind.

Perhaps some of you are workers in other lines—clerks or proprietors of stores.

It does not make any difference in working God's way about one's rank, whether he be clerk or proprietor. The proper business or work for him in either instance is to prove God and His allness. Then do not see the business as so many selfish clerks to be handled or as a cruel boss to be dealt with, or as so much material to be shown to customers, then put on the shelves day after day. Resolve all the business into thoughts of God, expressions of God's goodness, God's love, existing to bless clerks, proprietors, customers and all mankind. To wait on customers is added opportunity day after day to show forth the goodness and love of God whose reflections you are. It thus means opportunity to bless each customer and should mean great joy to you and to them.

In every store will be found old stock, worn, out of date; get it down, resolve it into a thought of God's goodness and love existing to bless mankind. It will meet someone's need who hasn't money enough for prevalent prices. Let divine Mind direct you in disposing of it, and it will bless someone—it has its right place and through this process that place can be found.

Christian Science is trying to teach men that for every human need they should look to God, to the spiritual and not to the material. There is nothing in all God's creation to fear, for God is All-in-all and one cannot fear God or good.

Why is man's first thought, "Where-when all shall I be clothed and housed and fed?" Has man so soon forgotten that Jesus said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these other things shall be added unto you." In that connection Jesus had just been talking about clothes and food. Should it be thought a strange thing that God does give good things to the children of His love? Jesus told us in effect that much more than our earthly father does the Heavenly Father know how to give good gifts to them that ask. One may ask, if Jesus' promise means that to take up the study in earnest of Christian Science, would result in health, happiness and prosperity? The answer is found in the lives of the great host of men and women the world around who have sought the kingdom of God and His righteousness and whose business has prospered and whose lives are filled with health, harmony, love and gladness. It is but a verification of what the apostle said, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning."

Forgiveness of Sins
It has sometimes been asked if Christian Science teaches that sin is forgiven. It does. Sin is forgiven when its nothingness is understood and the sinner no longer indulges therein. To pray for forgiveness, and to continue in sin does not raise a man to any new state of consciousness or well-being. It is like praying to an idol, it does not accomplish anything, but to know and understand that the illusions called sin are unreal, and confer no sweetness, or power, is to rise above sin and destroy it, consequently to find forgiveness.

Let us consider an instance in the life of the Master. On the occasion when the Scribes and Pharisees brought before him a woman taken in adultery, they were seeking the destruction of the woman and meaning, at the same time, to involve the Master in a conflict with Jewish law. They assured him that the woman was guilty, and that the law commanded that such as she should be stoned, but that they desired to know what he had to say. The record states that he stooped and with his finger, wrote on the ground. Is it not possible that in that moment the Master turned his gaze away from the group that he might pray, that he might see each one of that group as God's idea, an expression of God's goodness and God's love? He did not want to see self-righteous condemning Scribes and Pharisees, nor did he wish to see an impure, sinful woman, but he did want to see each one as a child of God, expressing God-like qualities.

From the result, we may judge whether or not the Master's treatment, or prayer, was effective; the men, one by one, went out and left the woman alone. The Master, then looking upon her, asked where were her accusers, and being informed that there were none, he answered, "Neither do I condemn thee; go and sin no more." Thus Jesus taught that his mission was not to condemn, but to save the world. As followers of him, are men more apt now to condemn or to seek to save? Is not our way to group men in our thoughts and to label them—one group with a certain disease, one group guilty of this crime, and another group guilty of some other crime—in other words, condemning them to disease and sin when God has not?

Let us rather be followers of the Master and try to save our fellow-men by knowing and understanding that they are God's children and as such neither sick nor sinful.

Christian Science has been assailed because of its teachings concerning Jesus, and it has been denied a place among so-called orthodox religions because it teaches that Jesus was not God. When we remember the difficulty that Jesus had in making even his disciples understand who and what he was, it is not strange that the Christian Science teaching on this subject has been misunderstood. Perhaps few of the immediate followers of Jesus saw the distinction between the human Jesus and the Christ, but Christian Science has made this distinction clear.

The man Jesus was human, born of Mary, and his life covered but a brief span of years; but the Christ, which was not a name so much as the divine title of Jesus, expressing his Godlike nature, is eternal, and is ever inseparable from God. Jesus in referring to himself as the Christ, said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." "Before Abraham was, I am," and again, "Lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." The Christ is now and always has been present in the world to be discerned by men. Through the ages, there have been men like Moses, Joseph, Elijah, Elisha, Daniel and others who discerned and expressed a large measure of this Christ. Truth, and were able to perform many wonderful works.

Jesus of Nazareth came to earth to be the Way-shower, or as Paul says, the mediator between God and man. He came to show men their power to overcome in this life, sin, disease and death. He possessed more of the divine nature than any other person who has ever lived, and he was therefore called Jesus, the Christ, or Christ Jesus.

The Christ can no more be confined to an individual than can God, or divine Principle, or Love, but comes even as the spirit of Love into the lives of men as they rightly seek him and desire him. It is true that Jesus said, "I and my Father are one," but this expression is not at all inconsistent with Jesus' other statements concerning himself. He was one with the Father as it is explained in the Christian Science text book, "One in quality, not in quantity," even as a drop of water is one with the ocean, but it is not the ocean, or a ray of light is one with the sun, but it is not the sun; so is every man and woman an idea of God one with the Father, else how could Paul have been correct when he said, "For in Him we live and move and have our being." When Jesus said, "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden," it was not to the human Jesus he was asking us to come, but to the Christ, Truth, that redeems and saves. To those of us who have but touched the hem of his garment, have but caught even a faint glimpse of this Christ that heals of sin, sickness, sorrow and death has come the fulfillment of Jesus' promise, "And I will give you rest."

ST. PAUL'S FAIR

The Fair given last Friday and Saturday in Lincoln Hall for the benefit of St. Paul's Church was a great success both socially and financially. Over $1,000 was taken in. The members of the committee in charge wish especially to thank the community for their co-operation without which such a splendid result could not have been realized.

"Bluebeard's Wives," one of the plays given, was wonderfully effective in its lighting and staging, for which credit should be given to Mrs. Jessie Palmer Graham. Credit is also due to Mr. Norman Clark to whom the fine acting of the company is due. Mrs. Curtis Chipman, leading woman in "Spreading the News," was very much enjoyed in the part of Mrs. Bartley Fallon.

The doll table under the charge of Mrs. Robert McCabe was especially popular. The afternoon tea gave an opportunity for a social good time, while the dancing was popular with the young people.

HUNNEWELL CLUB

The members of the Hunnewell Club enjoyed a regular old-fashioned Neighborhood night on Tuesday. Cards were played during the afternoon, and a special chafing dish supper was served by the ladies at 10 o'clock. Those who served were Mrs. Philip Nichols, Mrs. Fred H. Loveland, Mrs. Ralph Hall, Mrs. Ralph W. Angier, Mrs. Everett T. Ryder, Mrs. Philip T. Jamieson, Mrs. Frank P. Schofield, Mrs. Arthur W. Blakemore, Mrs. Loring L. Marshall, Mrs. William F. Garcelon, Mrs. Frank Hopewell, Mrs. Goldwin S. Sprague, and Mrs. Shirley P. Kerns. Election returns were read during the evening. After supper, dancing was enjoyed by about fifty couples.

On Saturday, Nov. 6th, at 7:30 sharp, Mr. George Carter, B. A. A. instructor, will give an exhibition of fancy billiard shots.

Next Tuesday night will be a second Neighborhood Night with entertainment for all, including bowling, cards, pool, refreshments, and dancing.

Wednesday evening, the Newton League bowls the North Gate League at Hunnewell.

Next Thursday evening the Men are to have a Smoker and an entertainment of unusual interest. Men are asked to come and bring their friends.

PILGRIM COMMEMORATIVE SERVICE

Channing Church unites on Sunday morning, November 7 at 10:30 o'clock, with many other churches throughout the country in an "Ocean to Ocean" celebration of the signing of the compact for civil government on the Mayflower, which took place at Provincetown, Cape Cod, Nov. 11, 1620, the day the Pilgrims first landed on American soil. A commemoration of this event by churches scattered from Maine to Oregon has been planned by the National Federation of Religious Liberals, and a special order of service has been arranged by Frank H. Burt of this city, who is secretary of the Federation. The exercises will include the reading of the compact by the congregation, addresses by Rev. Mr. Lutz and Rev. Dr. Charles W. Wendte, and patriotic music under direction of Miss Ruth Tilton. On the cover of the service is the compact reproduced from the hand-writing of Governor Bradford.

On Monday Mr. Miller took the classes to the polls. In order that they might see as much as possible of the machinery of voting, he cast his own vote in their presence. Upon the return to the class rooms the teachers followed up the lesson by a discussion of the manner of electing a president.

Mrs. Jenkins is substituting in the seventh grade. Mrs. Blakemore is absent owing to the death of her mother.

Miss Green's room, Grade Five, and Miss Greene's room, Grade Four, have been vying with each other to keep their records free from tardy marks.

During the seven weeks of school neither grade has had a pupil tardy.

The kindergarten purchased the largest number of thrift stamps last week. The third grade, Miss Smith's room, ranked second.

The children in Miss Sampson's 4th grade recently enjoyed an automobile ride around Newton visiting the main points of interest. These annual trips are made possible through the generosity of the parents in loaning their automobiles.

The excursions are of great value in the study of the geography and history of Newton.

Better Speech Week is being observed through all the grades of the Hyde School. Blackboard slogans, posters, tags, dramatizations, and other devices are being used to emphasize correct speech.

Stearns School Notes

The teachers of the Stearns School gave a Halloween costume party last Thursday evening at the home of Miss Trask. The new teachers of the Stearns District were the guests of the evening. A jolly good time was enjoyed by all.

Saturday, Nov. 6th, the Newton Girls Club of the Massachusetts League of Girls Clubs is planning to join the League. Inter-Club Sports and Picnic Supper at "Snow Shoe" Cottage, on the estate of Miss Marion Niles, league president, at Wellesley.

All the Suburban Clubs will be represented. Everyone is to bring a box lunch. Games will be played and there will also be group singing.

The members who wish to go will meet at the Stearns School at 3 o'clock. The Mothers' Club at Stearns School Center will hold a whist party on Friday evening, Nov. 12th, in the school hall. Music will be furnished by Mac's Orchestra, and there will be dancing and cards from 8 to 11 o'clock.

The football team expects to play its hardest game of the year on Thursday afternoon, when it meets the Mason eleven. Stearns, last year, defeated this team, the score being 9 to 7. The game will be played on neutral grounds, Burr playground having been selected. The team will line up, averaging 131 pounds in the backfield. The line averages only 101 pounds. A hard football game is promised.

Two cases, over 1,900 bars of chocolate, have been sold by the pupils of grades 6, 7, and 8, during the last 10 days. The profit of goods sold by each class is to be placed in the bank to establish a class fund. The classes have been hindered often in taking class trips by lack of funds, and feel that a savings bank account at the disposal of a class treasurer will make such trips possible in the future.

Classical High School

On Wednesday in the assembly hall, five girls and five boys, who had been selected as the best speakers in the school, participated in a public speaking contest. The speakers and their choices of subjects can hardly be overrated. Four prizes were awarded: A 5-dollar gold piece to the best girl and boy speakers and a 2½-dollar gold piece to the second best girl and boy speakers. The winners were: Florence Morford and Roger Cummings, $5.00 each; Beatrice Smythe and Robert Brown, $2.50 each. The judges were: Miss Weatherbee, Mr. Richardson, and Rev. Mr. Lichter. Roger Cummings and Beatrice Smythe are to be especially complimented on their interpretations of their pieces. The pupils of the school wish to extend their thanks to Mr. Lane for his generous assistance and effort in making this contest such a wonderful success.

The subscriptions for the Review have passed the 500 mark, and they will, no doubt, increase considerably upon the appearance of the first issue of the magazine. A full page of cartoons will be included in every issue.

On next Monday the members of the English Club will meet in the school library, immediately after school. A program has been arranged so that the afternoon will be well spent and enjoyed by all.

The class pins for the class of 1922 are on display in the corridor of the second floor, near room 23.

The Boys' Debating Club will hold its first meeting on next Monday morning, in the lecture hall. Mr. Lane, the director, has arranged a very attractive program, and invites all the boys of the school except the freshmen to be present.

On Friday morning, Oct. 29, the seniors of the Technical High School defeated the seniors of the Classical high school in the annual football game at Clifton Field. The teams were evenly matched except for the fact that Hodder, star tackle for the Classical High, did not arrive until after the first half. The final score was 12 to 0. Immediately after this game, the freshmen of the Classical school were defeated by the Juniors of the same school, the score being 7 to 0. Other class games will take place this week.

Announcement has been made that Wells Holmes is the winner of the golf tournament.

In an attempt to promote interest in the school orchestra, Mr. Adams appointed Mr. Mergandoh to ascertain just how many pupils would be willing to join the school orchestra. The result is most promising. So many pupils playing the mandolin and banjo have applied for the orchestra that it is planned to form a mandolin club entirely independent of the orchestra. Judging from the number of applicants, both organizations ought to have at least 25 members.

The results of the vote taken in the school, for the President were as follows: Harding 794, Cox 94, and Debs 17.

Lasell

There was much excitement on Tuesday over the election and adding to the interest was the straw ballot cast by the school which resulted in Harding and Coolidge receiving 229 votes, Cox 39, Debs 5.

Miss Packard, the registrar, who is on a year's leave of absence, gladdened the hearts of the teachers and pupils on Tuesday when she made the school a short visit. Miss Packard is spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. Cass at Tilton, N. H., and she came to Auburndale on Tuesday to vote.

A group of girls went to the Perkins Institution for the Blind on Monday. Through the courtesy of Dr. Allen they attended the classes in the morning, remaining as guests for lunch and in the afternoon going to the exhibition which was given for the benefit of 100 children who came from the School for Crippled Children in Boston.

On Saturday there will be a large party to the Harvard-Princeton game.

On Monday the school will go on its annual trip to Salem. This year sight-seeing busses will convey the party and a delightful day is anticipated for beside the historical interest of the Witch City, there will be the ride along the shore of Revere, Swampscott, and a visit to the quaint old town of Marblehead.

Miss Margaret A. White, leader of the Student Volunteer Movement at Wellesley College is to be the speaker at vespers on Sunday evening. Miss White will be accompanied by several college girls who are also to talk of the movement.

Dr. Winslow and Miss Potter were the guests of honor at the Connecticut Lasell Club which held its reunion last week at the Bond Hotel, Hartford.

The seniors have issued invitations for Open House for Friday afternoon.

Mason School

Better Speech Week is being celebrated in the Mason School with special activities in each room. Posters, speech games, appropriate poems and stories, tags, and dramatizations feature the work.

The football team has won all the games it has played thus far. On Thursday at Burr Playground a championship game will be played with the boys from the Stearns school.

The fourth-grade pupils greatly enjoyed their auto trip around Newton. The eighth grades elected class officers last week. Interesting class meetings are anticipated.

The sixth grades accepted an invitation from one of the second grades of the Rice School to visit its Indian exhibit. The visit was full of lively interest. The little folks proved themselves charming hosts.

A new cable ball, loaned by the Playground Department, has added greatly to the joys of recess.

A paper baler has been purchased. The baled paper is sold to dealers, and the profits will in time, it is hoped, purchase a new printing press.

Bigelow Notes

Better Speech Week is being enthusiastically observed at the Bigelow School.

Story writing, oral composition, and the recitation of choice poetry are the order of the day. Some classes are making effective English Posters and "Better English Notebooks." The members of one class, in their efforts to distinguish between correct idioms and pernicious slang, appear to be constantly in close consultation with dictionaries of recent date. In two of the upper grades dramatic sketches are being written by united class effort.

Clafin School

The pupils of Grade 8 visited the polls on election day, and were much interested in the way in which the election was carried on. The primary elections for their own class officers will take place on Friday.

"Better Speech" week is being observed in all the grades this week in the following ways: Grade I has games of different sorts. Grade III have a pledge of which they are very proud, as well as some clever games. Grade IV have found some of their worst mistakes, and each child has on the front of his desk, a little poster which helps to remind him of the correct speech habit which he is trying to establish.

Grade V pupils have made some very clever posters showing the enemies of good speech.

Grade VI pupils are studying good English for its value in after life. One of these grades has organized a club known as the "Correct English Club" with Oscar Margolin as president, and Anna Richardson as secretary.

Grade VII boys and girls are working on some very clever and attractive posters.

Grade VIII pupils have several appropriate slogans around their room. They are also preparing short original plays to be given on Friday.

The pupils of Grade IV were to take a trip around Newton Thursday morning in the interest of Geography. Par-

• EVENING HIGH SCHOOL

The evening schools will open a general high school course, like that given in the day high school, within the next week or two, providing enough pupils (14) register.

The course will offer English, history, mathematics, and French, and will be open to those who have an eighth grade certificate or its equivalent.

THOMAS-JOHNSON

Miss Edith Augustie Johnson, of Eddy street, Newtonville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Johnson, and Mr. Howard Clark Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Charles Thomas, of Regent street, West Newton, were united in marriage last Saturday at the Methodist church, Newtonville, the Rev. Charles M. Ross, officiating.

The bride wore white satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Amy F. Johnson, sister of the bride. She wore light blue taffeta and carried pink roses. The best man was Mr. Alfred Pepper of Boston.

A reception at the home of the bride, which was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns, followed the ceremony. Music was furnished by Miss Edith Thomas, sister of the groom.

After January 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will be at home at 49 Grove street, Auburndale.

A ROOFLESS GARAGE ?

A man once built a garage and thought he would save some money by leaving off the roof.

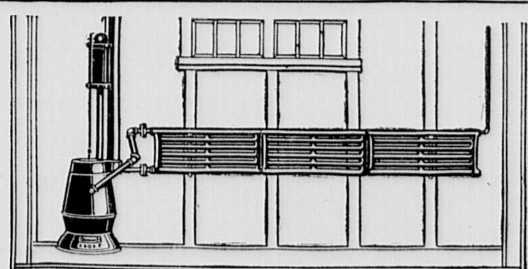

That was foolish of course. But was this poor mistaken man any more illogical in his action than thousands of motorists who leave out the most important part of a garage, the heating plant? What is the trouble? Don't you see that your garage without heat is only a little better than the poor man's without a roof? Yes, but how are you going to heat your garage quickly, conveniently and economically? Well, there is one best way and that is with a

Scientific Gas Heater

Let us send our Representative or send us a request for a booklet telling about it. The sooner you realize that a heatless garage is almost as poor a protection for your car as a roofless one, the sooner you will save yourself time, worry, and money. At least let us inform you on this subject.

EDITORIAL

In view of the unpleasant features of the Republican primary nomination for Representative, I am most grateful for the generous support given me last Tuesday as the nominee of the Republican city committee for that office. I shall endeavor to repay the confidence of the voters of Newton by faithful and conscientious service at the State House.

J. C. Brimblecom.

The inconsistency of the average voter is strikingly manifested in the difference in the vote last Tuesday on the referendum on the police and fire force. The voters, largely because the matter has been widely discussed in the Boston papers, gave a decided vote against the two-platoon system, undoubtedly on the ground of expense. While the same electorate cast a much larger vote in favor of giving the police one day off in eight altho this act will cost the city at least $8400 the first year increasing to nearly $12,000 during the next few years. We are of the opinion that the favorable vote in this instance was largely due to the fact that it did not receive much publicity as it is the usual custom to vote Yes on most matters submitted to popular vote. The editor still holds to the opinion that the best interests of the city demand that both the police and firemen should be placed on conditions of work and pay more comparable with other employments, in order that the personnel of the departments can be maintained at the highest standard.

Nominations for the aldermanic and school committee election to take place Dec. 14th will have to be made within the next two weeks. The taxpayers of Newton can ill afford to neglect the important duty of nominating the right persons to fill those offices.

Now that the two-platoon system for the fire department has been rejected by the people, we would like to see Alderman Whidden's plan of granting each fireman, two nights off, during his four full days tour of duty.

The women voters of Newton have set a high standard for themselves in the matter of percentages of voting and have put the men to shame by the manner in which they did their duty last Tuesday.

The Board of Health will have the full and cordial support of the community in its efforts to prevent the illegal sale of cold storage products and the false advertising of articles of food.

We hope the vote on the two platoon system will not prove a "penny wise and pound foolish" act.

ALLEN—LEONARD

A wedding of much local interest took place on Thursday evening at the Methodist Church in Newton when Miss Grace Barber Leonard, daughter of Mrs. Mary Adeline Leonard of Newtonville avenue, was married to Mr. Richard Congdon Allen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry H. Crane, former minister of the Methodist Church in Newton, assisted by the Rev. Charles S. Bra-shares, the present pastor of the church. The church was aglow with autumn leaves, flowers, and greens in the form of a canopy. Professor Archibald T. Davidson of Harvard University played the organ.

The bride is a graduate of Simmons College, class of 1911, and for several years has been cashier of the college. Mr. Allen is a veteran of the American expeditionary forces, and is now a mechanical engineer in the employ of the Westinghouse Air Brake Co. at Pittsburgh.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin charmeuse trimmed with Malta lace and having a court train. She carried roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The maid of honor, Miss Elsa M. Leonard, wore brown chiffon over silver cloth with tulle having autumn leaves embroidered on it. The dress combined the autumn colors. She carried chrysanthemums and dahlias. The four bridesmaids, Mrs. Henry H. Crane of Malden, Miss Florence Helmick of Chicago, Miss Margery M. Smith of Newton, and Miss Marion Butters of Auburndale wore respectively, yellow, green, nasturtium, and peach. They carried chrysanthemums and dahlias.

The best man was Mr. Winthrop L. Wales of Syracuse, N. Y., and the ushers were Messrs. Ralph F. Barber of Newton, Fred A. Hawkins of Newton, William D. Henderson of Newton Highlands, and Benjamin L. Dolbear of Watertown.

A reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Samuel Leonard of Maple avenue, Newton, followed the ceremony, the house being decorated with chrysanthemums, dahlias and autumn leaves.

After December 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Allen will live in Wilkesburg, Pa.

THE RETURN OF THE DOLLARS

What might be called a harvest day has become an annual event in the Woman's Association of the Central Church, taking place this year on Wednesday.

Sometimes the ingathering takes the form of "Holiday and Holy Day Bags," sometimes a "mile of pennies" is the scheme. This year it was the result of earnings or investments of the dollar bills given out last May.

About one hundred and fifty ladies sat down to beautifully decorated tables at half past twelve, many of them coming from the work-rooms upstairs where sewing and surgical dressings for the hospital in China had been going on.

After a very delicious luncheon which had been prepared by Mrs. C. B. Harrington and an efficient corps of workers, the president, Miss Abby Miller, asked for the reports of the summer's work.

Every variety of method from buying soap and scrubbing floors or selling millinery and manuscripts, had evidently been used to make those dollars multiply.

The descriptions of the ways and means were as original as the ingenious schemes themselves.

The pastor of the church congratulated the women upon their splendid success in the undertaking and gave his annual message for the Association, using for his theme: The Modern Sir Launfal, subject suggested by the motto which the president had chosen for the Association year book. "Not what we live, but what we share."

For the gift without the giver is bare.

Mr. Lichliter's remarks were a thrilling challenge to the women of the Association to give more than money, more than time, more than strength—to give themselves to the enlargement of the Kingdom.

NEWTON WELFARE BUREAU

The Directors of the Newton Welfare Bureau held their regular monthly meeting at the Welfare Headquarters, in Newtonville, Wednesday afternoon, November 3rd. In the absence of President Angier, Mrs. B. E. Taylor presided.

The Directors present, were as follows: Messrs. Arthur Kendrick, Clarence Wheeler, Bernard Early, Albert Carter, Richard Carter, Joseph B. Jamieson, Kenelm Winslow, Mrs. Marcus Morton, Mrs. Charles Kepner, Mrs. A. Clark, Treasurer Lothrop and Clerk Mrs. Auryanson.

Report of General Secretary was given showing that there were now in the confidential exchange, 2825 cards. New cards added in October were 40. Number of new families in October were 8. Total number of Welfare Bureau families 701. Number of families assisted in October 69. Number of Red Cross families to date 360.

General Secretary reports many applications for work for both men and women.

ATTEMPTED MURDER

Mr. Charles Crockford, of Hunt street, in the Watertown district adjoining Newton, had a rather trying experience Monday. For some time last year Mr. Crockford had an elderly man named Patrick Gildea for a boarder, but he had been away from the house for some months until Monday, when he followed Mr. Crockford into the house at noon time and intimidated that he wanted some dinner. Mr. Crockford objected to a self-invited guest and ordered him out of the house. Gildea then took an automatic revolver out of his pocket and, aiming straight at Crockford, pulled the trigger twice, but the gun failed to go off. Mrs. Crockford rushed out to call for help followed by Mr. Crockford, and Gildea then went to the unfinished garage building at the corner of Hunt and Galen streets and proceeded to test his revolver and finally succeeded in discharging it. When he appeared again on Hunt street with the gun in his hand the Watertown police came and took him into custody. He is now in East Cambridge jail, under observation to determine his mental condition.

WABAN THIEF CAUGHT

Newton police arrested Frank M. Carroll yesterday afternoon as a result of several days' vigil at the home of James T. Dickenson, 837 Chestnut street, Waban. Several weeks ago, in the absence of the family, the house was entered and robbed. The family is again away and Patrolman Henry Tibbets had been stationed in the house to protect the property. He was on duty there yesterday afternoon when he heard some one at work on a rear window of the first floor. He hid himself and saw a man enter and begin to search bureau drawers.

The man gave his name as Frank C. Samuels, aged 42, of no permanent address. A bright, new jimmy of improved design was found in his pocket. When his finger prints were taken it was found that his true name was Frank M. Carroll. The police say he has a long record and has served sentences in a number of state prisons. He will be arraigned today on the charge of breaking and entering.

WOMAN'S CLUBS

The last meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club was another red-letter day for this club, when it had the honor of entertaining Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, and at an informal reception all had an opportunity to meet and greet the wife of our next vice president. A beautiful bouquet of Columbia roses conveyed to the distinguished guest the good wishes of the club members.

The speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. True Worthy White, gave a timely talk on "What Women Need to Know as Voting Citizens," answering many questions on various points she had brought out.

At this meeting the club voted to appropriate the sum of ten dollars for a year's membership at the Boston Art Museum.

The next meeting will be on Nov. 12th, when Mrs. M. L. Robinson will present a subject interesting to all housekeepers, "Three Meals a Day."

At this meeting also there will be a food sale in charge of Mrs. Frederick E. Cole.

The Travel Class is giving a part of each meeting to our own city. At the first meeting, when Newton Lower Falls, the once aristocratic part of the town, was the subject of discussion, many were surprised to learn that the first post office in Newton is still to be seen there, though not exactly on the original site, and that at one time in our history all letters were mailed at Newton Lower Falls unless the senders preferred to travel to Dedham or Watertown. The next meeting of the class will be at the home of Mrs. E. M. Dimond on Nov. 8.

Classical High School

A selection was memorized by every pupil in the Classical High School as an exercise in Oral English. The best speaker in each of the thirty-odd English sections was chosen in this way. An elimination contest was then conducted to select the 10 best speakers who were heard in the public contest on Wednesday. Lively contests in spelling were held between different divisions of the Freshmen and Sophomore classes.

—Next Saturday night, November 13 there will be an informal dance at the Neighborhood Club.

—Mr. Philip Bache of Chestnut street left last week for Honduras where he will enter business.

—Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Gould of Windsor road are rejoicing in the birth of a daughter, born Oct. 30.

—The Woman's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet on Tuesday next with Mrs. Cyrus Ferris.

—Commercial Club of Brockton took 2 out of 3 from Waban in a Newton League Match at the Waban Neighborhood Club Wednesday evening.

—Miss Dorothy Friend Robinson, dramatic reader from the Leland Powers School of the Spoken Word will give a recital at the Waban Club House next Monday evening.

—Miss Janice Upham entertained a number of her friends at a Halloween Frolic on Monday evening. Prizes were given for the best costumes, the first being awarded to Miss Peggy Le Clear and the second to Miss Josephine Clapp.

—The Waban boys did considerable damage on Saturday evening to personal property. Much of it was wilful, and more of the hoodlum kind, and it will cost the owners many dollars to replace. Boyish pranks are different to this kind of wanton destruction.

—Mrs. A. H. Houghton of Woodward street gave a Halloween party last Saturday night to 16 of her friends. The house was prettily decorated in Halloween colors. Jokes and much laughter and good fun prevailed at supper. After supper, the guests adjourned to the Neighborhood Club for dancing.

—Mrs. Beatrice Forbes Robertson Hale has been secured for the next of the "Community Series" Entertainments being given by the Waban Neighborhood Club. Mrs. Hale is one of the foremost American women speakers and her appearance will be particularly timely in view of Woman's Suffrage and its new demands upon American women.

—With fifty patronesses from all parts of Newton, Wellesley, Brookline and Boston, many of whom are working earnestly to ensure a large and appreciative audience, the recital of Miss Dorothy Friend Robinson, the young and attractive dramatic reader next Monday evening at the Waban Club House is sure to be one of the most interesting social events of the season. Her easy, natural and accurate renderings of the most difficult selections from Shakespeare, Tennyson and other noted authors has secured for her high commendation from noted critics. Miss Robinson does not read selections in the old fashioned manner of the elocutionist for although Miss Robinson is the only actor upon the scene, her impersonation of the characters she presents is so vividly true to life that it actually seems as if the people themselves were living and moving upon the stage.

—The young ladies of the Miss Allen's School gave a delightful Halloween dance Saturday evening for their young men friends.

—The first performance of "The Pioneers" will be given by the Girl Scouts of the city in Players' Hall tomorrow at 2.30 P.M.

—The November meeting of the Men's Club will be held next Tuesday evening in the parish house of the Second Church.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Putnam, nee Dowse, who have been at Eswood, Temple street, for a few weeks have opened their home in Boston.

—Mrs. R. W. Newell, playing with Mr. Ray Gorton was tied for the best gross score in the open mixed foursome at the Woodland club on Tuesday.

—Mr. Frank H. Kellen of Eliot avenue has started on an automobile trip through the Southern States on business. He expects to be gone several months.

—Don't forget the Food Sale held by the West Newton W. C. T. U. in the store, 1299 Washington street, tomorrow, Saturday afternoon. All home-cooked food.

—Miss Josephine Buswell of Eliot avenue entertained a number of her friends on Halloween Night. The house was beautifully decorated in appropriate colors.

Technical High School

The drive of "Better Speech" opened in each room and was conducted according to the plans and devices of each teacher. Each pupil was given a card expressing the beauty of the English language which served as an inspiration during the week.

Mr. Charles Swain Thomas spoke on Tuesday to the Juniors and Seniors on "Better Speech." On Wednesday, Miss Bragg addressed the Sophomores and Freshmen on the same subject, and on Friday a meeting was conducted by the Seniors for the Freshmen and Sophomores at which the best essays written during the week were read. Every student in every class wrote upon some phase of the subject.

—Mrs. Helen C. Taylor has been nominated by Gov. Coddge for a trustee of the School for Feeble Minded.

—Rev. and Mrs. William Pettigrew of Irving street have gone to Assam, India, to continue their work there.

—The Newton W. C. T. U. met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. E. W. Varney, 34 Tyler terrace. Mrs. Alice Ropes, vice president at large, gave the address of the afternoon.

—An automobile owned and operated by Mike Aybury of Boston collided last Saturday with a car of the M. and B. St. R. R. on the corner of Commonwealth avenue and Manet road.

—The Senior World Wide Guild of the First Baptist Church held a party Thursday evening in the chapel to meet Miss Helen Bailey. All young women were asked to come dressed as little children.

—The Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church held its annual meeting on Wednesday. The Woman's Societies of the other churches of Newton were invited as guests. Mrs. George W. Coleman, formerly president of the Boston Woman's City Club spoke on "Mormonism."

—Just before the beginning of the morning service at Trinity Church next Sunday Mrs. Allen Hubbard will render "Rheinburger's" "Morning Hymn" for violin, with organ accompaniment. For the Introit, Mrs. Hubbard will play Gounod's beautiful "L'Angelus." Offertory Anthem, "Yea, Though I Walk" (Sullivan).

—Last Saturday a very delightful Halloween party was held at the home of Mrs. Everett W. Varney, Tyler terrace. Twelve couples of young people of high school age were the guests. An extraordinary ghost which actually winked greeted the guests as they approached the house, and a cat of unusual ferocity was an amusing feature of the entertainment.

—The first of the community vespers services at the First Church will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The program will be furnished by the First Church Orchestra, Mr. Ralph McLean, conductor, and will last one hour. These afternoon vespers services were very popular last season, and bid fair to be still more popular this season.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Leon G. Atkinson to the Newton Centre Savings Bank dated April 5, 1917, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds in book 4128, page 555, for breach of the condition of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction the premises hereinafter described, on Saturday the twenty-seventh day of November, 1920, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, all singular, the following described real estate:—

A certain parcel of land and the buildings thereon situated in that part of Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts called Newtonville on the westerly side of the private way formerly called Victoria Street and now called Victoria Circle. The said land is shown as Lot G on a plan entitled Plan of land in Newton, Mass., belonging to C. C. Streeter and C. D. Young, by E. S. Smilie, surveyor, dated August 30, 1916. The said land is bounded and described as follows: Easterly by said Victoria Circle by courses respectively nineteen and one-half (19½) feet and sixty and 71/100 (61.71) feet, as shown on said plan; northerly by the southerly sideline of a private way shown on said plan ninety-two and 64/100 (92.64) feet; northwesterly by land now or late of Clark C. Streeter at al thirty (30) feet and southwesterly by land now or late of said Streeter at al shown as Lot H on said plan one hundred (100) feet.

Subject to and with the benefit of a right of way for the purposes of a street in common with others entitled thereto in and over the private way known as Victoria Street and in and over the private way known as Victoria Circle including a portion of Victoria Circle shown on said plan and also the continuation thereof to its intersection with said Morton Street, and also subject to the restrictions set forth in a deed of Clark C. Streeter at al to Henry C. Bourne at al dated October 1, 1916, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds in book 4099, page 112.

Three hundred Dollars ($300.) will be required to be paid by the purchaser at the time and place of sale.

Newton Centre Savings Bank, Newton Centre, Mass., Noble, Davis & Stone, Attys., 73 State St., Boston, Mass., Nov. 5-12-19.

THE REASON WHY

The reason why your savings should be deposited in this bank is that every dollar put into this bank helps the growth and development of your home city and therefore helps you.

Nearly sixty-five percent of the bank's deposits is loaned to home owners and practically all of it on houses in Newton.

There are plenty of fine, strong savings banks, but money placed in banks outside of Newton is very apt to stay outside and doesn't do Newton any particular good.

The bank is open Saturday evenings for those who cannot come during the day and it is very easy to bank by mail if one cannot easily come to the bank.

It is a satisfaction to all club women in the city that the Bureau of Household Occupations is once more functioning. The announcement comes that there are plenty of laborers clamoring for employment, but that the opportunities for service are as yet few. It takes two parties to make such a venture a success. The Club Editor is confident that so soon as the women of Newton are fully aware that the Bureau is again doing business, they will be glad to avail themselves of its service and thus do their share in making it an agency which we cannot do without. The telephone number is Newton North 3480. The office is in the Red Cross House, Newtonville and open from 9 to 12 every day except Saturday.

State Federation

Tuesday, November 9, 10 A. M. Education and Literature Conference. Universalist Church, Buena Vista street, Roxbury, by invitation of the Women in Council. Mr. Frank V. Thompson, superintendent of schools, Boston, will speak on "The Educational Outlook." Professor Sophie C. Hart, of Wellesley College, will speak on "Democratization of Social Ideals," at the afternoon session. Box lunch. Take Warren street car from Dudley Street station.

Tuesday, November 9, 2 P. M. Music Conference at Manchester. Subjects: "What the Music Department of the Federation means to a Community"; "Appropriate Music for different types of Motion Pictures." "Community Singing."

Friday, November 12, 10.15 A. M. Civic and Public Health Conference at Everett. Citizenship and Fire Prevention will be discussed in the morning.

Local Announcements

Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. W. M. Mick will be hostess for the meeting of the Newton Highlands Shakespeare Club. Miss Alberta J. Crombie will be in charge of the study of King Henry VI, Part II, acts 3, 4 and 5.

Mrs. A. H. Armstrong will be hostess for the meeting of the Newton Highlands Monday Club on November 8. The study of Norway will be continued with papers on "Norway as it is and was," "Folk Lore and Legends."

On Monday afternoon Mrs. W. Scott Richards will entertain the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. and will also be in charge of the work, "Thomas Edison," being the subject.

On Tuesday evening, November 9 at 8 P. M. the open meeting of the Auburndale Woman's Club will be held in the Congregational Church. Donald B. MacMillan will speak on "Arctic Explorations." Mr. MacMillan has a wealth of first hand experience to relate, having made several trips with Peary to the frozen North, and later heading expeditions of his own. He is a forceful and dramatic speaker, as well as a scientist and man of action. Lasell Seminary shares with the club the pleasure of arranging this meeting. A cordial welcome is extended to everyone.

Tuesday, November 9, the Home Economics Club of the Newtonville Woman's Club holds its monthly meeting, which will be the Thrift afternoon for the year. Miss Emma Hazitt will speak on "Business Methods for Women."

Massachusetts received one concession at the hands of the General Federation last June in the appointment of Mrs. Walter S. Little as chairman of the Art committee. The Social Science Club considers itself particularly fortunate in being able to secure Mrs. Little to speak at its next meeting, Wednesday, November 10. Her subject will be pottery and her talk will be supplemented by an exhibit of American pottery. Guests may be invited.

From the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club comes the announcement: If you want a good laugh, attend the play next Wednesday evening, November 10, at 8 P. M. at the Emerson school hall. "A Merry Kindergarten" will be presented by an all-star cast chosen from among the members of the club. The costumes alone will be worth the price of admission.

Thursday, November 11, 10.30 A. M. Mrs. Grace M. Poole will give the first in her series of talks upon Current Events before the Newton Centre Woman's Club.

Miss Amy M. Sacker will speak before the Newton Community Club next Thursday afternoon, November 11, on "Experiences as Art Director in the Motion Pictures Studios of California during the War." Mrs. Claude U. Gilson will speak before the Citizenship class of the club on Friday of next week, and Miss Margaret McGill will give the closing talk the following week.

November 12 the program for the meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club is in charge of the Home Economics committee. Mrs. M. L. Robinson will speak on "Three Meals a Day." There will be a food sale in charge of Mrs. F. E. Cole.

Local Happenings

Mrs. C. S. Cook of Valentine street opened her home for the meeting of the Newton Mothers' Club last Monday afternoon. Mrs. Owen B. Evans spoke on "Utilizing a Waste Product." Her talk was listened to with close attention, as she pointed out ways of enlisting the aid of the children and turning their energy into a useful product in the household. Tea was served during the social hour. Serving as hostesses with Mrs. Cook were Mrs. G. I. Jones, Mrs. C. L. Newton and Mrs. W. F. Chase.

The Christian Era Study Club presented "Twelfth Night" to a large and enthusiastic audience of members and their friends at the home of Mrs. Dike last Monday, November 1st. The costumes were no small feature of a smooth and successful performance.

At the first meeting of the Waban Woman's Club held in the Neighborhood Club House on Monday afternoon, Mrs. Dana M. Dutch, the president, introduced Mrs. Pierson, who made a brief appeal for Twombly House, telling of the good things being done there and asking for financial support. Mrs. Hector M. Adams as chairman of the Scholarship committee, announced that the $100 voted to be given toward a scholarship fund for a Newton High School girl had been awarded to Charlotte Arnold of Waban. Another report arousing much interest was that of Mrs. Condon, chairman of the Education committee in which she stated that the new school building now seems assured for next spring. The program for the afternoon consisted of three groups of songs delightfully rendered by Alice Huston Stevens and two groups of piano selections by Richard E. Stevens, who also accompanied Mrs. Stevens. Both artists were greatly enjoyed by a large audience. Tea was served at the close.

The program of readings by Miss Alice Lonergan on Monday evening before the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club were greatly enjoyed by the large number present. The members were reminded of the second rehearsal of the Community Chorus next Monday evening and of the play on Wednesday, November 10th.

Tuesday morning brought out a large number of the members and friends of the Auburndale Review Club to the home of Miss Margaret Tucker at Vista avenue, an unusually attractive program had been announced. Miss Harriette D. Hunt was in charge of the morning, presenting a paper upon the lyrical poetry of this country beginning with the early times and bringing it down to the present day.

The second part of the program was the presentation of the play, "John Alden." The cast included Miss Hunt, as Miles Standish, Mrs. Scott Rider, as Priscilla, Mrs. W. H. Blood, as Dame Mullen, and Mrs. Arthur Francis Farley, as John Alden. The setting was appropriately arranged with old-fashioned furniture and the costumes were also adapted to the times. Mrs. May Sleeper Ruggles sang, with Mrs. Nelson Freeman at the piano.

At the meeting of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club on Tuesday held in the Congregational church, Mrs. C. G. Wetherbee reported the recent meeting of the State Federation. Patriotic songs were sung by Mrs. Raymond R. Fuller and by the audience and there were responsive patriotic readings in commemoration of Armistice Day.

Mrs. Grosvenor D'W. Marcy, the president introducing Dr. Leon Vincent, the speaker of the afternoon, recalled her girlhood memories of him as "her favorite speaker" in her Lasell Seminary days. Dr. Vincent held his audience throughout his address on "English Novelists of Today" which was full of trenchant humor and a fresh perception of men and books. Tea was served under the direction of the Social Committee.

Tuesday was a busy day for the members of the Newtonville Woman's Club. The first regular meeting of the season was held in the afternoon which proved a very full and intensely interesting one as the different members in their Travelogues completely girdled the earth. Mrs. H. V. Jones told most graphically of the General Federation Biennial, bringing the spirit of the occasion so vividly home that her audience felt that they had actually been present themselves. Mrs. Eugene Rust was equally successful in taking them to Japan. Miss Louise Sherman's account of her experience in the Near East were likewise filled with interest. Mrs. William Strong told of the devastated region and of a visit to her son's grave in France.

gathered at the New church parlors for the Pop Concert. A varied entertainment under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Hastings was interspersed with election returns, which were greeted with great excitement, the major part of the audience favoring the winning side. Refreshments were served and general good time enjoyed.

A business meeting marked the opening of the year for the Social Science Club on Wednesday morning with reports of activities to come. Miss Georgia H. Emery gave an interesting account of the Biennial from the view point of her first experience. Mrs. George Lincoln Parker reported the State Federation meeting at Dorchester. A gift of $5 was voted towards the endowment of a free bed at the Children's Hospital. A clear delineation of the club's finances was presented by the treasurer for thoughtful consideration of the members.

The joint Conservation class of the Community and Social Science clubs met for organization this Friday morning under the leadership of Mrs. Fred H. Tucker. It will hereafter meet at the Hunnewell Club on the first and third Friday mornings at ten o'clock. The Citizenship class of the Community club was addressed by Mrs. Martha Elliott this afternoon.

Massachusetts State Federation

A place as easily accessible as Dorchester always attracts a very large number of club women for a Federation meeting. This fact together with bright autumnal skies and more brilliant foliage brought out the largest attendance at the Autumn meeting last Friday of any for a long time, there having been 1,180 present at the afternoon session.

Ten o'clock found the Second church already well filled and fresh additions with the arrival of each trolley car or automobile. The session opened with a salute to the flag followed by a graceful address of welcome from the president of the Dorchester branch.

BIBLE PLATTSBURG

Complete programs are ready for the Third Bible School Plattsburg, which comes on the five evenings of Nov. 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14, at the Central Church, Newtonville.

The "Plattsburg" is an important feature of the work of those Protestant Sunday Schools which are located in the Newtons, Waltham, Watertown, Belmont, Waverley, and Weston, together forming the Norumbega District Sunday School Association. This program is prepared to meet the demand for trained teachers and leaders—a demand which is constantly growing in the church world.

Department methods, covering many phases of Sunday School work are to be given, as well as two Bible courses—these courses continue throughout the five evenings of the institute. The assembly addresses will deal with the recent progress and the forward steps in the field of religious education, both in and outside the organized Sunday School.

The courses to be given each evening are as follows:—1st period, 6.45 to 7.45—Round table conferences for general administrative officers; Class teaching for boys and girls of 12 to 17; How to conduct the Primary and Junior departments; Life of Christ. Courses for 2nd period; 8.30 to 9.30—Church School Administration and organization; Organized classes and departments in the Young People's Division; How to teach Primary and Junior children; Expressional work for Primary and Junior children; Social backgrounds and teachings of the Old Testament.

The Assembly addresses, 7.50 to 8.25 are as follows:—

Wednesday, Nov. 10. "World-wide religious education through the organized Sunday School," by Dr. Ferguson, General Secretary of the Massachusetts S. S. Association.

Thursday, Nov. 11. "Religious education outside the Sunday School," by Rev. H. G. Hageman of Lynn.

Friday, Nov. 12. "Ideals and plans of our own," by Mr. R. O. Walter, President of Norumbega District.

Monday, Nov. 15. "Our religious responsibility to the Community," by Dr. A. E. Holt of Newton, Social Service Secretary of the Congregational Education Society.

Tuesday, Nov. 16. "The spiritual privilege of volunteers," by Very Rev. E. S. Roumariere, Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, Boston.

Special group conferences, covering both periods of a single evening, are as follows:—

Wednesday, November 10, "The Woman's class and its task," by Mrs. E. Morris Ferguson.

Thursday, Nov. 11. "The Adult Bible Class," by Rev. W. V. Lytle, of the Congregational Education Society.

Friday, Nov. 12. "Parents' problems," by Mrs. V. V. Morris, Children's Division Secretary of the Mass. S. S. Association.

Tuesday, Nov. 16, "The Home Department," by Miss K. C. Bourne, Home Extension Secretary of the Mass. S. S. Association.

The "Plattsburg" is under the direct supervision of the teacher-training committee of the District. The supporters at 6 P. M. are to be served by the ladies of various churches in the District, as their contribution to the work of their church schools.

HERR HUGO SCHMIDT

Many in Newton and in Boston, as well as all over this country, will read with deep regret, of the tragic death of Prof. Hugo Schmidt, for so long a time connected with the Allen School in West Newton, and since the death of the Allen brothers, with the Hackley School at Tarrytown. Prof. Schmidt came directly to the Allens from Breslau, where he had been connected with the University of Breslau and Griefswald—as an instructor of the modern languages and sciences.

He was a man beloved and honored by all who knew him, as he was most faithful, conscientious and unselfish in his work as teacher of German, Physics and Chemistry. He was a German of the very highest type and always remained faithful to the best principles of life. He had been greatly saddened by the war, but kept actively at work at his post in Tarrytown educating the American youth to live good and upright lives. Owing to complications, he failed to get to Europe the past summer, to see his brother, his sister and his nephews, so spent the summer months with the Bucks in Sheffield, whose welcome guest he always remained. He lost his life this past week, while making a scientific investigation of an old mine, near Tarrytown, falling down a deep shaft; the body was found four days later.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday at the Hackley School. The world is certainly benefited by having such an example of faithful devotion to his life work, and many a youth will remember him as one of his best and most loyal friends and instructors at the Allen School and more recently at the Hackley School in Tarrytown.

SHUBERT THEATRE—William Harris, Jr.'s production of "East is West," with Fay Bainter, the first and best of the "interesting Eastern" plays that have acquired sudden popularity with American audiences, is now in the third month of its successful engagement at the Sam S. Shubert Theatre, Boston, where it has been playing to capacity and fascinated audiences nightly. Its producers have staged something so entirely different from the usual run of plays that the production is proving to be, by far, the most unusual and the most charming play which has been seen in Boston for many seasons, and bids fair to repeat there the record-breaking success of the New York engagement, where it recently completed a run of two consecutive seasons at the Astor Theatre, lasting through the summer months without a break and playing to enormous audiences at every performance. The play is full of interest from start to finish and is worked out in a masterly manner, everything, of course, coming out right in the end.

CITY HALL

Miss May White has resigned from the Assessing Dept. to teach elocution and dancing.

NEWTON WINS AGAIN

Newton High School, regarded now as the logical selection for the championship of the Suburban League, defeated Rindge Technical, 13 to 0, at Russell Field, North Cambridge, Saturday afternoon, in the cleanest game ever played on the grounds, not a penalty being inflicted on either team, although the contest was hard and fast throughout.

The game Rindge played is not disclosed by the score, the plucky Cambridge outfit making more first downs against the Garden City team than any other eleven has been able to this season.

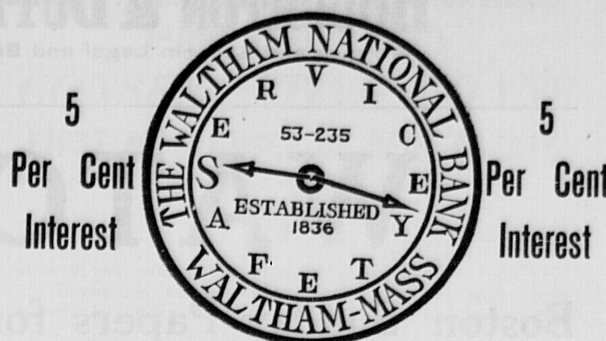

Newton scored its first touchdown in the first period when it carried the ball straight down the field on skin tackle and line plays to the four-yard line, where a Newton back fumbled the ball rolling over the Rindge goal line. Gulian fell on it for a touchdown. H. Garrity missed the goal.

Newton scored its last touchdown in the fourth period, carrying the ball from midfield to the 6-yard line. With fourth down, four to go, Bob Garrity shot through his own left tackle for the touchdown, while his brother, Henry, kicked the goal.

The chief figure was Bob Garrity, halfback and captain of the Orange and Black. Time and again he broke through the Rindge line for gains of 10 and 15 yards. He also shot forward passes with precision.

Swartz, all-interscholastic end of last year, suffered the only mishap, a broken wrist.

The sign of a reliable dealer and the world's best Gasoline

Every motor highway and byway throughout picturesque New England and New York is a part of the long "Socony Trail".

Ye Olde Towne Mill, New London, Conn. This is said to be the oldest mill in America. It was built in 1650 for John Winthrop, who founded New London.

MANY quaint sections of old New London are familiar to thousands of New England motorists. There is a main Socony depot there and many well-distributed filling stations to assure a dependable supply of gasoline and motor oils for all who need them.

The excellence of Socony products and Socony service is uniformly high. Unequaled experience in petroleum refining and progressive methods of distribution have made them possible.

Socony gasoline is always clean and powerful. Every drop of every gallon is the same whenever and wherever you buy it. It vaporizes quickly, ignites easily and burns completely in summer and winter alike. It is the standard of all motor fuels.

Use Socony products regularly. You will notice a favorable difference in the performance of your motor—more power, greater mileage.

Look for the red, white and blue Socony sign.

LEND-A-HAND SOCIETY

The Lend-A-Hand Society held its Fall Conference Saturday afternoon at the Universalist Church, Newtonville. The meeting was opened by the Rev. Christopher R. Eliot of Bulfinch place, Boston. Rev. Rufus R. Dix gave the greetings of the Universalist Church to the delegates and members of other Lend-A-Hand Societies. About 125 delegates were present.

The morning program included a general report of the work of the Lend-A-Hand Societies by Miss Annie S. Brown, an account of the work of the Near East Relief by Miss Ruth Gordon, and an appeal for Dr. Grenfell's Work in Newfoundland. $75 was pledged for the latter from the floor. Between the addresses solos were sung by Miss Edith Matthews and Miss Ella Newman of Perkins Institute.

Luncheon was served at noon. Following this, Miss Eva B. Ammidon spoke of the work of the Maine Sea Coast Mission. She told what the coming of "The Sunbeam," the mission yacht meant to the people of the isolated islands, and made an appeal for toys at Christmas time, clothing, and magazines.

Mr. Robert W. Kelso, state commissioner of the Dept. of Public Welfare then spoke on "Preventive Social Service."

Mr. Kelso said in part: "There are 50,000 dependent people in Massachusetts. Of this number, 20,000 are insane, 10,000 in almshouses, 2,500 feeble minded, and the others in consumptive and other hospitals. The 350 cities and towns in Massachusetts spent last year for these unfortunate ones, $14,000,000—the exact amount of the state budget. The 1,000 charities of the state spent $24,000. Unfortunately the number of these unfortunate ones is increasing faster than the growth of the population.

One reason for the vast number in Massachusetts is that formerly other countries used to send their poor to Massachusetts. In 1830 there was a steamship line between Boston and England known as the "Poor House Line."

One of the institutions which is doing the most in this state is the Hospital for Crippled Children in Canton. Here every child is not only made well, if possible, but is taught a means of earning a livelihood. So famous is this school that the Belgian government is sending representatives to study conditions there.

"The time has come," the speaker concluded, "when the health of the individual is a public affair. Social diseases which cause 15 per cent of all insanity should be controlled through enlightened public opinion."

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

After the election the next big event on the calendar for all good Americans will be the Annual Roll Call of the Red Cross which this year will run from Armistice Day, November 11 to Thanksgiving Day, November 25. In Newton Mr. Leon B. Rogers will act as chairman of the roll call for the Newton Chapter of the Red Cross and he will be assisted by those who made such a success of the roll call in Newton last year. This year the Newton Chapter hopes to enroll 15,000 annual $1 members which means that it hopes to renew the membership of every one who is now a member and to add nearly two thousand new names to its roll. The officers of the Chapter believe that Newton will continue to stand at the head of the chapters around Boston and that Mr. Rogers' committee will be able to report before the expiration of the roll call period that Newton has reached, and even bettered the 15,000 mark in membership.

What the Newton Chapter has done in the last year may be judged by the report of its supply department that from October 1, 1919 to June, 1920, it shipped to the New England Division 2851 knitted garments, 4612 refugee garments, 940 layettes and 111 pajamas. In June it received an urgent call for 500 layettes to be ready for shipment before September 15 and it met the call on time. And this report of the Supply Department covers only a portion of the work by that one department. The work of the Home Service Department, for instance, which is perhaps the most important department because there are in Newton three thousand service men in whose interests it works, makes a story by itself which will be told at another time. What the Chapter wishes the people of Newton to know is that Red Cross work is going on and will go on for some time and that Newton is maintaining the record that it made during the war.

At the annual meeting of the Chapter at Talbot House, Newtonville, Wednesday evening, these directors were elected: Mr. George M. Angier, Mrs. George M. Angier, Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden, Mrs. Samuel W. Bridges, Mrs. Albert P. Carter, Mrs. Morton E. Cobb, Rev. Charles H. Cutler, Mrs. John Cutler, Mrs. Bernard Early, Mrs. Arthur C. Farley, Mr. Oliver M. Fisher, Mr. Frank P. Hopewell, Mr. J. E. Jamieson, Mr. C. E. Kelsey, Mr. H. H. Kendall, Mrs. J. N. Lovell, Mrs. L. H. Marshall, Mrs. Marcus Morton, Mr. H. J. Nichols, Mrs. F. S. Sawyer, Mr. George R. Pulsifer, Mr. Frank W. Remick, Mr. Charles E. Riley, Mr. Leon B. Rogers, Miss Ethel W. Sabin, Mrs. Vernon B. Swett, and Mrs. Geo. H. Talbot. At a meeting of the directors, Mr. George M. Angier was elected chairman, Mrs. Marcus Morton, secretary, Mr. J. W. Estabrook, treasurer, and Mr. George R. Pulsifer, assistant treasurer.

MOTHERS' REST ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the Mothers' Rest Association of Newton Centre was held in the parlors of the Methodist Episcopal Church, N. C., Thursday afternoon, Oct. 21 at 2:30 o'clock.

Preceding the meeting a simple luncheon was given by the board of managers to which everyone interested was invited. Tickets were issued at 65 cents each. The meeting was opened by Rev. Dr. Wagner, the pastor of the M. E. Church. The annual reports of the secretary, Mrs. H. H. Kendall, and of the treasurer, Mrs. W. R. Holt, were read and approved. These were followed by the reports of the season's work given by the chairmen of the several committees. Mrs. R. E. Anderson, being unable to be present her report was read by Mrs. A. C. Badger. Others were as follows: Mrs. C. B. Moore, chairman of committee on guests and transportation; Mrs. H. B. Bovey, chairman of committee on special relief; Mrs. L. D. Jennings, chairman of committee in charge of the House and Grounds; Mrs. G. C. Ewing, chairman of committee on Sunday services; Mrs. L. G. Morse, chairman of committee on visitation. The matron, Mrs. Myra Taylor, gave a stirring talk describing the pitiful need of many of the women in her charge at the Rest and telling how much such a place is needed and how thoroughly worthwhile the work has proved to be in her long experience as matron of the Mothers' Rest at Needham Heights. The oldest woman entertained there this summer was 75 years and the youngest baby was six weeks old. In all, 139 mothers and 209 children have spent two weeks at the Rest this year. One mother of only 18 years had with her two children, one 16 months and the other 2 months old, and said she had never rested before in her life. Mrs. Taylor spoke of gratitude that there had been no illness, no extreme weather, so much sunshine and such an interested devoted spirit among all her helpers.

Miss Poland, the nurse, is a student at the Boston University Medical School and sent a written report which was read by Dr. Holman, a former nurse at the Rest, and a graduate of the same institution. Dr. Cameron, now a physician in the Mass. Homeopathic Hospital and formerly nurse at the Rest spoke of her experiences there and the gain in health and knowledge which she had seen in her experience with the mothers at the Rest.

The Mothers' Rest Club, an association of younger women in Newton Centre, was read by the president, Mrs. L. D. Jennings.

The report of the Committee on Nominations was called and the following officers and members of the Board of Managers elected for the ensuing year. After the ballots had been collected, Miss Miller, of the Social Service Dept. of the Newton Hospital, spoke in gratitude for the aid given to 24 mothers and 54 children sent to the Rest through her agency during the past two years.

The president closed the meeting with a short history of the founding of the M. R. A. and its inception, caused by the need of mothers and children in the stifling and crowded tenements of Boston, and stated that with the growth of our own city, the need of Newton women had opened the Rest to two Newton women in each party of 18, for two weeks of rest and comfort.

FAIR AT THE IMMANUEL CHURCH

The fair held by the ladies of Immanuel Baptist Church has proved both a social and financial success.

Each class in the Sabbath School has had some part in its activities.

The Cafeteria Supper on Wednesday evening was served exceptionally well. Mrs. Durgin and Mrs. Sylvester in charge, with the Immanuel Associates as waiters.

The church orchestra was no small feature of the evening. The orchestra is certainly to be congratulated on the work it is doing.

Tea was served afternoon and evening of both days, Mrs. Merritt, chairman.

Gift table—The Mathews Class, Mrs. Theodore Morton, chairman.

Baby table—Cradle Roll, Mrs. Chester L. Cotton, chairman.

Card table—Junior Christian Endeavor Society.

Pop Corn—Intermediate Christian Endeavor, Miss Louise Moore, chairman.

Candy table—The Philathea and Elizabethan Classes.

The entertainment, "Cinderella in Flowerland" was a delightful addition to Thursday's program. The part of Cinderella was taken by Barbara Fuller, of Prince Sunshine, by Gwendolyn Hayes, Godmother, Miss Elinor Reid, Robin Red, the Prince's Herald, Daniel Strohmeyer. It took the form of a pantomime. Mrs. L. H. Naylor and Mrs. Leslie Moore, directors, with Miss Emily Blaisdell as soloist.

The Publicity Committee (Mr. and Mrs. Anders) are responsible for a most attractive poster and program.

To those whose loyal hearts and willing hands contributed so generously to the success of this fair, we extend our sincere thanks and appreciation.

"That's the way to heat a house—each room as you need it"

BY "driving" your furnace or steam heater to keep every room up to 70° or 72°, you invariably make some rooms stuffy—overheated. Up-to-date families keep the whole house reasonably warm with their regular heater and use a Perfection Oil Heater to make the most used rooms extra comfortable and cozy.

This is scientific, direct heating. Where you heat rooms only as they need it, there is a noticeable decrease in coal bills—less care, more comfort.

About 10 hours of heat on a gallon of kerosene
 A Perfection Oil Heater will burn about 10 hours on a gallon of kerosene. It is so simple and compact a child could clean it—no fuss, no litter, no ashes.

Wherever you put it you find a radiant glow of cozy warmth. Boil a tea kettle of water on it, let it dry the clothes on a rainy day, take it in the sewing room, put it in the play-room. In coal saved, convenience and general usefulness, it pays for itself many times over.

Sold at leading hardware, housefurnishing and department stores—in black or blue finish—with or without nicked trimmings. Your dealer will gladly explain its operation. Look at one today.

For best results use Socony Kerosene.

The following members of the Daughters of the Revolution visited the Reconstruction Hospital on Parker Hill on Monday: Mrs. Edwin P. Leonard, Mrs. Edgar M. Horne, Mrs. Willard L. Sampson, Dr. Marietta O. Reir, Mrs. Elmer L. Gibbs, Miss Clara Coburn, and Miss Dorothy Drake. They visited the wards and the recreation hut with candy, cookies and delicacies for the boys. Mr. Clair Leonard played.

You are welcome to the Showrooms of Messrs. McKenney & Waterbury Co., 151 Franklin street, corner Congress, Boston, Mass., to the exhibition of the largest display of Electric, Gas and Oil Lighting Fixtures in this country.

BROWN—GOLDTHWAITE

The wedding of Miss Gladys Viola Goldthwaite, daughter of Mrs. Abby L. Goldthwaite of 19 Fuller street, Brockton, and Henry Atwood Brown, son of Mrs. Clara E. Brown, of Watertown street, Newton, was solemnized at the First Parish Congregational church, Brockton, to-day, at noon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Claude Allen McKay, former pastor of the church, now pastor of the Congregational church at Gardner, Mass.

The maid of honor was Miss Minnetta F. Bearse, an intimate friend of the bride, and the best man was Mr. Carl Eldridge of Boston.

Shortly before twelve, the bridal party entered the auditorium and advanced to the altar where the ceremony took place, during which McDowell's "To a Wild Rose," was played by the church organist, Mr. Elwin Shaw. The double-ring service was used.

The bride was very attractively attired in a taupe satin traveling costume with hat to match and carried an arm bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor was gowned in blue champagne and carried pink carnations.

Mr. Brown's gift to the bride was a circlet pin of pearls. The bride's gift to her attendant was a gold wrist watch and the groom presented the best man with a scarf pin set with amethyst and diamond.

Mrs. Brown is very popular in Brockton and has hosts of friends. She is a member of the First Parish Congregational Church. She is also a member of the Brockton Woman's Club and the Needle Work Guild.

Mr. Brown is a well-known real estate and business man of Boston and Brockton. For the past two years he has conducted an office in Brockton and successfully developed Rocky Hook Point and Pinehurst Beaches. He is a member of the Boston City Club, Massachusetts Real Estate Exchange, and Union Lodge A. F. & A. M. Immediately following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for a honeymoon trip. Upon their return they will reside at 19 Fuller street, Brockton.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL NOTES

At the Girls' Assembly Wednesday morning a play was given "The Haunted Gate," which had been coached by Mrs. Bemis. Mr. Harold T. Dougherty, Head Librarian of the Newton Library, gave an illustrated lecture upon Colorado, the regular Monday morning assembly. Mr. Dougherty had visited this part of the country recently and had taken many beautiful views of the mountains and other marvels of nature in this wonderful section of America.

The results of a straw vote taken Thursday gave Mr. Harding a victory of three to one over Mr. Cox.

Better Speech Week is being observed in some of the rooms by tributes to the social, business, and individual value of better speech.

Miss Kenrick has returned to her duties in the Household Arts Department after an absence of several weeks caused by illness.

The Hygiene classes of that department recently gave an out-of-door demonstration of the work they were doing. The ceremony was called "The Health Initiative."

It is hoped that Mr. Murray will soon give a talk at the Monday morning assembly upon his investigations in the coal fields of Pennsylvania.

POLICE NOTES

In the Police Court Monday, Judge Bacon heard complaints made by Agent Russell of the Board of Health in the matter of protection of the food supply. The proprietor of the Newton Public Market was charged with the illegal sale of cold storage fish, false advertising of fresh (?) henner eggs and the illegal sale of cold storage eggs. Agent Russell was supported by Inspector John McDonough of the state Department of Health and Miss Alderman, the analyst of the state board and Judge Bacon imposed fines of $25 each on the first two counts and $10 on the third. These fines were appealed.

Abraham Rottenberg, who keeps a store at 81 West street, Nonantum, was also charged with the illegal sale of cold storage eggs and paid a fine of $25 imposed by Judge Bacon.

It is said that the charge of illegal sale of cold storage fish is the first ever brought in the state.

NORTH GATE CLUB

Saturday evening, Oct. 30, ushered in the social season at the North Gate Club, West Newton. About 80 of the club members enjoyed a wonderfully pleasant evening in a costumed and masked Halloween Party.

The club rooms were tastefully decorated with autumn leaves and the season's colors. A splendid 5-piece orchestra supplied lively dance music. Prizes were awarded to Miss Doris Koops and to Mr. Walley for the most appropriate costumes. Miss Jones and Mr. Russell Carter received the prizes for the handsomest costumes, and Miss Cooper and Mr. Fred Yeland for the funniest costumes.

This opening night of the new social committee's activity promises a season of exceptional brilliancy. The club is to be congratulated upon the enterprise of its committee and officers.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT

As Mrs. Mary Sostillo was crossing Boylston street, near Langley road, Newton Centre, late Friday night, she was hit by an automobile operated by Blake Lombard of 49 Everton street, Dorchester. Her skull was fractured and she was taken to the Newton Hospital by Mr. Lombard and died on Sunday.

Mrs. Sostillo, who resides at 22 John street, Newton, was accompanied by her daughter Mildred. According to the police, the woman became confused when the automobile approached and, after she had separated from her daughter, she turned back again and stepped in front of the car. The police held the driver blameless. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Katharine A. Lombard.

chester Woman's Club, Mrs. Horace H. Jacobs, Mrs. George Minot Baker, the Federation's president, in her response offered as a text, "Others have labored and we have entered into their labors," touching upon the great responsibilities resting upon women. "The ballot," she said, "should never be thought of as a weapon, but rather as an instrument, something helpful to use,—something for us to use with womanly dignity."

The greater part of the morning was given up to Biennial notes, seven women telling in a bright spicy way of various phases of the great convention. Mrs. Grace M. Poole spoke of the business and election, Mrs. Kenneth O. Brown, of the sessions devoted to Thrift; Mrs. Daniel F. Gay of those on Americanization; Mrs. Frank H. Heustis of Community Service; Mrs. Walter Perham of the social events; and Miss Alice K. Titus of the Vital Messages. Miss Helen D. Hood, one of the Massachusetts members of the Overseas Unit, sent a report of the gay doings of the 41 members of the Unit, who were present at Des Moines, and how they were feted from morning until night of every day of the Convention.

Mrs. Charles B. Hall, president of the New Hampshire Daughters, gave an account of the New England Conference at the Profile House in September and Mrs. Baker, the new Massachusetts Director of the General Federation reported the business transacted by the executive board at the two meetings, which have been held since the Biennial. She explained the fate of the General Federation and went into detail as to why it has been suspended. She stated that while every plan so far advanced for reorganizing the Federation has been promptly voted down, some plan must be devised whereby it may be made less cumbersome and unwieldy. The board has accepted an invitation to hold the Mid-Biennial Council meeting at Salt Lake and the Biennial of 1922 at Chautauqua.

An appeal was made for further contributions for endowing a bed at the Children's Hospital. Up to that day only $750 of the necessary $1,000 having been received. Money for the Anne Hutchinson statue and the Library Drive were commended to the interest of the clubs.

The problem of providing luncheon for so large a number was most satisfactorily accomplished by the hostess club, luncheon being furnished at three different churches for those who had purchased tickets, while the executive board were the guests of the Dorchester Woman's Club in the club house and those who carried their own were amply provided for in the banquet room of the same building where hot coffee was sold.

Dr. Archibald T. Davidson, of Harvard, gave a delightful organ recital as a preliminary to the afternoon session. Seven new clubs were welcomed into membership in the Federation, the Bedford Woman's, the Woman's Auxiliary to the Canadian Club, the Woman's Club of Easthampton, Hopkinton Woman's, Malden Woman's Civic League, South Grafton Woman's, and the Women's Civic League of Cliftondale.

Dr. Henry N. MacCracken, president of Vassar College, was the orator of the day and discussed "National Traits in Education." After pointing out the traits of the various enlightened nations of the earth, he in a masterly way showed how they have been reflected in the education. Among other peoples the Briton is not satisfied to merely graduate, he must graduate with honor, the American on the other hand is not satisfied unless doing something, so we have built up a great system of laboratories and libraries. In Prague, for example, they have no laboratories, yet they are well educated. The American system works out disastrously for the colleges from a financial point of view. We tend to reduce the number of students per teacher to protect the environment of our students by placing our colleges and universities for the most part in small towns. Our system has its defects as well as its merits. We are likely to create a busy-bess, that it is not about anything. Another danger is that they waste time in doing something rather than in thinking. In closing he paid high tribute to the traits brought to this country by the Puritans.

The convention passed the following resolution:

Resolved: (1) That the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs at its autumn meeting, 29 October, 1920, urge Congress (1) To amend the Water Power Act of June, 1920, so that it shall not apply to National Parks and Monuments.

(2) To defeat the Falls River Basin Bill, the bill for the privilege to dam the Yellowstone Lake, and any other bills of similar purpose affecting any National Parks or Monuments, which appear before the next session of Congress.

II. That a copy of this resolution be sent to our United States Senators and Representatives and to the National Parks Association 1512 H street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

BUCKMINSTER HOTEL UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Mr. J. P. Del Monte, the new proprietor of the Buckminster Hotel, assumes full control this week. It takes a hotel man to run a hotel, and Mr.
Del Monte is that kind of a man. His experience as associate manager of the Hotel Westminster and as proprietor of what was formerly known as the North Shore Grill at Magnolia for the past few seasons eminently qualifies him to conduct the affairs of The Buckminster in a profitable and businesslike manner.

Mr. Del Monte says the hotel will be conducted on the plan of the best in the city, with the idea of giving the best of service and food at prices consistent with the present trend of affairs. The Buckminster is located at the junction of Beacon boulevard and Commonwealth avenue, in a section that is rapidly growing, and is destined to be very popular. The hotel has 200 rooms, with two large dining rooms of unusual beauty in decorations and furnishings. Recently about $50,000 has been spent in alterations and improvements.

MR. J. P. DEL MONTE

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

Newton Chapter Making Great Drive for 15,000 Members. What It Is Doing in Newton

The Newton Chapter of the Red Cross in the Fourth Annual Red Cross Roll Call, which began Armistice Day and goes on until Thanksgiving Day, hopes to enroll 15,000 members at $1 each. It hopes to reach this goal in order that it may continue to do the work it has done and is doing and that Newton may continue to hold the place it has had ever since the war days as a loyal Red Cross center.

There is still a great deal of work for the Red Cross to do. Every chapter of the order has to do its share of the general work which the American Red Cross is called upon to do for our army and navy and for the destitute and needy in Europe. It is not improbable that before the winter is over the work to be done for Europe may necessitate starting up once more the Red Cross workrooms for making surgical dressings and garments.

Besides its general work the Newton Chapter also has its own work to do in Newton. The Red Cross stands for preparedness, prevention and service. In the way of preparedness and prevention the Newton Chapter has completed arrangements so that, in case of epidemic or disaster requiring it, it can at once open a building as an emergency hospital, provide it with cots, mattresses and bedding, a fully equipped domestic and culinary department, a nursing and medical staff and have at its disposal the ambulance, truck and cars of the Women's Red Cross Motor Corps. To help in the prevention of disease and the care of the sick it has, in co-operation with the Newton Hospital, made it possible for twelve nurses to take lessons and lectures in Public Health work at Columbia University and to take field work under the direction of the Henry Street settlement in New York. Some of the nurses so trained are engaged in public health work in New England and other states and in Canada. In the seventh and eighth grades of the Newton grammar schools it gives the girls a chance to take lessons in a modified course in home nursing. Last year sixty-four were enrolled in the classes, and, though the weather and illness made it impossible for all to complete the course, forty-four did complete it and received certificates. Of those who took the course one class was made up of Girl Scouts and the Red Cross certificates which they earned entitled them to merit badges from the Scout organization. The teachers who have had a chance to observe the work of the classes speak highly of its value and the course has also served to encourage a greater interest in nursing as a profession which is a matter for encouragement when one thinks of the way in which the number of applicants at the hospital training schools is falling off at present.

Another work that the Newton Chapter is doing for Newton is making it possible for different local organizations to use its rooms at Talbot House, Newtonville, as a convenient central place for meetings. The Welfare Bureau has its rooms there and works in co-operation with the Red Cross. The Bureau of Household Occupations supported by the Newton Federation has the use of a room. In the past year meetings of committees of the Newton Federation, of the Hospital Aid Association, the League of Women Voters, the Camp Fire Girls and the Central Council of Social Agencies have met there. The house has in a way become a community centre and has helped to make possible much good work for the city.

One of the biggest and best pieces of work that the Newton Chapter is doing, as a part of its general and local work, is the work being done by its Home Service Section under the chairmanship of Mr. Joseph B. Jamieson, with Mrs. Carrie A. Hull as executive secretary, and with the help during a part of the last year of Miss Ruth Chapin. The Home Service work began in the early days of the war and the officials of the American Red Cross believe that the peak of its work will not be reached until 1925. In Newton it includes the three thousand ex-service men and their families and

ALDERMEN MEET

Order Relocation of Street Railway Tracks in Walnut St. Make Many Additional Appropriations

There was quite a number of interesting matters at the meeting of the aldermen on Monday night. President Harriman was in the chair, and four members, Aldermen Clement, Jewell, Phipps, and Young were absent.

After hearings on Edison underground in Beacon street, on petition Chestnut Hill Garage to keep 2,000 gallons of gasoline, on the widening and building line on Charlesbank road, favorable action was taken.

Mr. Charles H. Tainter opposed Edison poles on Newell road, and President Pitt F. Drew appeared at the hearing on relocation of tracks of the M. & B. St. Ry. Co. on Walnut street. No one appeared at the hearing on a telephone pole on Duncklee street.

Mayor Childs sent in a long list of additional appropriations, including $200 for care of Police Department buildings; $400 for police automobiles; $10 for office expense, City Messenger; $100 for tuition of Newton pupils in other schools; $331.59 for laborers' pensions; $214 for office expense, City Engineer; $941.04 for 6 new policemen made necessary by the one day off in eight; and $1,200 for curbing, all of which were granted. He also asked for $12,000 for maintenance of streets, of which the board granted $10,000, after Alderman Forknall had urged the full amount. The board also allowed but $5,000 for Collection of Ashes, $6,000 being requested.

The Mayor also sent in the request of the School Committee for a portable school building for the Davis School at West Newton, and an order for $6,805 for such a building was referred to the Finance Committee.

The Mayor also asked approval of a request he had made of the State for an audit of the books of the Comptroller, and this was favored in a resolve approving a request to bring the books up to date at an expense not to exceed $1,000.

Henry B. Day offered the city some land at Fuller and Chestnut streets, and Mrs. C. G. Adams sent in a request about Jefferson street.

Charles E. Rees, on behalf of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and similar organizations, asked for a lease of the old armory land, opposite Channing street, for a portable building to be used as headquarters for those bodies. Alderman Whidden tried to get immediate action, but Alderman Goodwin thought it ought to have more consideration and it was referred to a committee.

Petitions of Carl Pierce for a taxi license, Peter S. McVicar for an auctioneer license, of the Telephone and Edison Co. for poles on Norman road, and of the Telephone Company for relocation of poles on Foster street and for attachments on Austin street and Chase street were granted. A number of private garages were also approved, and several appointments of betterment assessments were granted.

The Baptist Church asked for a relocation of Beacon street, corner of Centre street; the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands, requested a shelter for skaters on Crystal Lake; residents of Morton street, Morton road, Royce road, and Victoria Circle, asked for acceptance of those streets and for sewers in the same. Mrs. E. Lamph filed a claim for a sprained ankle.

THE PIONEERS

Splendid Performance Given by Girl Scout Troops at Players' Hall, West Newton

The first performance of "The Pioneers" was given by the All-Newton Girl Scouts in Players Hall, West Newton last Saturday afternoon before a large and enthusiastic audience. Each one of the seven Troops now organized in the City had some part of the program and over 160 scouts took part. The pageant took just one hour and, from the time the curtain went up on "Somewhere in Newton" in the year 1630 until it was lowered as the Girl Scouts of "Camp Newton" in 1920 were singing Taps there was not a hitch in the program.

The cast for "Somewhere in Newton" in 1630 included Evelyn Perry, Faith Addison, Virginia White and Miriam White.

The play was written especially for this occasion Girl Scout week by Miss Ethel Freeman, Captain of Troop 6 and it will be repeated this Saturday, Nov. 13, in Bray Hall, Newton Centre at 2:30 P. M.

The play was given with great spirit and promptness and much credit is on the program and trained the girls due the Captains who were responsible for their own particular number.

All the Troops did well. The speaking parts were especially well chosen and, by their interpretation, gave just the right atmosphere to the whole entertainment. Troop 3 in the "Early Morning Dip" caused much merriment among the many children in the audience. The drill by Troop 7, the newest troop in the city, was very well done, with much spirit and precision. The flag drill by Troop 4 was especially good and the little episode where the girls received a message of distress and answered it by making a stretcher with staves and their middie blouses and, with a First Aid kit immediately starting off to the relief of those who called for assistance was quite thrilling.

The Bugle and Drum Corps, composed of Drum Major Elizabeth Donovan, Sergeant Bugler Marion Maxim, Corporal Bugler, Elizabeth Pimpton and Sergeant Drummer, Nancy Kimball did a fine piece of work. This Corps is less than a year old, but because the members of it have worked well and hard they have accomplished considerable. There are 10 drummers and 8 buglers in the corps and the Troops have good reason to be proud. The solo played on the drum by Nancy Kimball, Troop 4, was especially good and was much applauded. Troop 1 had an obstacle race for its part of the entertainment. It caused a great deal of merriment and added much to the program. The song and dance which was given by Troop 6 deserves much praise. Troop 6 should be called the singing Troop. The girls have lovely voices and they evidently like to sing. They made a pretty picture in their bright colored costumes and it was a joy to listen to them. Troop 2 had two numbers on the program. Punchinello and the Review of the Merit Badges. Punchinello, a pantomime which was acted by Miss Evelyn Cunningham, Miss Eunice Eddy Bratton, and Miss Maida Bachmann, while Miss Gladys Avery sang the song which was the most artistic part of the whole performance. The minor parts, taken by five of the younger members of the Troop were quite as well played as the principal parts. The whole number was beautifully done and was very delightful.

The Review of the Merit Badges was particularly interesting as it showed the variety of the work which is planned for a girl Scout. 24 girls dressed to represent these Merit

RUMMAGE SALE A SUCCESS

The All-Newton Rummage Sale, which the women of the Newton Hospital Aid Association held at the old Congregational church in West Newton for the benefit of the Newton Hospital, netted over $4,000. The needs of the hospital are so many that even after this amount is spent to meet some of them there will be plenty of opportunity for any who are inclined to do so to give to provide other necessities. The members of the Association are gratified at the success of their sale and are very thankful to all those who contributed and to all those who worked to help it. One feature of the sale which proves that it was a help not only to the hospital but also to many individuals are the statements by many of the buyers of clothes, furniture, and household articles that the reasonable prices asked enabled them to secure necessities which they would otherwise have had to do without, and in the case of clothing, many would have gone coldly clad the coming winter if it had not been for the sale.

JOHN J. CAPE

To the Editor of the Graphic:

Is it not about time that we had in Newton a Taxpayers' Association? Do the taxpayers realize that in spite of high valuations and an increased tax rate this year one very earnest group of citizens is working hard to ensure high valuations and a high rate for the future by mortgaging the future to build school-houses costing two and a half million dollars and another equally earnest group is working as hard to obtain an appropriation of two hundred thousand dollars for a War Memorial? We all agree that the school children and the soldiers are very popular with all of us, and if the expenditures were in the remotest degree necessary none would complain, however heavy the burden might be, but when the schoolhouses are proposed simply for a new experiment in education, called the Junior High School, and the War Memorial is to be a half-million-dollar building stimulating civic pride, may we not suggest that with the present high tax rate and abnormal costs in building operations this is a poor time for such expenses?

There is no question that the City must build the school buildings necessary to house the pupils and that the ex-soldiers should be given suitable club-rooms, but it will not cost nearly three million dollars to accomplish these objects.

My experience at City Hall led me to appreciate keenly the need for such a Taxpayers' Association or Informal Finance Committee. The trouble is that the people who are interested in any project flock to City Hall and use all their influence in its behalf while those who are not interested or are opposed remain silent although they have to pay the bills. Earnest groups of citizens will urge their plans at City Hall and claim to represent the citizens, while it may well be, and sometimes is, the case that those who ask for an expenditure are the only persons in the City in favor of it. A Taxpayers' organization could remedy this situation and make itself felt at City Hall.

The present situation is largely the result of the history of the growth of the city and of our changing tax laws. For 20 years our constantly increasing municipal expenditures were met by increasing the tax on personal property from year to year. The income tax has abolished that possibility. Now with an Income Tax levied by the State and distributed by the State by an arbitrary rule and not according to the tax-paying ability of the various municipalities, Newton's money may be spent to build a road in Wellfleet or a schoolhouse in Springfield. The only resource of the harassed Assessors is to raise the valuations of real estate as well as the rate, and this is precisely what they have done this year.

A high tax rate is not of much importance to the very wealthy, but as reflected in increased rents and costs of business is a real hardship to persons of moderate means and a handicap on the growth of the city. No new industries are searching very hard for the opportunity to pay a twenty-eight dollar rate on their investment, and desirable citizens are turned away by high rentals. It is even now almost impossible for newly married couples to find suitable quarters in Newton.

The twenty years of plenty in Newton has crystallized in all of us the "Newton Standard," the idea that we can and must have the very best and most expensive of everything, the most expensive roads and schoolhouses, sewer and lighting systems obtainable. Today this Newton Standard as reflected in our roadbuilding has resulted in one case at least known to me that it will cost considerably more to build the road than the taxable value of the property on it.

The City Government is entitled to all the help it can have in the solving of the new problems during the next few years, and I believe a Taxpayers' Association would be of great benefit. It may be that all we can do is to suggest to our high and should be lowered rather than raised but a real organization would be much more effective and should be started at once.

Will all those who feel that something should be done communicate with me and I will call a meeting of those interested for organization.

Yours very truly,
Arthur W. Blakemore.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

John T. Burns & Sons report that they have sold for Mrs. Fred A. Houdellet, her estate located at 50 Park avenue, in the Farlow Hill section of Newton. This property is one of the most desirable in this locality and consists of a mansion house of 14 rooms and 4 baths, together with a large, well-equipped stable and garage, flower conservatory, and over 3 acres of land. The property is assessed for $25,000, but the price paid is understood to be far in excess. Mr. J. A. Goddard, of Brookline, purchases for a home. John T. Burns & Sons were the brokers.

This same agency reports that it has sold for Mrs. A. Martin to Charles F. Angell, the bungalow house, corner of Commonwealth avenue and Auburn street, in the Auburndale section. This artistic dwelling contains 8 rooms and bath, and together with 10,000 square feet of land, is valued at $15,000. John T. Burns & Sons represented the grantor and Mr. Nugent of Brookline acted for the purchaser.

The Burns Agency has sold for F. D. Wellington, his two-family, frame house, located at 148-150 Harvard street, in the Newtonville section. This house contains modern suites of 6 rooms and sleeping porch and is valued at $10,000. Laurin Gaylord purchases for home and investment.

The Burns Agency also report having sold to P. C. Finan, the two-family, frame, colonial house, located at 129 Norwood avenue, in the Newtonville section. With the house there are 6500 feet of land, and the total valuation is $5500. Agnes H. Burns was the grantor.

STEINERT CONCERTS

Six concerts at popular prices, of the most exceptional value and interest to the public, will be given under the Steinert management at the Boston Opera House. As these concerts, ten of the greatest artists before the public to-day will appear. Mary Garden will open the series with a song recital on the 19th of December. She will be heard in the singing of simple songs and some of her most celebrated operatic airs. The second concert will be given by Jan Kubelik, the virtuoso on the violin, and true to his Czech nature, a composer as well as a musician born, with a modern musical training of the utmost thoroughness grafted on to his fundamentally artistic nature. The third concert, on January 16th, will be given by Frances Alda, leading prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, and Charles Hackett, the young American tenor, one of the youngest and most accomplished tenors of the Metropolitan. The 4th concert, of January 23, will present Mme. Margaret Matzenauer, the contralto of such vocal range and dramatic power that she sings both soprano and contralto roles in opera, and Alfred Cortot, the French pianist and virtuoso whose performance with the Boston Symphony Orchestra two years ago in this city is still remembered as one of the great events of the season. Rosa Raisa and her husband, Giacomo Rimini, the baritone, will give the 5th concert, on February 6th. Long since, Mme. Raisa won her place as an incomparable "Aida," as one of the few living dramatic sopranos who could sing the role of Bellini's "Norma."

At the 6th concert, on March 27th, will appear Rosa Ponselle, the young soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, who sprang in one dramatic performance from the vaudeville stage to a co-partner of Caruso in the operatic stage. With Miss Ponselle will appear the young Roumanian violinist, Raoul Vidas. Such are the musicians, on the one hand of established reputation, who have been for some years before the public and stand to-day acknowledged masters and mistresses of their art, and on the other hand, young musicians whose talents clearly place them in the ranks of those who will lead the rising generation and become, in due course, the fixed stars that their seniors are today—a remarkably able and well-judged series, for the benefit and entertainment of the public.

THE BEST BOOKS

The president of Western Reserve University, Dr. Charles F. Thwing, was asked to name the ten best books besides the Bible and Shakespeare that he would advise a man to read. Here is his interesting reply:

"Drawing up such a list is like drawing up a menu for ten thousand families. You can draw up the best menu for the individual. But for an unnumbered number it is rather foolish. But I do venture to say that the following ten or eleven books may at least have some value for the American man. The list I make is my judgment at this hour of Monday morning. Perhaps at the same hour Tuesday morning I might give a different list."

Continental European Year
The winter's course for 1920-21 for those who are to take up the work in Chautauqua Home Reading has for its subject "Continental European Year." The books included in this course are as follows:

History of France, by William Stearns Davis (F39-D29). Mr. Davis is Professor of History in the University of Minnesota. He has written historical novels which have been very successful.

Spanish Highways and Byways, by Katharine Lee Bates (G40-B31).

The New Italy, by Helen Zimmern and Antonio Agresti (F36-Z66). The New Italy is a most readable, complete, and enlightening survey of modern political and social conditions in Italy. Few Americans are well informed as to the considerations that dictated Italy's course in the war, which are here presented with admirable authenticity and unusual clearness of statement.

Creative Chemistry, by Edwin E. Slosson (LO-S63). Creative Chemistry is full from cover to cover with practical information on scientific matters of practical interest, as dyes and food. Chemistry has been re-creating the world and is important for everybody who seeks useful knowledge to keep up with its discoveries and inventions.

In addition, Chautauqua offers a few suggestions for books on Studies in European Literature:

France Under the Republic, by Bracon (F3952-B72)

Man and Earth by Shaler (MUV-S52-m)

Inside the British Isles, by Gleason (H45-G47)

Modern Novelists, by Prof. Phelps of Yale. (ZY11F-P)

Belgium, the Land of Art, by Griffls. (P465-G87)

"Travel by rail is still high, but travel by book is free."

"FOLLOW ME!"

Guide me, O Thou gentle Presence,
Lead me always in Thy way.
Let Thy light shine e'er before me,
That my footsteps may not stray.

Teach me how to give Thee glory;
Not to seek my will, but Thine.
How I ever best may serve Thee
As I, in Thy light, seek mine.

Should we falter or turn backward,
Thou, this light we dimly see?
No! 'Tis Christ who gently leads us,
Bidding each one, "Follow Me."

Fine Newton Residence

A brick Colonial house of eight rooms, three baths and two garages in the best part of Newton Centre, built in the best possible manner under architects' supervision and with great attention to the small details which are so important in the final result.

The outstanding features are a beautiful winding stairway and three fine tiled fireplaces with reproductions of fine old Salem mantels. The owner's private bath with its tiled walls and built-in wardrobe and dressing table is very fine.

All the little details that make a house livable and easily cared for are embodied in this plan which was designed to enable the mistress to dispense with the servant if desired.

A month ago our lowest price was $40,000, but we will now take any reasonable offer, preferring a loss to holding it over the winter. BOYD & MALMSTROM, Builders. Tel. Newton South 1537 or 1721-W. Westbourne Road and Ward Street, Newton Centre.

BIBLE INSTITUTE

The First Congregational Church of Newton Centre is conducting, this fall, a Bible Institute, under the direction of Prof. Albert E. Bailey, of Boston University. The class meets every Sunday at 12 o'clock in the main auditorium of the church.

The object of the course is the study of the development of religion, ethics, and moral ideas among the Hebrews, from the earliest times of which we have a record, to the birth of Christ. The method is to study the Bible chronologically, beginning with the early poetic fragments, then taking the prose chronicles of the writers in Solomon's day, the biographical additions of the prophetic writers of the ninth and eighth centuries before Christ, the interpretation of the great prophetic revelations of the seventh century, and lastly the contributions of the priests. The analysis of the material is made clear by the use of crayons to color the background of the Bible page. In this way, the class follows step by step, the developing ideas of the makers of the Old Testament. Constant comparison is maintained with Christian ideas, and ancient problems become modern ones in the light of the principles involved. While the main text book is the Bible, other contemporaneous literature is freely used for illustration.

This course of study offers the equivalent of a university course to those interested in the study of the Old Testament in the light of modern research. The attendance has grown in a few Sundays to about a hundred, and becomes larger with each successive meeting. A cordial invitation is extended by the First Church to all who are interested, to attend this service of interesting talks.

LIFE SENTENCE

Nicholas Caruso, of Newton, who 10 days ago pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree, was sentenced Monday to imprisonment for life in State Prison by Judge Cox in Superior Court at East Cambridge. On May 25, in West Newton, Caruso murdered and robbed John C. Cumiff, an aged caretaker, in a stable where he slept, and then set fire to the place in an effort to destroy the body and evidence of the crime.

CLASSICAL HIGH SCHOOL

The Boys' Debating Club held its first meeting on Monday morning. The program consisted of a mock convention, in which, candidates for both parties were nominated for the election of 1924. There were two nominating speakers, two supporting speakers, and two acceptance speakers. David Lawlor, as Franklin Roosevelt, accepted the nomination by the Democratic party. George Hoar, as Calvin Coolidge, accepted the nomination by the Republican party. Robert Spencer, one of the nominating speakers, was awarded a prize of two dollars. About 80 pupils were present. This is more than double the number of members last year. President Wagner appointed Alfred Stafford, chairman of the program committee. It is the intention of Mr. Lane to offer a prize for the best speaker at every meeting. The "Tech" Mandolin and Glee Clubs have been engaged to provide an entertainment and dance for the Debating Club, sometime in January next year.

The members of the English Club spent a most enjoyable afternoon in the library on Monday. Several members of the club contributed to the program. They were, Misses Aurelio, White, and Donovan. Mr. Adams came in later and spoke of the play which is to be presented by the club just before Christmas. Ice cream was served at the close of the meeting. The Club cordially invites all sub-septors and all juniors, who have an average of 80 per cent in English to become members of the club.

Tuesday, November 9, was Parents' Day.

On Thursday all those who would like to aid in writing the play, which is to be presented just before Christmas, will meet in Mr. Underwood's room at the close of school.

The Newton Federation of Women's Clubs have offered prizes for the best essays written on the influences of the Pilgrims. These essays are due on or before December 10.

The foot ball team easily won its game last Friday with Malden on Claffin Field, before a record crowd of several thousand. The score was 20 to 3.

Tomorrow comes the annual football game with Waltham High to be played on Claffin Field.

The girls' hockey team was defeated at Lexington Wednesday afternoon by the Lexington team, the score being 3 to 2. Newton scored a third goal in the last few minutes of play, but it was not allowed.

DEATH OF MR. SPRAGUE

Mr. Caleb Gardner Sprague died on Monday at his home on Webster street, West Newton.

As a young man he was engaged in the banking business in Clinton, Wis., but later returned to the East and engaged in the millinery business as a buyer. He retired four years ago, after having devoted fifty-one years to this work.

In 1872, he was a member of the firm of Sleeper, Fisk & Co., whose building on Milk street was burned to the ground in the great Boston fire. He was for many years connected with Clapp and Tilton as their New York buyer. He was an expert in feathers, and had appeared before congressional committees to explain the value of ostrich plumes.

His wife, who was Miss Isabella A. Crocker of Barnstable, died seventeen years ago. He is survived by his son, Francis W. Sprague, 2d, clerk of the Newton Court, and by two brothers, Frank W. Sprague of Cambridge, and Edward L. Sprague of Somerset. Mr. Sprague was long a resident of West Newton, and was a member of the First Unitarian Parish.

Services were held at his late residence on Thursday afternoon, the Rev. Julius Kroffler of West Newton officiating, owing to the illness of Rev. Julian C. Jaynes. The burial was in Barnstable.

GLOBE THEATRE—For the first time in the history of the American theatre, the two most distinguished light opera comedians on our stage, Francis Wilson and De Wolf Hopper—will be seen together on Monday night, November 15, at the Globe Theatre, Boston in an elaborate revival of the most famous of all light operas—"Erminie." More than a sentimental interest on the part of the older theatregoers should attach to this production. For the new generation there will be afforded the opportunity of hearing a score which is admitted to be one of the most tuneful and charming in the whole repertoire of light opera and for all lovers of the stage there will be interest in seeing the Messrs. Wilson and Hopper in the most congenial roles of their respective careers.

Admirers of Mr. Wilson will find a particular interest in welcoming him back to the field of light opera which he deservedly left to the comedy shortly after the last revival of "Erminie" seventeen years ago. On that occasion Henry E. Dixey had the role which Mr. Hopper is now to play. The two comedians will, of course, be seen as that classic pair of scamps and vagabonds—Cadeaux and Ravennes. Mr. Wilson will have his original role of "Caddy," a part which he created when the piece was first presented at the Casino theatre, New York, in 1886 and which he has since played thousands of times. Though Mr. Wilson and Mr. Hopper have been almost lifelong friends they have never before appeared together on the same bill.

LEAVES POLICE FORCE

Mr. Edward P. O'Halloran, chief inspector of the Police Department since 1917, has resigned to accept the position of executive manager of the recently organized State Mutual Protective Association of Boston. Mr. O'Halloran will have charge of the private detectives employed by the large stores to prevent shoplifting and stealing from their shipping rooms.

Mr. O'Halloran joined the Police force June 22, 1896, and was appointed an inspector May 13, 1908. He has been connected with all of the important murder and burglary cases in this city and is considered one of the best men in his line in this part of the country.

AUXILIARY MEETS

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Newton Post of the American Legion met Monday night in Legion Hall. Temporary officers were appointed. Mrs. Grace Comerai is to be president for the rest of the year. Miss Evelyn Cunningham is to be secretary, and Miss Harriet Beckwith treasurer. Three delegates have been chosen to represent the auxiliary at the coming State convention. These are Mrs. Clarence R. Edwards, wife of Gen. Edwards, and who is a charter member of the auxiliary; Mrs. Grace Comerai, wife of Capt. Comerai, and Mrs. Perry Coleman. The alternates are Miss Evelyn Cunningham, Mrs. Mary Hickey and Mrs. Margaret Reinhalter. The committee to draw up a constitution is composed of the following: Mrs. James Irwin, Mrs. Mary Perkins and Mrs. Mude M. French, and the nominating committee, Mrs. Leo Taffe of Auburndale, Mrs. Margaret Reinhalter, Mrs. Mary Hickey and Miss Harriet Beckwith. There are now 60 paid-up members of the post, but scores more have signified their intentions of joining, and the coming campaign for members will doubtless bring in hundreds. The meetings are to be held on the first Monday of the month.

NEW CLUB ORGANIZED

The Catholic Woman's Club of Newton Centre was organized Monday night in its clubhouse, 72 Crescent avenue. This building was formerly the parish house of the Church of the Sacred Heart, with which the new club will be affiliated.

At the business meeting these officers were elected: Mrs. L. H. Marshall, president; Mrs. Edmund F. Butler, vice president; Miss Margaret Waters, recording secretary; Miss Margaret F. Mullen, financial secretary; Rev. Fr. Timothy A. Curtin, pastor of the church, treasurer; Miss Josephine Ireland, librarian; Mrs. Thomas Reynolds, Mrs. James Powers, Mrs. P. T. Hurley and Miss Mary J. King, executive committee.

Plans were outlined for the formation of classes in household arts, millinery, dramatics, etc. Miss Nora Coleman was appointed chairman of the Household Arts Committee, Mrs. Elmer Davis of the Dramatic Committee, Mrs. Robert Hurley of the Social Welfare Committee, Mrs. Paul Richards of the Hospitality Committee, Miss Nettie Hurley, chairman of the Art Committee, and Mrs. Myrtle Morse of the Music Committee.

Following the business meeting last night Denis A. McCarthy of Arlington addressed the club on "Poetry in Everyday Life." An entertainment of vocal and instrumental numbers followed the address.

On Monday evening, Dec. 6, Mayor Childs of Newton will be the speaker.

BOY SCOUTS

Why Be a Scout?

This question has forced itself upon every boy now in the Scout ranks, and in reply he could readily give the following reasons:

1. Because hundreds of thousands strong, Boy Scouts stand organized, trained and resolved to serve God, native land and all mankind.

2. Because Scouting reveals the way, quickens the pace and illuminates the path that leads to the truest and noblest Americanization of American Boys, and

3. Because Scouting helps boys to know, revere and commune with nature.

These are but three reasons. All Scouts can think of many others. What an opportunity for every true boy to develop into the full stature of man!

Scouting in Newton is an important factor in the lives of every boy, and every boy should see to it that he belongs to one of the many troops now organized and hard at work.

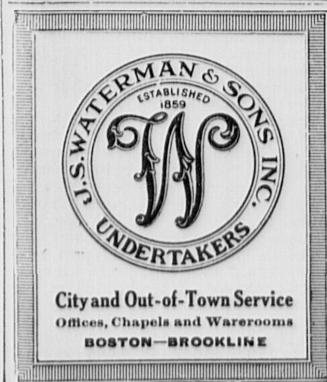

The Scout Executive would be glad to see any boy in his office who wishes to become a Scout. He will give him all necessary information. Office, Room 23, 277 Washington street, Newton, Mass. Tel. N. N. 3497-M.

"ADVANCE THE LINE"

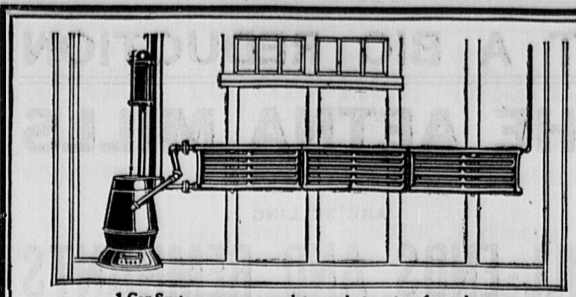

The prize pageant, symbolical of the present day needs of the Church which was accepted by the Episcopal churches of America from 142 submitted will be presented at St. Paul's Church, Newton Highlands, next Sunday evening.

Members of the parish characteristically costumed will take part in the allegory, which visualizes the failure of the church to effectively accomplish its duties in the three leading branches—Education, Social Service and Missionary work. The chief character in the play is that of God's Messenger, a soldier who, in confession of his failure to the Soul of the Parish is given a new sword by the Three Guardian Angels to replace his rusty and worn out weapon that he may start the battle of Life anew. This symbolizes the manner in which all may pledge themselves to renewed efforts in behalf of the church.

The part of the Messenger will be portrayed by A. A. Cole. A. H. Norton represents "The Soul of the Parish," and Mrs. Ray Huntsman as "Education," Miss Mary L. Sweeney as "Social Service" and Mrs. James Rayner as "Missionary," the three Guardian Angels.

WOMAN'S CLUBS

Newton Federation

Beatrice Forbes-Robertson Hale spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience of the Newton Federation at the Autumn meeting last week Wednesday in the New church parlors. Under the topic, "The Women of the Future," she pictured the tremendous responsibilities ahead and the complex circumstances under which the daughters of to-day will have to live as the women of the future.

After tracing the rise of the woman's movement beginning with the American and French Revolutions and rendered inevitable by the industrial revolution, which took away the industries from the homes and put so many of them into the factories, she turned to present-day aspects. Mrs. Hale differs from many who seem to think that women have been slow in gaining their independence, and believes that they have come into it a little too rapidly. Here in America we have something, of which there is nothing comparable either in Great Britain or in Europe, the great organization of the Federation of Women's Clubs, which is going to be of inestimable value, for through such organizations will the good of the woman's movement be maintained. Through the war we have won a knowledge of teamwork and a solidarity of our sex, which must not be lost.

"What are we going to do with what we've won? Our daughters, the women of the future, are growing up in the most difficult and complex age the world has ever known and will have to face duties hitherto unanticipated. If the woman's movement is going to succeed, we must pay more attention to the health of women, for the racial duties are going to continue. The mother cannot rely upon instinct and intuition, she must be trained and informed upon wifehood; she must know the value of foods, she must carry on the vocations in home without the aid of domestic help, as we have known it in the past. Besides having to do more physically, wives must be companions for their husbands and contribute to the whole group of extra-domestic professions—the church, the city, the State, and the nation, and all these without Mary Jane!"

She deplored modern tendencies to over-dressing on the part of our girls and even more the tendency to under-dressing. She scored the prevailing fashions, the tight skirt, the Louis heel, which have rendered walking a lost art. Our girls, she said, are under-developed, they are too soft, have too many dances, too much pleasure; they lack the Spartan note, the core of steel, which will prevent them from being broken in time of adversity and temptation. They are not getting the chance they ought to have.

In her discussion of woman's national duties, her advice is for women to be a little slow in allying themselves to either of the great political parties, feeling that women will be able to accomplish more if they stay without, for she believes that there is soon to be a new alignment of the old parties. As to her international duties, Mrs. Hale considers that it is woman's highest duty at this time to work to bring about some sort of machinery to take the place of war, or there will be a suicide of the race and the death knell of the world.

Mr. Herbert Wellington Smith, whose work with the sailors along the coast is familiar to all, sang a group of sea songs and at the close of the meeting by special request led the audience in the singing of "America."

At the opening Mrs. S. Hardy Mitchell, the new president, made a plea for an increase of the all-Newton spirit among the club women of the city.

The resolution regarding the saving of the National Parks by amending existing legislation, which had been passed by the State Federation, was passed unanimously.

NOTICE OF HEARING

CITY OF NEWTON No. 48781

In Board of Aldermen, Oct. 25, 1920. Ordered that a public hearing be held before this Board at 7.45 P. M. on November 22, 1920, for the purpose of ascertaining the opinions and views of citizens of the desirability and advantages of acquiring for city purposes the land bounded by Commonwealth Avenue, Walnut and Homer Streets.

Read and adopted.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

You are hereby required on or before November 30, 1920, to destroy the gypsy and brown tail moths on your property in this City.

This notification is in accordance with Chapter 381, Acts of 1905, and the amendments thereto, which requires cities and towns to destroy eggs, caterpillars, pupae and nests of the gypsy and brown tail moths under heavy penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of the law.

If a property owner fails to destroy such eggs, pupae and nests, then the city or town is required to destroy the same, and the cost of the work, in whole or in part, according to the value of the land, is assessed upon and becomes a lien on the land. (See Section 6, of said Chapter 381, and amendments thereto.)

The City Will Perform All Winter Moth Work Unless Otherwise Notified by Property Owners.

Full instructions as to the best methods of work against the moths may be obtained from the Forestry Division, City Hall, or from the State Forester, State House, Boston, Mass. Work done by contractors should be inspected and approved by the Local Superintendent before payment for the same is made.

CHARLES BENYON, Superintendent of Forestry Division. This notice is issued by order of Edwin O. Childs, Mayor, November 4, 1920. Advt.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Stearns School

The Stearns football team won a very hard-fought and interesting game from the eleven representing Peirce, Tuesday afternoon, on West Newton Common with the score of 33 to 6. The game was replete with spectacular playing, the tackling, passing and running being well worthy of secondary school boys. The puzzling shifts of Stearns which Peirce could not fathom were the means of Stearns' victory. Time after time a Stearns back on a direct pass in open formation made 20 and 30 yard gains. The criss-cross play also worked to advantage and many splendid gains were made by its use. Bacarri at full back played brilliantly, scoring two touchdowns. Lawler at left half and Eckstrom at right half, Conzo at left tackle and Butler at end also played superbly. The Stearns lineup was:

Butler, 1; Conzo, 1; Verrier, Napolitano, 1; Mazzola, Lo Chiatto, c; McCarthy, Pass, rg; Littlefield, Shriberg, rt; B. Lyman, Roy, re; J. Lyman, qb; Lawler, lbh; Eckstrom, rlb; Bacarri, fb.

The Newton Girls' Club sent four representatives to the reception at the Girls' City Club, in honor of the President of the National League of Girls' Clubs, Mrs. Bernard E. Pollak.

Mace's Orchestra will furnish music at the Whist Party and Dance to be given by the Mothers' Club at Stearns School Center, Friday evening, Nov. 12.

Those having the highest attendance in the Stearns District for the last four weeks are Mr. Dacy, Grade VIII, 98.8; Miss Lovely, Grade IV, 98.1.

Burr School

The Burr School football team played the Mason School of Newton Centre on Tuesday. The score was 12 to 7 in favor of Burr.

The fourth grades of Auburndale enjoyed a trip around Newton last week. Miss Chase's class went on Tuesday and Mrs. Fiske's on Thursday. These fourth-grade children are ready now to give information about their city which is based on actual observation. Children and teachers appreciate the kindness of the Auburndale people who so kindly gave their machines and their services for the use of the schools.

A representative of the Red Cross spoke to the children of the Burr and Williams Schools on Wednesday. She stated that only 45 cents per room was necessary to make every pupil a member of the Junior Red Cross. The Burr School and the Williams School are, however, considering doing more than this, and continuing the support of a little French child as they did last year.

Clafin School

On Tuesday, Nov. 9, the football team played the Bigelow School team at Cabot Park. The score was 13 to 0 in favor of the Horace Mann-Clafin team.

The Eighth Grade held their primary elections on Friday, Nov. 5, and the class officers are to be voted on at an election to be held on Thursday, Nov. 11.

The Four Weeks' Report shows Grade IV to have the best attendance record for October. Neither Grade IV nor Grade VI Room 2 have any tardy marks during the school year.

The pupils of Grade Eight entertained the pupils of Grade VII on Friday, Nov. 5. Their program consisted chiefly of original plays emphasizing "Better Speech" work.

Bigelow School

Many of the grades had Pilgrim exercises in their class rooms on Thursday, Nov. 11.

The scene in the cabin of the Mayflower was acted by some of the classes, different members taking the part of Pilgrims, and signing the historic names to a copy of the compact. Quill pens were used for the purpose.

Some blackboards had drawings of the Mayflower; others had maps showing the course from Southampton to Provincetown and Plymouth; and one class made a folder with the title, "What the Mayflower Compact Meant."

Again the fourth grades are indebted to the parents who so kindly offered their cars and services and made it possible for the children to enjoy the annual geography tour through the Newtons.

One of the most enjoyable features of the trip was the inspection of fire and burglar alarm boxes at the Game-well. Mr. Nason conducted the children through the exhibition room and most interestingly explained the workings of the different alarms. Many thanks are due him for his courtesy and kindness.

Four rooms ranked over 98 per cent in attendance in the past month. Miss Lowe's third grade won first place, having a percentage of 98.5.

The entire school was assembled in the hall Wednesday afternoon to listen to an address upon the Junior Red Cross and its motto, "I serve."

The speaker was Miss Turner, field representative of the New England branch, Junior Red Cross.

TO AID VETERANS

A meeting that will be of either direct or indirect interest to every service man of Newton was held Tuesday night at the Red Cross office, Newtonville, at which representatives of the Newton Chapter of the Red Cross and Post 48, American Legion, discussed the matter of bringing to the attention of every man in Newton who was in the service, the matter of rehabilitation, allotment insurance, compensation or any other matters provided for by the Government.

It was voted to have a careful canvass of the city by members of the committees, and to have the matter referred to every church, club and lodge in the city for the purpose of spreading the information and bringing the men who are in need of assistance in any of the above matters to the Red Cross headquarters with their difficulty.

The co-operation of the Legion and Red Cross is a long step toward the proper handling of this matter, and should be a boon to a more satisfactory adjustment of affairs than in the past.

Representing the Red Cross at the meeting were George M. Angier, president; Joseph B. Jamison, vice president; and Mrs. Carrie A. Hall, executive secretary. The Legion was represented by Commander Sinclair Weeks, Vice Commander Ray Cabot, Dr. P. B. Howard, Levi Libby, Heywood S. French and William Noone. Mr. Noone was appointed Rehabilitation officer for the Red Cross and he will work in conjunction with Mr. French who holds a similar office in Post 48.

MISS STACY SHOWERED

On Thursday evening of this week a "Miscellaneous Shower" was given to Miss Emma Stacy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stacy of Watertown street. Forty girls were silently waiting in the living room with the lights lowered when Emma arrived very indignant at being called home from her chums' house to see some relatives who arrived unexpectedly. She burst into the room saying, "What's the matter with the lights?" and was welcomed with a burst of laughter from her many friends. By the expression on her face all were convinced it was a complete surprise.

Exquisite pieces of cut-glass, china, silver and linen were revealed from the "Surprise Basket," tied up in bows of white and all containing verses which the "Bride to Be" read aloud.

Refreshments were served in the dining-room, where autumn colors were brought out in the decorations. The centre-piece consisted of a deep brown basket with a high handle from which hung a deep red cluster of grapes, small clusters of blue grapes and autumn leaves gave an artistic touch to the basket of oranges, apples and pears which was encircled by a mound of autumn leaves, fruit and nuts.

Miss Stacy's engagement was recently announced to Mr. George Dickey of Wayland.

RECITAL OF MISS DOROTHY FRIEND ROBINSON

A large and appreciative audience greeted Miss Dorothy Friend Robinson, the young and talented dramatic reader, at her recital in the Waban Club House last Monday evening.

Over fifty patronesses from all parts of Newton, Wellesley, Brookline, Medford, Somerville, and Boston, were present with their friends. The evening was greatly enjoyed by all, judging by the enthusiastic applause after each selection, and the affair proved to be one of the most successful social events of the season.

Miss Robinson read selections from many noted writers, including Tennyson, and Shakespeare. Her dramatic ability and poise were remarkable and her appreciation of comedy most charming.

In the act from Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew," her brilliant and masterly impersonation of Katherine, Petruchio, and Baptista fairly electrified the audience, and placed Miss Robinson in the front rank of Shakespearean readers of today.

NEW LEGION OFFICERS

At the meeting of Newton Post 48, American Legion, held last week, these nominations were submitted for officers for the ensuing year:

For commander, Charles R. Cabot; for vice commander, Harry D. Comer; for adjutant, Robert L. Cunningham; for finance officer, Thomas Quinn; for historian, A. Leo Taffee; for chaplain, Rev. William J. Farrell. For the executive committee the following were nominated: Ward 1, Newton Kimball; Ward 2, Edward Murtough; Ward 3, Sinclair Weeks; Ward 4, William Noone; Ward 5, Frank Hurley; Ward 6, Levi Libby; Ward 7, Henry M. Bliss; and at large, Thomas Hickey, Edward Edmunds, Jr., William Carey and Heywood French.

The regular meetings of the Legion will hereafter be held on the second Thursday of each month.

Gen. Clarence R. Edwards has been elected a life member of the Post.

POLICE NOTES

James Carroll, who was arrested last week by Officer Henry Tibbets, when he entered the house of James Dickinson in Waban, was in the West Newton Court Wednesday morning. He pleaded guilty to breaking and entering and larceny in the daytime and was held in $5000 for the Superior Court. Inspector Goode believes that Carroll is not the prisoner's right name.

Inspectors R. J. Goode and John H. Shaughnessy are in charge of the Inspection Division, following the resignation of Chief Inspector O'Halloran.

The Westminster, on account of its increased business, is now using the big dining room on the main floor in conjunction with its Winter Garden, and Proprietor Coulton, ever looking for the newest in popular attractions, has secured the services of an orchestra which the individual members declare will put it all over Jacques Renard's famous band, but time alone will tell that—anyway, there is going to be great rivalry and the public appreciates the efforts of each.

EDITORIAL

The great Republican victory of last week in the state and nation, carries with it a tremendous responsibility. In some respects the vast majorities will become a burden, for many a voter will believe that because he or she assisted in this great victory, they have a vested right to have their particular grievance corrected at once, regardless of the manifold duties of the party in power.

People should be made to understand that seven or eight years of maladministration at Washington cannot be changed in a few months and may take several years, but they may be sure that the Republican party will begin actual work on rehabilitation as soon as President Harding takes office. In the meantime do not forget that the Congress which comes in next month is the old Congress and not the one just elected and that Mr. Wilson is still President until next March, and the country can expect but little corrective legislation until that time.

Mr. Blakemore's suggestion for a Taxpayers' Organization of some kind should be taken up and acted upon, for there is a splendid field for work along these lines. The endorsement of such an organization, for instance, of candidates for the board of aldermen and school committee would be of great value to the voters and in a situation like that at present, where there appears to be no one authorized or even interested in the selection of candidates to fill vacancies in the board, such a body could perform a great service to the city.

We have but little confidence in the success of the work to be done by State officials on the books of the Comptroller of Accounts. The experience of the city some six years ago with these officials was far from satisfactory.

We seldom have occasion to criticize the action of the board of aldermen, but in requiring the local street railway company to move its tracks into the center of Walnut street for a distance of less than 1000 feet, the people of Newton are entitled to know that over $2000 will be absolutely wasted.

The movement to acquire for municipal purposes, the land bounded by Homer, Walnut streets and Commonwealth avenue comes to a head on November 22nd when a public hearing will be held at City Hall. The land is almost exactly in the geographical center of the city and its present development does not hold much promise for the future.

Among the multitude of calls for financial help from many excellent institutions, do not fail to include the West Newton Music School in your list. It is doing excellent work.

The Police Department loses one of its best men in the resignation of Chief Inspector O'Halloran.

DEATH OF MRS. SMITH

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Smith, who died on Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. V. Stone, 34 Carver road, Newton Highlands, had made her home here but a short time, following a long residence in the West. Mrs. Smith, who was eighty-two years of age, had been ill for a little more than a year. She was born in New York State, but as a girl of fifteen went West with an older sister, and in Red Wing, Minn., they both became school teachers.

After her marriage to Ford Smith, a New Hampshire man who went West to settle, Mrs. Smith continued to live at Red Wing, where she was prominent in various lines of community work, especially the activities of the Presbyterian Church, with which she was allied. Her husband died in 1902 and Mrs. Smith lived in the West up to 1914, when she gave up her home there to return East.

She had been a great traveler and made frequent long journeys to visit her different children. These journeys took Mrs. Smith to California, Montana, Minnesota and to Pennsylvania. She was active in her usual occupations up to last Spring. Her children who survive her include a son living in Helena, Mont., another son residing in Minneapolis, Minn.; a daughter whose home is in Philadelphia, and the daughter with whom she had lived, Mrs. Stone of Newton Highlands.

Lasell

Miss Geraldine Banks of San Francisco, Cal., won the finals in the tennis tournament on Tuesday. There was a large entry and many exciting games have been played.

Two sight seeing buses loaded with students went on the annual trip to Salem on Monday, another event added to the happiness of the girls, for upon their return they found to their great joy that classifications had been posted.

Field Day is now planned to take place next Friday, there is to be an archery tournament, shuttle relay races, hurling javelin, and the most anticipated of all, a baseball game between the Whites and Blues.

The student body had the privilege of hearing Donald B. McMillan deliver his lecture on Arctic Explorations on Tuesday evening. This most interesting lecture was given under the auspices of the Auberndale Women's Club and Lasell Seminary. An evening with the club has been enjoyed for several years. It is always an open night and held in the Congregational Church.

The faculty has challenged the Blue and Whites to a hockey game and has been accepted. No date has been set, but still practicing is being held every afternoon and an interesting game is being looked forward to.

James Lewis of China, one of the leaders of the Student Volunteer Society, now holding its conference at Wellesley, is to be the speaker at Lasell Vespers on Sunday afternoon. Quite a large delegation from the school is attending the meetings, the official delegate from the school being the president of the missionary society, Miss Nell West.

On Wednesday the chapel service was led by Miss Lillian Packard, our former registrar. Miss Packard has a year's leave of absence and is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Draper of Woodland road for a few weeks.

There was a generous response to the Red Cross drive on Thursday. Miss Katherine Howe from Helena, Arkansas, was elected captain of the school hockey team on Wednesday, the other members are Vera Clauer, Marion Bliven, Helen Stern, Harriet Case, Constance Nies, Eleanor Hawkins, Mary Shannon, Jean Patterson, Helen Crawford and Henrietta Leicht.

The order requiring the M. & B. St. Rwy. Co. to relocate its tracks in Walnut street was passed after a statement from Alderman Allen that there was some doubt of the legality of making the company pay for the whole of this work.

A sewer was ordered in Webster park, and the usual order declaring the result of the recent election was passed and the election returns signed.

Alderman Blake called attention to the public hearing assigned for the next meeting on taking the land bounded by Homer street, Walnut street, and Commonwealth avenue for public purposes, and wanted each member of the board to visit the place before the hearing.

The board adjourned at 10:15.

Badges marched in review before the audience and from the farmer who carried a rake and a basket of vegetables to the milliner with her new hat, all the girls carried out their parts to the smallest detail. The minstrel show which was Troop 5's part on the program was great fun. 40 members of the Colored 400 entertained the audience with jokes and songs for about 15 minutes. Alice Eaton and Katherine Rich were End Men, Ethel Laughlin the Interlocutor, and Eleanor Gile, Leora Bacon and Dorothy Pudsey sang the solos. Troop 5 also furnished the orchestra and the number it played was much enjoyed.

D. A. R.

The Lucy Jackson Chapter of the D. A. R. met at the chapter house on Monday. At the business session appropriations were voted for the Philippine scholarship, and for the manual for immigrants. Mrs. Meserve read the inspiring address of the president general, Mrs. Minor, on "The Deeper Meaning of Our D. A. R. Organization." The chapter has begun to raise an endowment fund for the chapter house, and has many interesting plans afoot for entertainments for this purpose. The hostesses on Monday were Mrs. Samuel Webber, Mrs. Vosburg, Mrs. Warburg, and Mrs. Walworth.

NATIONAL CURRENT EVENTS

The new women voters will find unusual interest and help in the course of lectures upon "National Current Events," being given by Mrs. Maud Wood Park, Chairman of the National League of Women Voters, on Tuesday mornings during November, December, and January, in Unity House Hall, Park Square, Boston, at 11 A. M. The subject of her lecture on November 18 is to be "The Farmers' Crisis," a discussion of the vital problem of the nation's food supply.

$3,000,000 CAMPAIGN

The Unitarian Church, through the active agency of the Unitarian Campaign, Inc., seeks to raise $3,000,000 that it may provide for the growth of Unitarianism in America. It seeks this allowance that it may strengthen the machinery for the delivery of its message. It seeks this allowance that it may preach to more people pure Christianity as taught by Christ in the Hills of Galilee; that it may bring to more people the great joy and happiness, the heart content, that comes with the realization of man's oneness with God.

This is not a campaign for money, but money for a campaign that will release the latent power of Unitarianism; that will make for clean living and sane thinking; that will serve mankind and the nation, truly and well.

The Campaign itself is to educate Unitarians to think together and work together for their own liberal religion as something more imperative for our country than philanthropic or relief agencies. The character of the nation, which means our individual characters, our souls, is at stake. It is more important to save the character of the country represented in sixty millions of unchurched Americans than it is to alleviate the physical circumstances of individual cases of distress, even though those cases run into the hundreds of thousands.

Newton is represented on the General Committee by Messrs. Oliver M. Fisher of Newton, Hon. John W. Weeks, Hon. George H. Ellis and Frank W. Remick of West Newton, James Klingman of Newton Highlands, R. M. Saltonstall, E. S. Webster and Arthur T. Bradlee of Chestnut Hill.

—ARE YOUR— PICTURES SUFFERING?

How many years since an expert has examined them?

It is the rule for owners of pictures to neglect them until their condition is so bad that the expense of their restoration is many times as great as if they had received proper care.

We give especial attention to restoration, framing and regilding and the quality of our work is unsurpassed.

Our Carrig-Rohane Shop headed by Mr. H. Dudley Murphy, unquestionably America's most original and artistic designer of frames, has been the leading influence in the development of taste in framing for the last dozen years.

ELIZABETH KELLEY FOSGATE

The many friends in West Newton and Newtonville of Mrs. Elizabeth Kelley Fosgate were greatly shocked and saddened to learn of her passing away last Friday afternoon, November 5, at the Framingham Hospital after several months of illness. Funeral services were held at the Plymouth Congregational church in Framingham Centre, Rev. William Allen Knight officiating. Miss Bessie Talbot Salmon, a close friend of Mrs. Fosgate's, sang several appropriate selections. The body was taken to the Mount Auburn crematory. Mrs. Fosgate was a graduate of the Newton High School and spent a large part of her life before her marriage in West Newton and Newtonville, where she had a wide circle of friends and was much loved for her bright, sunny nature. She was an accomplished musician and was in constant demand as an accompanist as well as for playing for dancing. She has lived for a number of years since her marriage in Framingham. Her husband, Raymond S. Fosgate, and a little daughter, eight years old, Janet, and a brother, Dr. Jacob S. Kelley, of Providence, R. I., survive her.

MRS. NANCY A. PITTS

At 6 Merton street, Newton, Mrs. Nancy A. Pitts, who had lived here with her sister, Mrs. Charles A. Johnson for the last 12 years, died quietly a peacefully last Friday after a lingering illness of a few years. Before coming to Newton she lived in Taunton for many years, where she was known as a woman of fine character and was held in high esteem. She was born in Norton, her maiden name being Nancy Angeline Knapp.

WANTS KENNEL LICENSE

Ernest R. Houghton of 1733 Commonwealth avenue, West Newton, has filed in the Supreme Court at East Cambridge a petition for a writ of mandamus to compel City Clerk Frank M. Grant of Newton to renew a kennel license he held last year. A hearing on the petition was assigned for this morning in the Suffolk County Courthouse. Houghton is a breeder of dogs. Because of complaints of neighbors, a renewal of his kennel license was denied by the city officials when he applied this year, and he was told he would have to license each dog. It is claimed that he failed to do so. Several days ago he appeared in the Newton Court on a charge of keeping unlicensed dogs. This case was continued pending the outcome of the writ proceedings.

RECITAL AT HUNNEWELL CLUB

Miss Edna Louise Banks who gave a recital at the Hunnewell Club on Wednesday evening was greeted by an enthusiastic and appreciative audience. Her first group of songs was sung with warmth and sentiment. In her second group, "Addio a Napoli" was well sustained and the "Flower Song" was very much enjoyed. The beautiful number by Ward-Stephens was splendidly done, and brought forth much appreciation. Her last number by Bishop was remarkably given for so young an artist who clearly has a future before her. Miss Bank's range was an extensive one, her low tones resonant, her high tones true to pitch, and her articulation good. In appreciation of her work, she received a beautiful bouquet of pink roses. Miss Banks was admirably supported by Miss Irene Forte of Auburndale who played with much feeling and freedom. Her classic style was well adapted to the difficult execution required in the Pynani-Kreisler number.

Mr. Raymond Sikes, of West Newton, also showed great talent in his playing which was clear, clean, and brilliant. In the solo numbers his tone and technique were excellent. His own composition was stirring, and brought forth much applause. Dancing concluded the program.

NEWTON CLUB

The bowling team won its match Wednesday night with Commercial at Braintree. This afternoon there will be a ladies' afternoon bridge. The first of the Neighborhood Dinners was held last night with covers laid for 70 members and their ladies. After dinner there was dancing, bowling and cards. WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

A Thrift Thanksgiving Offering is being urged of the women of the nation through their organization and individually, in the purchase of some form of Government Securities, as evidence of patriotism and a thank-offering for all the blessings that American women have received and for all that America is doing and may do in the future for the development of a higher civilization—religious freedom and a broader education. This movement originated with Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin, national chairman of Thrift for the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and is warmly endorsed by the Women's Division of the Savings Department of the Sixth Federal Reserve District.

The coming week is to be known as Children's Book Week. This is a joint, annual effort to encourage the love of books among children and the discussion of children's reading in our communities. Everyone may help this enterprise by assisting local librarians to get attention to their book exhibits, story hours, talks and other features; by urging local clubs, schools and churches to take part; by asking moving picture exhibitors to show children's book films, and by enriching the personal libraries of our children at this time.

Don't fail to re-enlist in the Red Cross. Our dollars are just as much needed to-day, and will be for a long time yet, as they were in the early years of the war. Last year some of the solicitors met with unpleasant receptions within our own city. That is not as it should be. Let us hope that such may not occur this year.

State Federation

Wednesday, Nov. 17, 11 A. M. Conference on Pageantry. Miss Laughton's Studio, 418 Pierce Building, Copley Square, Boston. Subject: "In-Door Pageants." All women interested are invited to attend.

Wednesday, Nov. 17, 3 P. M. Mothercraft Conference in Methodist church, Hyde Park, by invitation of the Current Events Club.

National League of Women Voters

November 17 and 18. Regional Conference at Copley Plaza. The sessions of Wednesday will be given up to the general subject of Organization and Citizenship Schools and that of Thursday to State Legislative Program. Wednesday morning there will be an address on the work of the National department of Organization and Citizenship and ten-minute reports from each of the six state chairmen of leagues of the New England states. This will be followed by a Conference Luncheon which is open to all interested. Finance and Federal Legislation will be discussed in the afternoon.

On Thursday at the morning session the subjects, American Citizenship, Women in Industry and Child Welfare will be discussed; in the afternoon Social Hygiene, Uniform Laws, Food Supply and Demand and Research. There will be a dinner at seven in the evening to which those interested will be admitted. Reservations for both the Wednesday luncheon and the Thursday dinner may be secured from Mrs. George Winslow Perkins, 585 Boylston street. Watch the Sunday papers for full details.

Newton Federation

Monday, Nov. 15, 10.15 A. M. Regular meeting of the Executive Board at the New church parlors, Newtonville. Mrs. Celia Wellman, woman probation officer, will speak briefly.

Local Announcements

The Waban Woman's Club will meet at the Waban Neighborhood Club House, Monday, November 15, at 2.30 P. M. Dr. M. H. Lichliter will speak on "The Vaudeville Mind." There will be solos by Mr. Hyman Buitkan. Tea will be served.

On Friday, November 19, at 2.30 P. M. there will be a Charity Bridge under the auspices of the Club at the same place. Tickets may be secured from the committee in charge.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Mr. J. L. Harbour will lecture before the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club on "Blessed be Humor."

Mrs. Dike will be hostess for the meeting of the Christian Era Study Club on Monday afternoon. James I. Hampton Court Conference and the Puritan will be the subjects of the papers.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in Lincoln Hall, Mr. Loring Underwood will give his illustrated lecture on "Old New England Gardens." The slides used are made by Mr. Underwood by the "direct color" process and are of unusual beauty.

On Tuesday morning the Auburndale Review Club will meet with Mrs. G. W. St. Amant of Hawthorne avenue, when the papers will be given by Mrs. William L. Lawrence on "The Concord School of Philosophy," Mrs. Amos R. Wells on "Historical Writings from 1850 to 1870," and Mrs. Edward Payson Drew on "American Orators."

Ernest Harold Baynes, a naturalist, widely known through his work as founder of the American Bison Society and also as a promoter of care and conservation of bird life, the building of birdhouses and the love and protection of birds, especially among children, will lecture before the Newtonville Woman's Club on Tuesday, Nov. 16. Each member may bring one child under high-school age free of charge. Although this is known as Children's Afternoon, the lecture will be interesting to men and guest tickets may be procured as usual.

Mr. Baynes has had many interesting and amusing experiences among the animals and will have many stories to tell of the character and habits of wild mice, raccoons, bears, etc. His subject is entitled, "My Wild Animal Neighbors," and will be enriched by lantern slides. There will be special music by pupils of the West Newton Music School.

On Wednesday morning the Social Science Club will have a home day when the subject of "Contemporary Poetry" will be discussed by two club members, Mrs. Charles B. Gleason taking, Robert Frost and N. Vachel Lindsay, and Mrs. Joseph N. Damon, Amy Lowell and Edward Arlington Robinson.

On Thursday, November 18, "Owing to Maggie" will be presented before the Newton Centre Woman's Club by home talent.

Miss Margaret McGill, of the Newton High School, will speak to the Citizenship class of the Newton Community Club Friday afternoon on, "How Laws are Made." This will be the closing talk of a very successful course.

The Newton Ladies Home Circle will hold the next meeting on Thursday, Nov. 18 at 2 P. M. in G. A. R. Hall, Newtonville. Tea will be served.

The second in a series of five afternoon concerts arranged by the Music Committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, Mrs. Lorenz B. Muther, chairman, will be given on Wednesday, Nov. 17, at 4 P. M. in Bray Hall. Sergei Adamsky, the Russian tenor, will give a song recital of English and Russian songs assisted by Miss Edna Sheppard, pianist and accompanist.

Registration for the University Extension Class in American Citizenship offered by the Civics committee of the Auburndale Woman's Club will close Tuesday, November 23. This course will probably be given in the evening and is not limited to club members nor even to women. Anyone interested may join. The small fee covers the whole cost of the ten weekly lectures. Some of the subjects to be discussed are, "Explanation of duties of citizenship, primary and regular elections, voting procedure, meaning of representative government; local government; city, town, and county. Division of powers between State and National governments; the Governor, legislature, and State courts; the President, Congress and Federal Courts. Apply to Mrs. F. A. O'Brien, 81 Islington road, Auburndale, or telephone Newton West 1066-R.

Local Happenings

Miss Emily J. Dyer was delegate from the Newton Grade Teachers' Club to a meeting of the Committee on Publicity of the Massachusetts Teachers' Federation held Saturday morning, Nov. 6, in Tremont Temple Building. Miss Lotta A. Clark, of the Boston Normal School, spoke upon, "The Pilgrim Tercentenary Celebration by the Schools."

Miss Agnes Hazitt spoke to the Home Economics Class of the Newtonville Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon on "Business Methods in the Household," in which she explained budget making, systems of bookkeeping and the like. This meeting was the Thrift meeting for the club.

The Auburndale Congregational Church was filled on Tuesday evening with members of the Auburndale Woman's Club and their guests, including the student force of Lasell Seminary. Donald B. MacMillan gave a thrilling account of his four years, 1913 to 1917, spent in the far north with headquarters at Etah. Excellent pictures aided Mr. MacMillan's vivid narrative in making one acquainted with that "land of surprises," and with a number of its friendly inhabitants. The Esquimaux scattered along the coast of Greenland number two hundred sixty-one in all, and until their quite recent acquaintance with the white man, had supposed themselves to be the only human inhabitants of the globe. Especially interesting were the pictures of the children, who were the firm friends of Mr. MacMillan and his party, quite as intelligent and fun loving as American children. The explorer paid sincere tribute also to his four-footed friends, showing many pictures of his dog teams at work and at rest. Three of the dogs are now at Franklin Park, and may be seen by visitors. One of these will return with Mr. MacMillan on the trip for which he is now making preparations. The little-exploded North Western Continent will doubtless yield up many secrets to this next expedition. Teaming with picturesque animal life, carpeted with luxuriant flowers, frozen in eternal ice, the arctic country calls her lovers back.

Mrs. Walter S. Little, chairman of the Art in the General Federation, gave a most interesting talk upon "American Pottery" before the Social Science Club on Wednesday morning. In introducing her subject Mrs. Little touched upon the general subject of Art, taking exception to the term, "merely cultural," as expressing only a part truth, and showing that art is in reality very closely related to life. It builds the houses, has to do with everything within them that is worth having, with our taste in dressing and with everything in our cities and towns of which we are proud—our memorials and monuments.

The speaker stated that the Centennial Exposition with its great foreign exhibits showed us where we stood in relation to art of the world and was a great stimulus to the production of better art in this country. The Great War is still finding us behind other nations.

Since women do 90 percent of the buying, her department feels justified in urging them to make sure that what they buy is of good design, is honestly made and is made in America. Women have a great responsibility in their homes and a responsibility for the civic art of their cities and towns as well, so it is necessary to study the need of art in our country today and so help to make "America, the Beautiful."

Turning to her specific subject of Pottery, she stated that the earliest specimens of American pottery were of course, that made by the American Indians. These have been found all over America, but in greatest abundance along the Atlantic Coast, in the Mississippi Valley and among the Pueblos, the last named being the most artistic.

The pottery industry, as it has grown up in this country, is in reality a transplanted one, the methods having been brought over from Europe. For many years the designs remained inferior to foreign ones, but since the rise of the Arts and Crafts movement they have been greatly improved. Mrs. Little described and explained the various processes and told of many of the potters where beautiful work is being produced. Her talk was illustrated with a very large collection of

Saturday evening, Nov. 6, marked the first of a series of so-called "mystery" entertainments at the North Gate Club, West Newton.

Expectation is running high among the members because of its wide-awake social committee. Nor were some ninety of the club members disappointed Saturday night. The "mystery" was solved when Mr. and Mrs. Dana Libby discovered themselves signally honored by the club. A large group of members appeared at their home suddenly and transported them bodily to the club house. There congratulations and a beautiful silver coffee service were presented to celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Libby, taken totally by surprise, were deeply affected and briefly expressed their gratitude.

The evening was then devoted to a reception to the guests of honor. Dancing, solos by Mrs. Birgfeld, and a monologue by her husband, were followed by refreshments.

Friends of the club will be glad to learn that a Harvest Dance is planned for Nov. 24th, Thanksgiving Eve. It's to be the funniest affair of the season. Everything will go for costume, but "rubes" will be most prominent.

While the club bowling team lost to Hunnewell on Wednesday night, Mr. Woodberry bowled the highest three-string total, coming within one of equalling the season's record of 616.

NEW D. A. R. CHAPTER

Vacation echoes and patriotic incidents formed the topic of entertainment at the second meeting of the newly formed Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which took place at the home of Miss Ward, Walnut street, Newton Highlands. This chapter was organized in June at the home of Mrs. Sanford Thompson, vice regent, with Miss Annie Sanford Head, formerly of the Boston Tea Party Chapter, as regent. At the organization, Mrs. Franklin P. Shumway, State regent, gave an address, telling of the objects of the society. This was the first chapter she organized. The history of the name is of interest. In the American Revolution, the name of Lydia Partridge Whiting, a widow, showed a record of service for her country in 1778. As far as it is known it is the only woman's name in the records. Several in the chapter are her descendants, among them the regent, Miss Head.

The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Webster, the registrar, at 10 Chester street, Newton Highlands, Tuesday, November 29, at 3 P. M.

Anyone desiring to join the D. A. R. and is eligible for membership could apply to the registrar for papers, as this is the only chapter in the South District of Newton.

APPEAL FOR FUNDS

The West Newton Music School, Inc., issues this week its annual report and appeal for funds. During the years of the War the school, for economical reasons, cut down its annual report to a mere statement of its aims and needs and an appeal for funds. In view of the fact that its supporting public has not for several years had a detailed account of its activities, we are this year giving a full and comprehensive report for old and new friends and financial backers of the school. We urgently appeal for your support in this constructive and rapidly growing work, the essential needs of which are outlined in our circular. We will gladly mail reports to anyone sending his name and address to the secretary, Miss Childsey, West Newton.

Signed:
E. O. Childs,
W. F. Chase,
Josephine A. Muther (Mrs. L. F.)
Finance Committee.

DEATH OF MR. DAVIS

Mr. Henry M. Davis, the originator of the towel supply system, and, for many years owner of the Boston Towel Supply Co. and the Pilgrim Laundry Co., died suddenly on Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Ferris of Akron, Ohio.

Mr. Davis was born in Ackworth, N. H., but had lived in Newton over thirty years. He leaves a widow, Sarah F. Davis, a daughter, Mrs. R. W. Ferris, and a son, Mr. Francis W. Davis of Waban.

Mr. Davis was a member of the Dalhousie Lodge of Masons and of the Gethsemane Commandery, K. T. of Newton. He attended the First Unitarian Church, West Newton.

Services were held at his late residence on Highland avenue, West Newton, Wednesday afternoon, the Rev. J. Edgar Park of the Second Church officiating, owing to the illness of Rev. Julian C. Jaynes. The burial was in Newton Cemetery.

GUEST AFTERNOON

The Stebbins Alliance entertained its members and their guests on Tuesday afternoon at the Unitarian Church. Each guest on her arrival received a cordial welcome and a carnation. Mrs. James C. Taber was the presiding officer.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Pearson gave a very effective appeal for the work of Twombly House, telling of the splendid work of the Mothers' and Girls' clubs and asking for their support during the coming year.

At the conclusion of her speech, Mrs. Wellman, Probation officer, spoke on the Sunday Sports Bill which is to be voted on on December 14th in Newton. She told of the good effects of allowing Sunday sports as she had watched them during the summer, and said that there was a real need of such sports among those who are obliged to work during the week. Quoting Mr. Hermann, Supt. of the Newton Playgrounds, she said, "Commercialism was absolutely absent; the games were purely amateur, and playground directors on each of the playgrounds of Newton gave detailed reports each Monday on the way the games had been conducted. The superintendent said that the Sunday Sports Act had proved of real value to the young people. The Chief of Police also said, 'There have been no complaints or disturbances reported in connection with Sunday sports, and crap shooting has been much less.'"

Mr. Ham of Reading then gave a reading of Southern dialect stories of his own in which Uncle Kinchin, a real character whom the author met on his travels South, figured. The character sketches were excellent, and the stories gave a very good idea of the South before the war. The stories were full both of wit and humor, and were much enjoyed by the audience. A cup of tea and a social hour followed the reading.

NOVELTY SHOWER

Miss Anna Kiley, chief operator of the Newton South Telephone Exchange, was surprised last week Thursday evening at her home at The Marlon, Washington street, Newton, by a novelty shower given by her friends and business associates.

Miss Kiley is to be married to Mr. Edward McNulty, of Somerville, Holy Cross, 17, Sunday, November 14. She received a number of beautiful gifts of cut glass, silver, linens, etc.

Among those present were Mrs. William A. Fanning, Mrs. John Barwise, Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald, Mrs. James Cannon, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. John Burke, Mrs. Charles Cody, Miss Helen Scott, Miss Alice Lucy, Miss Hazel McGrath of Newton, also friends from Allston, Brighton, Norwood, Waltham and the Newtons.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Nellie T. Barry to The Buttrick Lumber Corporation, dated October 23, 1917, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 4171, Page 142, for breach of the condition thereof will be sold at public auction upon the premises on Tuesday, the seventh day of December, 1920, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, the said premises being described in said mortgage as follows:

The land in Newton, County of Middlesex, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts with the buildings thereon, situated on the Easterly side of Craft Street, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the Easterly line of said Craft Street at land formerly of Leary two hundred thirty-six and 34/100 (236.34) feet to land now or late of Cephas H. Brackett; thence turning at a right angle and running southeasterly one hundred fifty-eight and 50/100 (158.5) feet by said Brackett land; thence turning at a right angle and running southeasterly still by said Brackett land one hundred fifty-one and 32/100 (151.32) feet to said Craft Street; thence turning and running northerly one hundred seventy-nine and 98/100 (179.98) feet by said Craft Street, to the point of beginning.

Being the same premises conveyed to Charles A. Harrington by Henry F. Ross by deed recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, libro 2881, folio 1. Also conveying all the interest of this grantor in the right of way described in a deed from Cephas H. Brackett, dated July 26, 1887, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, libro 2582 folio 296. Intending hereby to convey the premises described in a deed from Charles A. Harrington to the Buttrick Lumber Company, dated April 13, 1903, and recorded in Middlesex South District Deeds, libro 3034, folio 240. These premises are conveyed subject to taxes assessed in the year 1917 and to all incumbrances of record. Also the following described personal property: one gray mare; two single wagons; two single sleds; two single harnesses; together with blankets, horse and stable equipment; one ticket register; one safe; one roll top desk; one up-right desk; together with chairs and other office supply and equipment; one so-called "Harrington Hoist" ropes and tools; intending hereby to convey all of the office, yard and stable equipment this day bought by me of the Buttrick Lumber Corporation, whether or not specifically described therein. It is also agreed that this grantor shall replace any item of personal property which may be lost, worn out, or sold with similar property of equal value, which shall immediately come within this mortgage.

In stated that said premises are subject to a mortgage of $4000 on the real estate. Said premises will be sold subject to taxes, municipal liens and other encumbrances of record if any such exist.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of sale.

WHAT WEEKS HAS DONE

Of all the men who have contributed to the Republican victory, none deserves greater credit than our own John W. Weeks. In his management of the campaign from New York, with all its trying details and thousand responsibilities, he has displayed untiring industry and unerring judgment. The original plan called for national headquarters in Chicago, but his presence in New York has actually made that city the nerve center of the campaign. Of its intricate organization he has been the balance wheel.

Our former senator's relations with President-elect Harding have been exceedingly close. On every campaign committee having confidential relations with the candidate he directed that his friend Weeks should have a place. His long service in Washington stood him in good stead, making him more intimately in touch than any other Republican leader with political heads all over the country, and especially in the East, where the tide against Wilson has been the strongest. It has been Weeks' seasoned advice that has directed all the speakers east of the Mississippi. With the exception of the publicity, he has been responsible for nearly every piece of campaign strategy that has been undertaken. He made, for example, that choice of managers here which enabled New England to exceed its quota of funds contributed. A small talker but a great worker, he has directed operations with care and good judgment.

What his position will be with the new administration has not yet been disclosed. The new President wants him close at hand and will doubtless draft him for a big place in the cabinet. In fine, the next administration is likely to have no more influential figure than John W. Weeks.—Boston Herald.

LOCATES IN NEWTON

Mr. Charles G. Whitcomb, of this city has just announced that Whitcomb's Famous Concert Band, bearing his name and founded by him, will hereafter have its headquarters at 299 Tremont street, Newton. This band and orchestra are well known to the residents of Newton, because they have filled many important engagements in this vicinity.

Whitcomb's Concert Band has made an enviable record by its performances during the musical festival week at Norumbega Park in 1916, the memory of which is still fresh among residents of this city.

By locating here, the band and orchestra will be in a position to fill all local engagements with a musical program that will be a treat to every music lover in this city.

The next regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Monday, Nov. 15, at 7.45 at the home of Mrs. Seymour MacRae, 19 Higgins St., Auburndale. Reports of the State convention will be read.

RECOMMENDING BOOKS

"Somebody is always asking me one at sometime if he knows of a good book to read. To say the right thing, either about the right or wrong book, to either the right or wrong person, is an intellectual diversion of no mean proportions. . . . It may not be out of place here, if for nothing else than to increase our efficiency, to give a list of phrases to be used by timid people when recommending books to inquiring friends:

"It is a good book, but I am bound to say that the reading of it depends upon your mood."

"You couldn't do better—that is, if your only object is to pass the time."

"Everybody is reading it. But that may not mean anything to you."

"In case you do not like it, please don't blame me."

It is a delicate matter to recommend a book, yet the library assistants will gladly venture to do their best for anybody who wants either a suggestion as to a readable book, or information about the best book on a particular subject. In keeping with this they pause to call to attention O. P. Bland's Men, Manners and Morals in South America (G98-B61). The author calls to mind the quality of intellectual fare provided by ocean liners, which he looks upon as a lost opportunity. He says "Never was there a time and place on this feverish planet so suited to the inculcation of the art and philosophy of travel, as this unbroken spell of sunlit days and star-spangled nights, this oasis of silence and blue sea, beyond which lies infinity." There should be, he says, on every ship a "Travelers' Joy Library,"—"books written by men who knew that there are things far more important in a journey than one's destination." Here are some suggestions for such a library.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

John T. Burns & Sons report the passing of final papers conveying the estate of Prof. G. F. Swain to Clara C. and J. Henry Drury. The property is located at 1888 Commonwealth avenue, in the Chestnut Hill section, and consists of a mansion house of 16 rooms and 5 baths, together with a stable and garage and 33,000 square feet of land with a frontage of 300 feet on Commonwealth avenue. The house is of brick construction, with granite trimmings and the total value of the property is $53,000. After considerable improvement, Mr. and Mrs. Drury will occupy. Freeman and Lawrence represented the grantor and John T. Burns & Sons, Inc., represented the purchaser.

The Burns Agency also report that it has sold for G. W. Odell, the single, 11 room, frame house located at 24 Newtonville avenue, Newton. With the house, there are 12,000 square feet of land and the total valuation is $10,000. John F. Lynch purchases for a home.

Burns & Sons have also sold to Margaret Buckley the two-family, frame house located at 59-61 Highland avenue, Newtonville. With the house, there are 6,000 square feet of land and the total valuation is $8500. J. T. Bonney was the grantor.

The Burns Agency also report having sold for the Hub Realty Corporation, a lot of land on Tarleton road, Newton Centre, containing 41,350 square feet. The total valuation of this property is $5000. P. A. Hennessey, the purchaser will improve by the erection of single dwellings very shortly.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MASS MEETING

Young people between the ages of 15 and 21 will have an opportunity to hear Brewer Eddy speak at a Mass Meeting to be held on Sunday, Nov. 14, at 4 P. M., in the Central Church, Newtonville. This meeting is under the supervision of the Young People's committee of the Norumbega District Sunday School Association. The following compose this committee: William M. Breed, chairman; Anson T. Leary, Chauncey B. Conn, Rev. M. H. Lichliter, Ralph M. Emery, George Flewelling, Miss Elsie M. Brodick, Miss Lullona Barker (ex-officio), and Richard O. Walter (ex-officio). In their plans for this affair, the committee is being assisted by a group of young people who represent the various Sunday Schools located in the Newtons, Waltham, Watertown, Waverley, Belmont, and Weston.

D. A. R.

A very interesting lecture was given last Saturday night at the Fessenden School. The subject of the lecture was, "The History of the Landing of the Mayflower Pilgrims." The lecture was read by Mrs. Fred E. Mann and was illustrated with lantern slides.

At the regular meeting of the D. A. R. on Monday, Mrs. David E. Baker gave "Portraits by Candlelight."

If you could build your house over again—your way

MANY an inviting bay window and well-lighted corner is uncomfortable and unsafe when a cold wind is blowing outside. But don't forego the pleasures of an interesting book or magazine simply because your radiator was misplaced.

Put a Perfection Oil Heater in the path of those air currents and drafts. Then you can enjoy your favorite story in 70° or 72° of solid comfort.

Heat where you want it, from "the portable radiator"

That is what over a million families are using to keep their coal bills down. A low, even fire in your furnace or steam heater for general warmth—all over the house. Then a Perfection, "the portable radiator," in the rooms and corners you actually use.

Save "driving" your regular heater to keep seldom-used rooms and hallways unnecessarily warm.

The Perfection is light, compact and durable. It is an ornament in any room—blue or black finish, with or without nickeled trimmings. Burns for about 10 hours without refilling. No care, fuss or bother—just cozy comfort, when you want it, where you need it. A child can operate it.

Most hardware, housefurnishing and department stores sell the Perfection Oil Heater. Your dealer will gladly show you its simple, sturdy construction and smokeless wick adjustment. Look at one today.

For best results use Socony Kerosene.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

specimens of rare beauty, which has been prepared by the General Federation in an effort to interest women in beautiful things and in the Made-in-America Movement.

Wednesday evening found Emerson School hall at Newtonville filled to the limit of its capacity with members and friends, of the Woman's Club, including men, women and children, for the presentation of "A Merry Kindergarten." The performance was largely original, containing many local hits in song and story, which brought down the house as number followed number. The costumes, too, were no small part of the fun.

Louis P. Everett in pink rompers and Mr. Thomas E. Lees as "Dutchie" in a similar suit of blue were "Endmen," providing no mean portion of the entertainment. Then there was "Lollypop," the black child, always sucking her real lollypop as large as a plate and giving the other children a lick at frequent intervals. Space forbids mentioning the particular antics of each one, but suffice it to say that it was an evening where one funny incident followed another in quick succession and that all was hugely enjoyed by everyone present. At recess the children, instead of eating the lunch they had brought with them, in large baskets, sold the audience the candy and corn balls which they contained, in this way adding a good sum to the club treasury.

Those who took the parts were: Mrs. Bertha B. Cobb, Miss Smart, the kindergarten teacher; Mrs. Adeline Capobianco, Miss Helpall, the maid; Mrs. Phyllis Flinchbaugh, Lollypop; Miss Alice E. Jones, Julia Ward; Mrs. Cora E. Sawyer, Gwendolyn; Mrs. Clara Temperley, Lollypop; Mrs. Olive Parsons, Dolly Dimple; Mrs. Bertha Meara, Minnehaha; Mrs. Ella Dugan, Louisiana; Mrs. Jane L. Marey, Indiana; twins; Mr. Robert F. Sawyer, Isadore Grausbaum; Mr. Ernest Cobb, tional Parks. A resolution adopted by the Massachusetts State Federation.

Mr. Grausbaum; Mr. Louis P. Everett, Reginald; Mr. Thomas E. Lees, Dutchie Brinker; Mr. Charles A. Chadwick, Set-Still Campbell, one of the School Board; Mrs. Mary P. Farnham; Mrs. Hearwell; Mrs. Agnes Leighton; Violet Ray; Mrs. O'Lee, Mrs. Mary I. Newey; Mr. Noyes Meara, Bobby.

The affair was in charge of the Dramatics committee of the club, Mrs. Willard Marcy, chairman, Mrs. Herbert E. Locke was the pianist.

CLASS IN THE CONSERVATION OF NATURAL RESOURCES

Conducted by the Conservation Committees of the Community and Social Science Clubs—Mrs. Ralph C. Henry and Mrs. Fred H. Tucker, Chairmen.

At the first meeting of this class, November 5, it was voted that the meetings hereafter should be monthly instead of bi-monthly as heretofore and be held on the first Friday of each month at 10 o'clock at the Hunnewell Club, Church street, Newton. The class is free to all members of the Community and Social Science Clubs and the Massachusetts State Federation. The next meeting will be on Friday, December 3.

The subject decided upon for the present season is "The Conservation of Water." The following are the main reasons for this choice:

1.—Water is the prime necessity of life. It is water which gives value to all other resources. Without water this planet would be a dead world, and even now many portions of the earth are in effect dead and uninhabitable solely for lack of a sufficient or available water supply.

2.—Although water has always been regarded a necessity it is only of comparatively recent times that it has been recognized to be a primary natural resource which must be intelligently treated, not merely to secure its fullest use for all purposes but to guard against a diminished supply.

Even now it is only the few who understand that water, in both humid and arid regions, must be conserved—that is, saved and utilized, stored and developed, to the utmost possible extent. We have what is virtually a permanent and reliable amount of water constantly returned to us in rain or snowfall, yet this quantity is not nearly enough to sustain human life over the whole world. The problem, therefore, for class study is how to make the most of the world's inadequate water supply, how best to save and utilize the largest proportion of it for the greatest number of people.

3.—This subject is especially pertinent just now in view of the full political suffrage of women. How to cast a ballot and other political technique form only the first step. Good citizenship means knowledge of the issues before the people, together with the ability to estimate their true values and to exert influence for the highest good of one's country and all humanity. Water in all its uses is one of the paramount issues of today because it is the force of the future, beginning now. And one of the most urgent phases of the question at this moment is—Shall this force be exploited for the benefit of the few or shall ownership and control be held by and for the whole people? The imminent dangers from commercial exploitation of public waters are shown in the water power and irrigation bills before the last session of Congress for the invasion of the Na-

A Fair Fighter and Good Loser

(From the Brockton Enterprise)

The Boston Post is Democratic in its political convictions but non-partisan in its handling of news. Its editorial estimates of men and measures, so far as we have observed, are not allowed to color or prejudice its news columns. The night of election Vice-President-elect Calvin Coolidge expressed his thanks to the Post for the "courteous consideration" it had extended to him, for its fair reports of his speeches and its candid comment. The morning after election the Post made no effort to belittle the Republican sweep of the country or to find excuses for the defeat of the party it had championed. It accepted the verdict of the majority without rancor, frankly accepted it as evidence that the country wanted a change of administration, said fine things about both Harding and Coolidge, and urged every citizen of these United States to accept the decision cheerfully, magnanimously and with confidence that it is just. This is in striking contrast to the bitter resentfulness shown by other prominent papers that supported Cox and Roosevelt.

The Post has a following to be proud of all over New England, and it is safe to assume that very many of its readers do not subscribe to its political principles and opinions. But, even if they happen to be of a differing party faith, they give the paper credit for being sincere in its editorial sentiments, have faith that its news stories will be free from bias, find in the paper an individuality that appeals to them, overlook its partisan label, and have the same affectionate regard for it they would for a friend they hold in high esteem even if he does rub their fur the wrong way once in awhile by his stand on affairs of the moment.

POLICE NOTES

In the Newton court Saturday morning James E. Fallon of Newton was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction for stealing liquor from W. H. Aspinwall of Hammond street, who employed Fallon during the month of September as a night watchman. Inspector Goode presented the case for the Government. Several witnesses testified that a champagne bottle found in Fallon's room on the R. M. Saltonstall estate, where he was also employed, was similar to a bottle missing from the private stock at the Aspinwall house. Counsel for Fallon appealed and the latter was released on $500 bonds for the Superior Court in December.

OPENS NEW BUILDING

Newton Trust Company Now Installed in Fine Quarters at Newton Centre

The Newton Trust Company opened on Thursday last week its new building at Newton Centre, with a reception and tea, which was largely attended by residents of the south side of the city.

The new building is situated facing the square in Newton Centre at the intersection of Beacon street and Institution avenue. The site is one of the finest in Newton for a monumental building of a public character, and the building itself goes a long way toward making the centre of ward 6 one of the most beautiful in Newton.

The building is constructed of red brick with limestone trimmings and harmonizes with the schoolhouse to the north, and on the south side with the new building for the Women's Club, which we hope to see at no very distant date. These surrounding buildings were carefully considered by the architects of the bank building, so as to bring the whole square into harmony and to avoid the architectural dissonance which sometimes occurs in village centres. We earnestly hope that when the buildings are built around the square, the same harmonious arrangement will be followed out. If it is, Newton Centre will have a civic centre to which it can point with pride.

To return to the bank itself, the entrance of two streets is flanked by four Doric columns of limestone with the Doric entablature carrying in bronze letters the words "Newton Trust Company."

An interesting innovation is the concealed lighting behind the ceiling of the portico. At night eight powerful lamps shed a glow of light on the walls behind the columns, throwing them into bold relief.

To enhance this effect the street lights have been removed from the vicinity of the building and will be replaced by two large ornamental light standards located on the grass plot in front of the bank.

On entering the building one comes directly into the main banking room. This room is large and high-lighted by eight tall windows in the sides. On the left is the President's private office and the quarters for officers of the bank—while opposite is the ladies' room and the cages for cashier, teller and clerks. Directly in front as one enters, and crosses the public space, is the vault. The vaults are three in number, two on the main floor and a third very large one in the basement. They are very massively built of concrete and steel, fitted with every possible protective device, electrically and otherwise, to foil the despoiler and protect the depositor.

The massive doors to the main vault with their shining metal, polished steel and glass, and the intricacy of the time clocks and locking devices hold the attention and excite the interest and wonder of the uninitiated. One may be sure also that the unseen but very important features which do the really effective protective work are all there. These doors represent the latest and best experience of the constructors and designers. Verily, here is one place where "thieves do not break in and steal." The doors were designed by Benjamin F. Tripp, of Boston, and made in Cincinnati, by the Hall Safe Co.

The doors weigh about 23,000 lbs., over eleven tons, and it was quite a feat to move them into position. No ordinary floor, of course, would support such a weight, and the doors must be put in after the building was complete. The floors were carefully shored up in the basement, and the marble surfaces protected by plank and burlap. Then slowly, carefully, the great doors were moved into position, and turned up into the openings left for them and fastened in place. It was all done in one day, but it was a revelation of the skill of the safe movers.

The space at the sides of the vaults is occupied by six roomy coupon booths, fitted with glass shelving and well lighted for the convenience of the customers.

GIRL SCOUTS

Leaders' Meetings to be Held Weekly at Newtonville

The Leaders Course has held two meetings. On November 12 and 19. There were 16 present at the first and 22 at the second. These meetings are held in the parlors of the New Church in Newtonville on Thursday evenings and will continue through December 23.

The Class is run very much like a Troop meeting. Patrols are formed and the regular formal opening meeting being gone through each time. Mr. Cotton, Scout Master for the Boy Scouts in Newtonville, and a graduate of Norwich University, is giving the course in drilling. This course is very interesting and very helpful to the girls.

Miss Louise Chapin, who had charge of the Folk Dancing in the Girl Scout National Training Camp which was held in Plymouth last summer is giving a short course in Folk Dancing. This course is being enjoyed very much and will be the means of introducing Folk Dancing to the different Troops.

Miss Freeman has charge of the Tenderfoot work and Miss Priscilla Ordway, Captain Troop 3, is giving a course in map making and reading.

Miss Sandford, Director of the Massachusetts Girl Scouts, was the speaker at the first meeting. Her subject was "The Ideals of Scouting." At the second meeting Captain Waterhouse of the Newtonville Fire Department gave a short talk on "Fire Prevention" and showed how to use a fire extinguisher and a fire hose.

The next meeting of the Leaders Class will be held December 2 and the Local Director will be glad to welcome any other young women who would be interested to join in the work.

The second performance of the "Pioneers" was given in Bray Hall on

BOY SCOUTS

Newton Troops Win Second Place in Greater Boston Rally

The Greater Boston Rally of Boy Scouts of America was held last Saturday on Old Tech Field, Brookline. A large number of Scouts from all Boston were present, and the contests from beginning to the end were hotly contested. The Newton Boys made a good showing, not so much in numbers as in ability to do Scouting. Every Scout entered an event with the determination to win if at all possible, and in that they were setting forth the spirit of the Newtons.

The final tally of points gave to District 3, Boston, 21, and to Newton 19 points. The Boys are determined that in the next Greater Boston Rally the Newtons will be first, and with a large number of points in the lead.

Troop 11, of Newton Corner, has the honor of possessing the Champion Water-bottle of the Greater Boston District, in the person of Robert Rees, 123 Jewett Street. Troop 4 of Newton Highlands can claim the champion tent erectors, since they left the other contestants behind by a good lead.

Scouting in the Newtons and Wellesley is gaining momentum. A new troop will soon be started in Newtonville. Troop 1 of that place under the leadership of Mr. R. W. Cotton, 37 Washington Park, has more applicants than it can care for. Troop 7, West Newton, is in the same condition. A New Troop will be started. Applications for all other troops are coming in fast. Each troop will be limited to thirty-two Scouts. Better hurry, boys, if you want to enlist in Greatest democratic organization for boys that America has.

NEWTON CLUB

Next Tuesday evening the Newton Club will have a formal bridge party. A Thanksgiving dance will be held on Friday, Nov. 26.

Saturday, Nov. 13, before a large and enthusiastic audience. The play went off well and the officers are much pleased with the results.

HOSPITAL FINANCES

New Plan Proposed Which Will Handle the Matter in a Business Like Way

The imperative need of the Newton Hospital for a larger income was well set forth last Friday night at a meeting of nearly a hundred prominent citizens of Newton, including business men, physicians and clergymen, held at the Brae Burn Club.

Mr. J. B. Jamieson, chairman of the Finance committee of the Hospital, presided and a great deal of interest was manifested in the work and needs of the Hospital.

Rev. Edward T. Sullivan, rector of Trinity Church was the first speaker and he heartily approved of a Hospital deficit, saying that it showed we were doing what we ought. The work of the Hospital cannot be limited, its patients must be cared for. If sickness comes into your own homes, do you hesitate to employ a nurse or a doctor, on account of financial considerations? He wanted the brains and business acumen of Newton to grasp this problem as it should. Don't let Boston and its enterprises occupy so much of our minds that Newton can only get the little end of things. He believed that in raising money we went at it usually in the wrong way. It was as much trouble to get $100 as it was $5000 from the same man. He suggested that we first find 20 men to contribute $5000 each, then 20 men at $2500 each, then 50 men at $1000 each, then $50,000 in smaller contributions and thus get a quarter of a million dollars for the Hospital. He recognized that there were other calls for money but he did not believe we had ever capitalized the good will of the residents of Newton. Many give but many others do not. Big enterprises attract big men. Let us tackle this Hospital situation in a big way.

President William C. Bray gave a brief history of the Hospital, which is now entering on its 41st year. It took five years to arouse public interest and the first building was opened on June 5, 1886. The Hospital now has 24 buildings, 14 acquired by gift and has accommodations for 175 patients. Over 22,000 came in the last decade. For the last Hospital year, there had been 2847 patients and an average of 114. Of this number, 22 per cent had been free patients, about 59 per cent had paid either exact cost or less than cost, and 19 per cent had paid a profit. In closing Mr. Bray paid a high tribute to Miss Riddell, the superintendent of the Hospital.

Mr. Leon B. Rogers said that the Hospital cannot be run as a business, but business could and must finance it.

The accumulated deficit at the present time was some $53,000. Past methods of financing had proved inadequate. He proposed the organization of the Newton Hospital Finance association with an executive committee of one member from each village or part of Newton, and with a paid secretary. This Association should sell memberships in such an Association and endeavor to have the Hospital put on the same plane as club dues—an annual affair. He urged the selection of an enthusiastic committee, and one thoroughly acquainted with the needs of the Hospital and predicted an income of $75,000 per year.

The relation of Mr. Rogers' plan to Hospital Sunday was discussed and it appeared to be the general feeling that Hospital Sunday was too much of an established Newton institution to be disturbed.

Rev. J. Edgar Park of West Newton believed the churches ought to help support the Hospital. He suggested the selling of shares in the Hospital with an "Irish" dividend each year, so that each citizen might feel that he had an interest in the Hospital. He also suggested that such shares might be bought by the people as an act of Thanksgiving that they had escaped the trials and tribulations of disease during the past year.

Rev. M. H. Lichliter of Newtonville believed it was a civic duty, which we must face and while the churches should do their share, he wanted the actual workers to be citizens rather than churchmen.

Mr. Grosvenor Calkins had several practical suggestions, favoring more publicity for the Hospital and work along the lines of obtaining endowments.

President Henry I. Harriman opposed the suggestion that the Hospital the public. The other side is devoted to the book keeping force of the bank. Over the vaults is a second story with a large room which will provide additional working space when needed, or it may be used as a meeting room for Directors or Trustees. On the north side is a rest and locker room for the women employees with a toilet adjoining. The rest room is fitted with electric devices so food may be heated or toast prepared for luncheon.

The male employees have a toilet and locker room in the basement, with similar equipment.

The mechanical equipment of the building is as complete as any suburban bank can be made. The heating system is a low pressure modulation system with steam taken from the Power House which supplies all the adjacent buildings. The bank is equipped with electric current for lights and power, with gas for water heating and auxiliary lighting. There is a plunger elevator between the basement and the first floor. The daily cleaning is done with a vacuum cleaner located in the basement, with suction piping to various positions in the bank. The various clocks, one outside over the door, and two inside, are mechanically driven by electric power. There is ample telephone service to all the desks, with central station on the main floor, and also, a complete signal system of call bells and protective alarm signals.

Ample provision for natural ventilation is made through the ceiling by means of an ornamental plaster grille around the central chandelier.

The coloring and decoration of the main banking room is an innovation. The architects have attempted to make the room warm in color rather than the formal tones which prevail in the usual bank. The walls are painted in warm browns, relieved by the white plaster frieze and cornice at the ceiling, and by the polished mahogany dado and case work at the floor. The draperies and curtains add a homelike touch at the windows.

The building was designed by Kendall, Taylor & Company of Boston, and under the personal supervision of Mr. Albert S. Kendall of Newton Centre.

TENNYSON REBEKAH LODGE

The Tennyson Rebekah Lodge celebrated its twenty-eighth anniversary on Tuesday evening at Odd Fellows Hall, West Newton. There was a supper followed by an entertainment.

Mr. Harvey C. Wood, First Noble Grand, gave a short history of the lodge. The president of the Rebekah Assembly and her Marshall were the guests of honor.

The entertainment consisted of readings by Mrs. Alla Farmer, and fancy dancing by Miss McCleod. There was also a sketch entitled, "A Mother's Meeting," in which the following took part: Mrs. Ella E. Mason, Mrs. Howard Manter, Mrs. Alvery Baker, Mrs. Myron Bacon, Mrs. William E. The, Mrs. Archie Wilson, Mrs. William Campbell, Miss Margaret McDougal, Mrs. Walter Stuart, Mrs. F. Rice French, and Mrs. A. F. Smith.

DEATH OF MRS. BROOKS

Mrs. Maria Cordelia Brooks, prominent Massachusetts clubwoman, died last week Thursday at Newton Centre at the age of 83. She was the daughter of the late Joshua Loring, for many years president of the Blackstone National Bank. In 1858 she was married to Lyman B. Brooks by the Rev. F. S. Smith, author of "America."

She was a member of the Society of Mayflower Descendants, and of Paul Revere Chapter, D. A. R., and was active in the work of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union and of the Twentieth Century Club. She is survived by three sons, L. Loring Brooks, a Boston banker; the Rev. Frederick M. Brooks of Watertown and Joshua L. Brooks of Springfield, president of the Eastern States Agricultural and Industrial Exposition.

Services were held at the home of Dr. R. P. Loring on Crescent avenue on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Charles N. Arbuckle officiating, and the burial was in Newton Cemetery.

NEW RECTOR

Rev. Theodore R. Ludlow, who was instituted rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church at Newton Highlands on October 3, was born in Texas. He was educated in the public schools in Brooklyn and subsequently graduated from Columbia University in 1907 with a degree of M.A.-LL.B., a year later taking post-graduate work at Harvard, 1908-1909.

REV. THEODORE R. LUDLOW
New Rector at St. Paul's Church,
Newton Highlands

During his early business career he taught Political Science in Austin College, Texas, afterwards practicing law in Texas and New York. Deciding to study for the Ministry, he graduated from the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, and was ordained by Bishop Lawrence in 1911, going immediately to serve on the staff of Boone College, China, 1912-1916, as a voluntary missionary in the District of Hankow. In 1918 he went abroad again in the interest of Y. M. C. A. work among the Chinese coolies in France, returning in 1919. He became assistant to the rector of St. John's Church, Waterbury, Conn., until called to Newton Highlands.

The regular church work in all of its branches has begun in earnest in the Parish of St. Paul and it is the rector's desire that the Sunday evening services be considered as Community services where everybody will find a welcome.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Mayor E. O. Childs will be the speaker at the Fellowship Club on Monday evening, November 22nd. Supper will be served at 6.30 and the singing will begin at 7.00. Members of the association and their friends are invited to join this Club.

More and more different organizations from Churches and different Clubs are using the Y. M. C. A. Last week the Boy Scouts from West Newton were down for swimming tests and two Sunday School teachers brought groups of boys to the building to enjoy bowling, swimming, and other activities. The Association extends the invitation to all Sunday School teachers and leaders of boys' groups to make use of the Association building. The only requirement is that the boys be accompanied with an adult leader and the appointment made with Association officials before the group comes.

Membership at the end of October was 888, 262 of them being members of the boys' department, and 626 senior members. The physical department activities are booming this fall. The week of prayer, November 14th to 20th, was observed at the Newton Y. M. C. A. with prayer meetings conducted by Mr. S. M. Sayford.

Cross Country Run

Thanksgiving morning a crowd of Y. M. C. A. members will get off the mark for a three-mile run as an appetizer for a turkey dinner. The start will be made in front of the Y. M. C. A. building at 10.00 and the course taken will wind them through Newton and Watertown squares finishing with two laps around the Y. M. C. A. cinder track. The runners have been working faithfully for this run and are expected to cover the distance in good time. Six prizes will be offered.

Boys' Division Activities

Saturday afternoon, Nov. 20th, starting at 2 o'clock, a big Treasure Hunt will take place. All members of the Boys' Division are eligible to take part. The "Treasure" will be a worth-while prize to any boy who is a hustler and fairly lucky. See Mr. Whedon or "Doc" Doubleday for particulars.

On Thanksgiving Day a special "Hare and Hounds" Chase for boys will be pulled off. The start and finish will be at the "Y" building. Watch Boys' Bulletin Board for time and rules of the chase.

Our slogan for Boys' Division is "350 members by Jan. 1, 1921." To date we have a total of 290. Surely there are at least 60 boys in our department who have a chum and would like to have him join. Bring him around on a class day to watch the gym and swimming class and have him meet the Boys' Secretaries.

An annual event of great interest to the younger society set of the Newtons is the Thanksgiving Day Dinner given at Garden Hall, Brookline, by Mrs. Helen W. Bowers, from 4 until 7 o'clock.

Crisp, Fluffy Waffles For Your Breakfast

that's what you'll have if you get Griswold's Waffle Iron. They'll almost melt in your mouth, because Griswold's Waffle Iron bakes waffles right—gives them the real Southern flavor. Covered with good syrup and butter, no breakfast dish can be more delicious. Tastes differ as to cereals and various forms of desserts, but everybody likes waffles. They're also fine for luncheon or dinner.

Waffle Recipe

Two cups milk, 2 eggs, 3 cups flour, 2 heaping teaspoonfuls baking powder, 1/4 teaspoonful salt, 2 tablespoonfuls melted butter. Beat eggs well, sift baking powder into flour with salt. Add flour last thing. Bake in hot Griswold Iron.

She Keeps Faith With You— Will You Keep Faith With Her?

Quietly, but effectively, the Greatest Mother in the World is giving aid to those who need it most. She has not forgotten the crippled, blinded remnants of the war who are still in Army and Navy hospitals.

She does more. She takes to her arms the victims of disaster in peace, the victims of floods, fire, tornadoes and other catastrophes. Over 30,000 such unfortunates were shielded and sheltered by her this year. The Greatest Mother in the World—YOUR RED CROSS—is keeping faith with you; keeping faith not merely in your own country, but in devastated Europe as well.

Will you keep faith with her? The good she has done in the past has been made possible entirely through your membership. Join the Red Cross or renew your membership during the

Fine Newton Residence

A brick Colonial house of eight rooms, three baths and two garages in the best part of Newton Centre, built in the best possible manner under architects' supervision and with great attention to the small details which are so important in the final result.

The outstanding features are a beautiful winding stairway and three fine tiled fireplaces with reproductions of fine old Salem mantels. The owner's private bath with its tiled walls and built-in wardrobe and dressing table is very fine.

All the little details that make a house livable and easily cared for are embodied in this plan which was designed to enable the mistress to dispense with the servant if desired.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Leon G. Atkinson to the Newton Centre Savings Bank dated April 5, 1917, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds in book 4128, page 555, for breach of the condition of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described, on Saturday the eleventh day of December, 1920, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular, the following described real estate:

A certain parcel of land and the buildings thereon situated in that part of Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts called Newtonville on the westerly side of the private way formerly called Victoria Street and now called Victoria Circle. The said land is shown as Lot G on a plan entitled Plan of land in Newton, Mass., belonging to C. C. Streeter and C. D. Young, by E. S. Smilie, surveyor, dated August 30, 1916. The said land is bounded and described as follows: Easterly by said Victoria Circle by courses respectively nineteen and one-half (19½) feet and sixty and 71/100 (60.71) feet, as shown on said plan; northerly by the southerly side line of a private way shown on said plan ninety-two and 64/100 (92.64) feet; northwesterly by land now or late of Clark C. Streeter et al thirty (30) feet and southwesterly by land now or late of said Streeter et al shown as Lot H on said plan one hundred (100) feet.

Subject to and with the benefit of a right of way for the purposes of a street in common with others entitled thereto in and over the private way known as Morton Street and in and over the private way known as Victoria Circle including a portion of Victoria Circle shown on said plan and also the continuation thereof to its intersection with said Morton Street, and also subject to the restrictions set forth in a deed of Clark C. Streeter et al to Henry C. Bourne et al dated October 1, 1916, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds in book 4099, page 112.

Three hundred Dollars ($300.) will be required to be paid by the purchaser at the time and place of sale.

MISSION STUDY

A remarkable series of monthly meetings for mission study is being held under the auspices of the Woman's Association of Central Church. The subject, "The Bible and Mission," is being developed in a manner to fascinate every woman, who is interested in World history, whatever her attitude toward the old-fashioned "missionary meeting."

Two meetings, very different in arrangement, but both full of information sufficiently elaborated to be entertaining to all, have already been held, but there will be several more during the winter and no one should miss the opportunity of attendance.

The women of the association have been divided into groups, and with an able leader, a specified group has each meeting in charge. On last Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Lichliter's group prepared the program. Mrs. Lichliter was unable to be present, so Mr. Lichliter very kindly gave his afternoon to the leadership of the devotional service.

On entrance to the chapel each member was given a number directing her to a certain table, at which was a "hostess," who gave a five-minute talk on her sub-top of the general subject, "Every Man in His Own Tongue." There were six of these tables. At a given signal the listeners changed tables so that each class heard six different speakers, including

Mrs. Wakefield, who spoke on "The Bible in the Early Church." Mrs. Rose, who gave, "The Background of the English Bible." Mrs. Whitney, whose topic was "The Romance of Bible Translation." Mrs. Kimball, who considered "The Missionary's Service to Culture." Mrs. Jones, who described "The Bible in Japan and Korea," and Mrs. Brant, who told about "The Bible in Out-of-the-Way Places."

The devotional service was called "The Life of Christ in Song," the music being under the direction of Miss West, the church organist, assisted by Mrs. Sly, who has charge of the music of the Association for the year. Violin solos were rendered by Mrs. Hastings, who also played the obligato for "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth," sung by Mrs. Jacobs, soprano of the church choir. Mrs. Sly gave one solo and Mrs. Sly and Mrs. Wakefield sang a duet. The "Benediction" was composed by Miss West and sung by Miss West, Mrs. Sly and Mrs. Wakefield. The spirit of the musical program was beautifully worshipful and harmonious.

The gratitude of the Association, and especially of the seventy-five women present, is due to all who had a part in the afternoon's program, particularly to the musicians who gave so freely of their time for the occasion, and to Mrs. Hunt, who gave such beautiful rendering of the Scripture passages.

Tea was served at the close of the meeting under the direction of Mrs. J. W. Byers.

THE UNITARIAN APPEAL

In a recent address in Boston, Ex-President Taft made an address on "The Unitarian Religion, as the solvent for the post-war reaction of extravagance," in the course of which he said:

"Half, more than half of the people of the country are not in churches, and many of these, though intelligent and educated, have become indifferent to religion. Men reconcile themselves to this course by saying, 'We do not believe in church creeds and dogmas. They do not appeal to our intellect and our reasoning, and we will waste no time with them. We know what we ought to do. We need no religion to teach us, and we will pursue our own course and satisfy our own desire for religious life.'"

That there are men of this kind who can lead a highly moral life, who can be prompted by the best motives, and who can fill most useful places in society, one may admit, but these are exceptions. And even these would be better men if they were religious, if they recognized their responsibility to God, and had it constantly before their minds, if they stimulated their conscience by religious spirit.

Now, it is within the field of missionary work to such "heathens" as these that the Unitarian Church has, we believe, a great future. We ask them only to subscribe to the doctrine of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, to take in and act upon the pure preaching and practice of Jesus, to admit its fundamental truth, its beauty, its far-reaching benefit. We ask them to unite with us in the worship of God, and in the study and understanding of the teachings of Jesus, and in half elevation by this study. Ours is a call to the unconverted. Ours is a message of hope to those who are drifting into an indifference which will not make for their future happiness, which will not enable them to meet the certain sorrows and disappointments of life, and will not give them that calm basis for contentment that religion furnishes.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Col. John A. Andrew Home Association was held Friday evening in Boston, and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Lue Stuart Wadsworth, president; Eben W. Pike, Cambridge, first vice president; Dr. John Dixwell, second vice president; Mrs. Ella R. Jones, Lexington, secretary; Mrs. W. A. Wetherbee, Newton, treasurer; Mrs. Hattie T. Gott, Cambridge; Mrs. May G. Kidder, Waltham; Mrs. Lotte Kelley, Jamaica Plain; Mrs. Mabel Long of Milton; Mrs. May T. Gibbon, Melrose; Mrs. Maria Bateman, Mrs. Hattie Rich, Brookline; Mrs. E. B. Meehan, Roxbury, and William C. Mellor, Cambridge. The association is devoted to the work of caring for the widows or families of Civil War veterans and the Home is located on Washington park, Newtonville.

DEFEATS WALTHAM

Several thousand people attended the annual football game last Saturday between Newton High and Waltham High played this year on Clifton Field, Newtonville.

These old time rivals always play the game to the limit but Newton High has the better team this year and won by the score of 14 to 0.

Waltham gained much more ground rushing in the first half than did Newton. The visitors took the aggressive at the start and soon had the ball in Newton territory, but the latter held on its own 35-yard line, and immediately punted out of danger.

In the second quarter, Waltham carried the ball to the home team's three-yard line, for the first down, but the Watch City team's quarterback used poor judgment. He called for four plays which went directly into the pile and Newton took the ball on downs on the one-yard line. On this play, a Waltham player was injured, and after a 15-yard penalty on Waltham for coaching from the sidelines, time was called for the end of the half with the score 0 to 0.

The second half opened with Waltham kicking to Newton and the latter went straight up the field on kick tackle plays, with the Garrity brothers carrying the ball to Waltham's 35-yard line. Then came the most spectacular play of the game. Herb Garrity received a direct pass and dashed toward the opponent's right end, but when about to be tackled made a lateral pass to his brother Bob, who shot a forward into the hands of Stafford, the quarterback, who carried the ball to Waltham's 6-yard line. After four plays Bob Garrity crossed the line. Herb Garrity kicked the goal.

Newton kicked to Waltham and the latter immediately opened its repertoire of forward passes and trick plays, but the Newton team, especially Capt. Garrity, was on the alert, breaking them up time and again. Finally Bob Garrity intercepted one of them on the 34-yard mark and was only brought down on Waltham's four-yard line. On two plays Herb Garrity made the touchdown and also kicked the goal. The game then saw-sawed in the center of the field for the rest of the game.

AN ORIGINAL ENTERTAINMENT

The Men's Club Dinner at Trinity Church, Newton Centre, last Monday night was one of the best occasions the Club ever had. There was a remarkably fine dinner at which 86 men sat down. Following the dinner, a very original and most delightful entertainment was furnished by "a troupe of performers" from the members of the club.

The campfire scene was most realistic, with Private Rowley on sentry duty, and the sentries calling the hours, with calls repeated in the distance around the camp; the bugle sounding the reveille, and the waking up of the camp, was all vivid and impressive.

The manner in which Sergeant Bogart put his squad through setting up exercises was exceedingly amusing; his orders for the day; the findings of the court martial; the details of men for the different work, in which the Vestry, Rector, and other members were assigned extraordinary billets and duties—all made up an original, racy and entertaining act. The sounding of taps, or "lights out," was a fine ending to the act.

The act in the Y. M. C. A. hut, in which Private Clarence G. Howes sang amusing songs and told amusing stories; each member of the "troupe" contributing a story, song, or instrumental number, was full of fun and music and spirit. The Spanish Dance by Mlle Pavlova (Tracey Rudd) was a perfect performance.

The singing of the troupe was excellent; and at the close of the acts the men on the stage led the whole club in singing popular songs.

The "troupe" consisted of John D. Bogart, Clarence G. Howes, Tracey Rudd, H. Edmund Rowley, Warde Wilkins, and Reginald H. Brown.

SARAH HULL CHAPTER, D. R.

Sarah Hull Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, has always been very much interested in the wonderful Americanization work done at Stearns School under the guidance of Mr. Winslow. At the present time there are fourteen nationalities represented in the school, and it is indeed an inspiration to visit the school and see the enthusiasm that the children display in everything that tends to make them the better citizens of tomorrow.

On Friday afternoon, Nov. 12, several members of the chapter visited the Stearns school and in behalf of the chapter, Mrs. Edwin P. Leonard, Regent, presented the school with a large silk flag. A pleasing program consisting of appropriate songs and recitations was given by the school. The exercises closed with a stirring pledge of allegiance to the flag, and the singing of America.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Clafin School

The aims of the Better Speech work in the Clafin School are, first to make the pupils love the English language, and, secondly, to create in them a desire for their own improvement. To gain these two ends, the pupils of the different grades in the Clafin School have tried many methods and plans, the most interesting of which are here given in detail.

In the First Grades, the first step toward better English was drill work in Phonics. The pupils worked chiefly for enunciation, pronunciation and articulation. This work was followed by a conversation about the value of good English, and the common first-grade mistakes. These mistakes are being corrected by means of Language Games, and by the making of "Phonics rhymes."

The Second and Third Grades have followed up this work with more Language Games. One of the most interesting games used in the Third Grade is entitled, "Away With Poor English." The cat represents "Good English," while the mice are "Poor English." The mice have cards hanging from their necks on which incorrect words are printed, such as, "jest," "becuz," "ain't," "I seen." The mice carry on a conversation in which each mouse tells his or her name. The cat suddenly appears. One mouse gives the alarm, and the rest scamper to their holes under the table. When the mice think the cat is not looking, they come out one by one, until they are all caught. The cat then promises to give them one more chance if they will change their names, which they gladly do, and turn over their cards, showing the correct words.

The Fifth Grade decided that a set of original posters would be of benefit to them in correcting their mistakes. The idea of the posters is that "mistakes" in English are represented by figures in action. A particularly good poster was "The Good Speech Ship," the upper deck, labelled "Bad Speech," was unoccupied, while the lower deck, which was labelled "Good Speech," carried all the passengers.

One of the Sixth Grades has formed a "Correct English Club." The object of the club is to establish correct habits of speech and to give help in the writing of compositions. Meetings are held each Friday during the English period, at which time a list of mistakes in English that have been made by pupils during the week is read. The remainder of the meeting is given over to oral themes which are criticised and corrected by the class.

The campaign of Grade Seven was based upon the following points: 1. To correct the common errors of speech. 2. To abolish the use of slang. 3. To become acquainted with the dictionary. The emphasis, however, was placed upon correct usage of language in every-day affairs. These things were accomplished by definite studies of correct forms, also by composition work, cartoons, and posters.

Grade Eight began its drive by placing posters where they could be readily seen by all the pupils. Some of their best slogans were, "Better Speech Will Bring Better Results," "Speak the Language of Your Flag," "Think Before You Speak," "Take Time to Talk."

An original play called, "The Good English Fairies," was also given. The cast included: Philippa Patey, Barbara Tracy, Genevieve Colarullo, Harriet Higgins, Reubenna Hickey, Alicia Moran, Ivy Fredrickson, and Grace Taylor.

The plot of the play, "The Good English Fairies" represents the pupils of a class trying to tell their teacher how voting is done. They use poor English that, in despair, she calls for assistance, and the "Good English Fairies" each of whom represents a Good English Expression come to her aid.

In addition to these original plays, several original speeches on "Why We Should Have Better English" have been given by the pupils with marked success.

An account of the work the Horace Mann School will appear in the next issue of the Graphic.

Stearns

The football team will be without the services of its best defensive back, Bacarri, for about three weeks. A capable substitute, Littlefield of last year's team is ready to take Bacarri's place. The team hopes to play three more games before Thanksgiving, Burr, Hyde, and Mason.

The eighth grade will take its second industrial trip of the year this afternoon, visiting the Ginn Publishing Company.

The Daughters of the Revolution presented to the Stearns School last Friday, a beautiful silk flag and standard. The flag is heavily weighted with gold fringe, cord and tassels.

The pupils met in the assembly hall where exercises befitting the occasion were given by the eighth grade.

The presentation speech, made by Mrs. E. P. Leonard, was a beautiful tribute to our flag and country.

Hyde School

The Junior Red Cross was organized in the school this week, 100 per cent strong.

The attendance for last month of the entire school was 93.4 per cent.

About a week ago, fifteen children from Miss Hanscom's class presented an original occupations play in Jacob Sleeper Hall, Boston, for the benefit of the New England Vocational Guidance Association. This play was written and staged in the seventh grade last year by two of the members, Mildred MacDonald and Madolin Powell under the direction of Mrs. Blake-more, the Vocational Guidance teacher.

Last week Thrift Stamps to the value of $53.25 were purchased with Miss Little's second grade leading and the kindergarten a close second.

On Wednesday morning the Thanksgiving plays for both primary and grammar schools will be given in the Hyde School Hall.

Fessenden School

Tuesday afternoon, our senior team played Browne & Nichols in the last game of the season. We were beaten, 28-19, due partly to the fact that the Browne & Nichols team was larger than the one we had played earlier in the season. The right side of Fessenden's line was comparatively weak, however, and was really the cause of defeat.

The dancing classes commenced last week, the beginners' on Wednesday, and the advanced class, combined with a class of girls, on Saturday. Miss Whitney, who has taught here for several years, has charge of both classes.

Last Saturday, several privileged members of the school, or in other words, the football team, saw the Harvard-Brown game in the Stadium. In spite of the cold, everyone was quite satisfied, even those who succeeded, several times, in losing themselves among the crowd.

On the same evening, several fifth, sixth, and seventh formers, who did not take dancing, attended a production of "Grumpy" at Players' Hall in West Newton. On Tuesday, Mr. Fessenden took another group, chosen because of their good conduct and scholarship.

Lasell

Mrs. William S. Wagner is entertaining her sister, Mrs. J. R. Hazelett of Williamsport, Pa. Mrs. Wagner has her guest on Tuesday, Miss Lucy Curtis of Rockland, Mass., who was her classmate at Lasell in 1876.

A trip to the Charlestown Navy Yard was made by 17 of the girls on Monday. Besides visiting the museum and "Constitution," they had the privilege of visiting the battleship Delaware.

The hockey game with Lexington High last Friday was a most exciting one. Both teams played a fine game. It was of special interest to Lasell as this year Lasell has its first hockey team, and this was the first game played with an outside team.

Thanksgiving vacation begins on Wednesday, school reopening the following Tuesday. The school Thanksgiving party which takes place at Woodland on Saturday night is to be a frolic and dance.

Thursday evening the students enjoyed a lecture on Switzerland given by Charles Youga of Geneva, Switzerland. The illustrations were exceptionally beautiful.

Dean Huntington of Boston University is to be the speaker at Vespers on Sunday evening.

An illustrated lecture on the Philippines will be given on Saturday afternoon in the gymnasium by Mr. Dela Roma of the Philippine Commission, New York City. Mr. Dela Roma will be accompanied by the father of one of the Lasell girls, Mr. James J. Rafferty, who is the chief of the Philippine Bureau of Commerce.

HUNNEWELL CLUB

The Hunnewell Club is planning a program of unusual interest this winter. Several successful evenings have already been held.

On Armistice night, the men held a smoker at which Miss Molly Mildrum of Boston gave some delightful monologues and impersonations. About a hundred were present.

On Monday night Mr. Fred H. Loveland's team won three points at bowling from the club team, and Mr. Ralph W. Angier's team won 2 out of 3 points from Mr. Mason H. Stone's team.

Tuesday evening, a unique entertainment was held at the club house when the Daniels Comedy Co. of Boston impersonated a "Cotter's Saturday Night."

The actors pictured the simple, every-day life of the cotter. As the curtain rang up, the housewife was seen spreading the table for the simple frugal supper, singing as she worked.

"John Anderson, my Jo." Soon the lassie enters, and while helping her mother tells her of the Laird's son, who is coming to see her, "the night."

In a moment, the father and Tammas, a neighbor, enter. They laugh and joke together with a naturalness which is very convincing. The son, and the Laird's son also join the little group around the table. After supper, there was singing of the well-known Scottish songs, the voices blending in perfect harmony.

Scottish humor is admirably brought out in the "wee Doctor's predicament" told in an inimitable way by John aided by Tammas. As the evening wears on, the two old men retire to one side for a game of checkers, leaving the young people to their love making. Finally, however, the father returns, and gathering his family around him opens the Word of God and reads from its sacred pages. Then all sing a psalm. So closes the evening.

This simple, beautiful picture of Scottish life was admirably done on the part of all of the actors. The spectator felt that he had known a real Scottish family, and caught a glimpse of the sterling qualities for which the Scottish people have ever been famous.

The singing, too, was excellent. The patriotic songs were sung with great vigor, and the love songs with unusual tenderness. Altogether the evening was one which will not soon be forgotten.

The club is to have special bowling on Saturday with turkey as a prize for the three highest strings. Next Tuesday evening there is to be a dance which no member of the club should miss. Bowers' orchestra will furnish the music.

On Thanksgiving Day the club will keep open house all day and evening, with special prizes for bowling. The club team lost three points against Arlington in the Newton bowling match Wednesday night.

LODGES

Sumner P. Lawrence Robekah Lodge will give a dance tonight at Odd Fellows Hall, Newtonville.

CLASSICAL HIGH SCHOOL

Miss Bessie Talbot Salmon, of Newton Highlands, a graduate of Newton High School in 1902, entertained the three upper classes in the assembly hall on Wednesday morning, with various French songs. Miss Salmon was recently in France, where, during the three years of her visit, she studied both the French language and the French folk song. Mr. Winter, an accomplished pianist, was her accompanist.

In order that pupils might catch the train that leaves Newtonville at 2.34, for Riverside, Mr. Adams has fixed the time for dismissal at 2.26, instead of at 2.30. The extra two minutes are accounted for by shortening each lunch period two minutes.

Last Saturday at Clafin Field, before a crowd of 6,000, Newton High defeated Waltham High in the annual football game. Capt. "Bob" Garrity, scored the two touchdowns and "Herb" Garrity kicked the two goals, making the score 14 to 0. Similar to the Malden game, neither team scored during the first half. However, after Coach Dickinson finished with the boys, at the interval between the first and second half the team was or seemed to be completely changed. Gain after gain followed and by a clever triple forward pass the ball was put over for the first goal. "Herb" Garrity played a wonderful game, despite the fact that he had broken a finger during the first half of the game.

The editor of the "Review" has received the proofs of the November issue and announces that the magazine will be ready for distribution early next week.

The freshman class is to hold a dance in the school gymnasium on Friday, Nov. 19. Two weeks from this date, on Dec. 3, the junior class will hold a junior prom.

Thirty pupils have applied for admission to the mandolin club, which promises to be a most active organization. Mr. Mergandohi announces that there are 26 mandolins, 1 piano, 1 cello and 1 banjo in the assembly.

Manager Ball, of the track team, announces that several assistant managers are wanted. Kindly apply to Ball at room 24.

EDITORIAL

The most surprising thing in connection with the present movement to place the finances of the Newton Hospital upon a sound business basis, is the fact that it has never been attempted before. This speaks volumes for the concentration of its management on the service end of the Hospital and, in a great measure shows the reason for its rapid growth and present high standing in the community. As a matter of fact, every resident of Newton ought to treat the Hospital as he treats his fire insurance—as a necessary protection to himself and family. Just as the Fire Department stands ready for instant service in case of fire, so stands the Newton Hospital, ready for service in case of accident and disease. Every householder in Newton ought to allow a regular sum of money in his annual household budget for the Newton Hospital, as he does for his fire, life and accident insurance.

The High School Athletic council are most conservative in refusing to allow the High School football team to play a post-season game with Haverhill High. The boys have done such excellent work this fall that it seems a pity not to allow them to match their brawn and brain against the best team outside the Suburban League. Have a heart gentlemen and allow the game to be played.

We hope there will be some public interest in the project of taking for municipal purposes the triangle of land bounded by Commonwealth avenue, Walnut and Homer streets, which will be given a hearing next Monday night at City Hall.

On account of the pressure on our space this week several interesting articles including an account of the Eliot Men's Club on Wednesday night, the Bible Plattsburg, and others are crowded over until next week.

COMMONWEALTH COUNTRY CLUB

A The Dancers will be given at the clubhouse, Saturday afternoon, November 27, 1920, from 3.30 to 6.00 o'clock. The hostesses are Mrs. Harry H. Beckwith, Mrs. Payson T. Lowell, and Mrs. Flora E. Shepard.

A Thanksgiving Dinner Dance will be given at the clubhouse Thanksgiving evening. Many Newton ladies are among the patronesses for the lectures to be given by Mrs. J. W. Ferguson Kennedy (Barbara Bradford) on Events of the Day and Modern Drama and Dramatists. These lectures are to be given in aid of the Fatherless Children of France and the first will take place Monday afternoon, November 22, 1920, at 3 o'clock.

DEATH OF DR. MARTIN

Rev. Dr. George E. Martin of Hancock street, Auburndale, a retired Presbyterian clergyman, was stricken with paralysis while occupying the pulpit of the Fairhaven Church last Sunday morning. Dr. Martin was able to finish his sermon and was then taken to the home of Mr. Galen W. Hill in Fairhaven where he died on Monday.

Dr. Martin was a native of Norwich, Conn., and was graduated from Yale in 1872. For a few years he was in the music business with his father in New Haven. He then entered the Yale Divinity School and while there his Sundays were given to one of the leading churches where he was organist and choir director.

He was ordained to the ministry in 1879 and his first pastorate was at Brattleboro, Vt., where he remained for five years. Accepting a call to Brockton, he was established there only a short time when he received a call to the old First Presbyterian Church at St. Louis, the oldest Protestant church west of the Mississippi. There he remained for fourteen years. Returning East, Dr. Martin became pastor of the Holland Memorial Church in Philadelphia, but after three years his health failed and he relinquished active parochial work for a time, though later he accepted a call to Lowell, where at the Kirk Street Church he was pastor for seven years. After a three years' pastorate in Lexington Dr. Martin retired from active work and came to Auburndale.

During the war he took charge of the church at Fairhaven, in the absence in Europe of the regular pastor, and upon the resignation of this minister a short time ago, Dr. Martin was asked to return until a permanent pastor could be found.

Dr. Martin was a direct descendant of Stephen Hopkins, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. He is survived by a widow, who was Miss Emily Herrick, daughter of the late Rev. James Herrick of India.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon in the Auburndale Congregational Church, with two clergymen officiating. They were the present pastor of the parish, Rev. E. P. Drew, and a former pastor, Rev. William C. Gordon, D. D. of Ware. The church quartet sang "For All the Saints," and "Still, Still With Thee," while Arthur Spaulding of Lowell, a former organist of the church, played hymns that were favorites of Dr. Martin's. The pallbearers included Frank F. Davidson, Dr. Amos R. Wells and Chauncey B. Conn, all of Auburndale, and William B. Marshall of Everett. The body was buried at Norwich, Conn.

N. H. S.

Newton High School Athletic Committee has voted to close its football season on Thanksgiving Day morning with Brookline High, when the final game of the Suburban League series will be played at Clafin Field, Newtonville.

Captain Alfred W. Dickinson and the members of the Newton High team wanted to play Haverhill High in a post-season game on the Saturday after Thanksgiving, but the contest is now out of the question.

Bigelow School

The plans for partially flooding the new Burr Playground are under way and all that is needed now is cold weather. There will be a rink for hockey.

Some playground balls and ring-toss outfits have been supplied to the Lower Grades from the money secured from the Newton Elementary School Field Day of last June.

Miss Coyle's fourth grade enjoyed a trip to the Purity Ice Plant Friday. It was harvesting day and the process of making and cutting the ice was intensely interesting.

NEWTON GIRLS' CLUB

The Newton Girls' Club will send Mrs. Eleanor Bradley Berrio, its president, and the Misses Louise Lovett, Sara C. Schleeter, Mary Delaney, Margaret Womboldt, Anna Morrison, Vice President, Goldie Shrier, Anna Oliphant, Josephine Miskella, and Mary Miskella as delegates to the second state meeting of the Mass. League of Girls' Clubs, to be held in Boston on Nov. 27th.

HOSPITAL FINANCES

he turned over to the city and suggested a trial of the war chest plan to include the Hospital, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and other similar organizations.

Remarks were also made by Hon. George H. Ellis, Hon. Seward W. Jones, William B. Baker, Henry D. Lloyd, Arthur C. Dunmore, Charles E. Kelsey and Frank W. Remick.

A favorable vote was taken on Mr. Rogers suggestion and the following gentlemen were appointed to call the various village conferences at which members of the executive committee were to be selected.—Alderman W. J. Spaulding, Auburndale, Representative Bernard Early, Lower Falls, Arthur C. Dunmore, West Newton, W. Hermon Allen, Newtonville, Ralph W. Angier, Newton, W. P. Underhill, Chestnut Hill, Gen. J. G. White, Newton Centre, Hon. S. W. Jones, Newton Highlands, George M. Angier, Waban, Herbert E. Locke, Upper Falls and James W. Spring, Oak Hill.

During the week conferences have been held in the various villages and the following gentlemen have been selected as members of the executive committee:

Auburndale, W. J. Spaulding; Waban, Gifford LeClear; Highlands, A. H. Elder; Newton Centre, Henry H. Kendall; West Newton, John A. Newton; Newton, Henry I. Harriman; Newtonville, Rupert C. Thompson; Newton Lower Falls, Rev. A. J. Straight.

These gentlemen have chosen the following officers: President, Leon B. Rogers; Secretary, Edward W. Pride; Treasurer, Frank L. Richardson.

The following extracts are from a letter which has been sent to every church in the city.

"In the past, through Hospital Sunday, the churches of the city have been the best friends of the hospital, but the funds raised through this and similar means have not, for some years, met the increasing current expenses and provided new equipment necessary.

"We will deliver to you a statement of the financial condition of the Hospital, of the service it has rendered, and of some of its most urgent needs, and we ask you on Hospital Sunday this year, Nov. 21, to take a few moments to present and explain to your people what this institution stands for in this city and that it is proposed to put into operation in the near future, a new plan for financing.

"We shall still depend for the publicity work, largely upon the churches but the unhappy features of an annual drive will be replaced by a more business-like plan. We are very anxious that the Hospital Sunday should still be a feature of our city life and shall try to have the clergy of the city co-operate with the Association every year in keeping the good work of the Hospital before the citizens and urging new-comers to become members.

"At Thanksgiving time especially, it is well for all of us in this particular way to thank God for the good gift of health in our household or if sickness has been our portion, to express our gratitude for the benefits of medical care and the nurses' skill and tenderness which has lightened the load of suffering for ourselves and for those dear to us."

DEATH OF MRS. BOSTOCK

Mrs. Sara M. Bostock, who died on Tuesday at her home at 206 Sumner street, in Newton Centre, was the widow of Joshua T. Bostock and the daughter of Lucius and Maria (Westcott) Dwinell, who were of Springfield. Mrs. Bostock was born seventy-one years ago in Tolland, Conn., but went, while young, from there to Springfield, with her parents. She lived there up to her marriage to Mr. Bostock, who long was connected with the railroad business. After their marriage their home was for a time in Milford, and later in Palmer, after which they lived for some time in Alabama, and on returning North made their home in Warren. They moved to Newton Centre about ten or twelve years ago. Mr. Bostock died four years ago. Surviving Mrs. Bostock is a daughter, Ethel Bostock Svensen, of Newton Centre, and there is a stepdaughter, Lillian D. Bostock, the daughter of Mr. Bostock by a previous marriage. Mrs. Bostock leaves also two sisters, Miss Nellie E. Dwinell and Miss Mary J. Dwinell, both of Newton Centre, and a brother, Charles L. Dwinell, of Indianapolis, Ind.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon.

CHANNING ALLIANCE

Rev. Edward Cummings in his address before Channing Alliance on Tuesday afternoon took his audience out of themselves and gave them a view of world conditions during and since the war as they might appear to the eyes of delegates arriving by ether plane from planet Mars. These delegates sent by the International Council of that planet were to discover the two greatest hindrances and the two greatest helps to civilization. Mr. Eastman arriving upon the Eastern Hemisphere and traveling west found them to be patriotism and religion, while his associate arriving upon the Western Hemisphere and traveling eastward gathered sufficient data to warrant his assertion that these same factors, patriotism and religion, are the greatest helps. The address was full of trenchant wit and inspiring optimism and was listened to with close attention. A social hour closed a most profitable afternoon.

APPOINTMENT TO ANNAPOLIS

For the purpose of filling a vacancy at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland, occurring in June, 1921, arrangements have been made to conduct a preliminary competitive examination of candidates from the 13th Massachusetts Congressional District under the direction of the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Custom House Tower, Boston, Mass., at 9 A. M., Saturday, December 11, 1920. Examination will be open to all bona fide residents of the 13th Mass. Congressional District who are citizens of the United States, not less than sixteen years of age nor more than twenty years of age on April 1, 1921.

Anyone desiring to take the examination should write to Congressman Robert Luce, 238 House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

POLICE NOTES

In court, Monday, James Dow, a negro, was given a sentence of three months in the House of Correction on a charge of operating an automobile under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Sunday night Dow went through West Newton at a high rate of speed in a large touring car. His car struck that of Russell Johansen of Newton who appeared in the court as a witness. Officers Murphy, Feely and Gaquin pursued Dow and arrested him. He said in the court that he had had a few drinks and that he "couldn't stand whisky." He appealed and was held in $500.

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

"Drives, drives, nothing but drives," is the utterance of many a person in these days, as one drive follows another in quick succession. Yes, there are many drives and many demands upon the public purse, foisted upon an unsuspecting public, so say the aforesaid. But what of the other side of the shield? Does anyone suppose that the promoters of these drives really enjoy the process? Do they give up countless hours, days, weeks, months, to obtain their respective quotas merely for the fun of it? Not by a good deal, anyone who has any responsibility for them will tell you, for of all nerve wracking and body wearying processes, there is little to be compared with them. But they have become an absolute necessity, if the organizations behind them are to continue existence. Do we want our Hospital, for instance, to cease its ministrations to the sick? Do we want our other welfare societies to close their doors, so long as there remain those who cannot exist without their aid? Do we want the Red Cross to stop its activities, the greatest Mother of all the World—who was weighed and not found wanting in our recent great struggle? Do we want our colleges to close their doors? This is what it will mean, if their Endowments are not increased. Business men more and more are looking to the college men and women to do their work. Is it not up to them, as well as to the alumni, to see that the supply meets the demand? No, none of us like the drives, but they seem the only way at present devised to keep these institutions afloat. Hall, all hall, to the person who will invent a better one!

Local Happenings

Miss Amy M. Sacker in her talk before the Newton Community Club at its last meeting gave the large audience a most enlightening and entertaining account of her personal experiences as Art Director of the Moving Picture Studios in California during the war and let them into some of the secrets whereby different effects are produced. She explained many of the technical terms employed. In speaking of the scenery department she stated that a good play is essential to a picture's success, even more important than good acting. Prices paid for stories range from $150 to $22,000, an average price being $2,000. There are four requisites for a successful story—suspense, appeal, humor and contrast. The imagination of the director is responsible both for the good things which are produced, as well as for the poor or the coarse. There is a large army of workers employed in these studios comprised in a very large measure of young people who have gone to California in search of health and have drifted into the business. Everyone engaged receives "good money," even the animals are paid by the week, a dog receiving as much as $40.

The club sang "The Breaking Waves Dashed High," and led by the chorus, Elberg's "To Thee, O Country" and "America, the Beautiful." Miss Jessie M. Fisher reported the recent meeting of the State Federation at Dorchester.

At the meeting of the Citizenship class on Friday of last week Mrs. Claude U. Gilson gave an instructive talk upon "Taxes," making what might otherwise have been a very dull subject, most interesting. Today, Miss Margaret McGill closed the series of lessons with an explanation of "How Laws are Made."

The Bureau of Household Occupations was the subject uppermost at the meeting of the Newton Federation executive board on Monday morning. A special committee was voted to take the matter in charge. The manager is desirous to have it known that the Bureau is open mornings only and not at all on Saturday. The telephone number is Newton North 3480 and patrons are requested to call that number and not the Red Cross number. The number of workers is large, but as yet the opportunities for service are not up to the supply of workers.

The Education committee reported a meeting with Superintendent Wheeler when he had gone thoroughly over the problems confronting the school authorities, particularly the crowded conditions. He stated that eight portables are now in use. A survey of conditions is soon to be made.

Mrs. Cella Wellman, assistant probation officer, reported upon the experiment of Sunday sports last summer and stated that while everything was not wholly satisfactory, taken all in all she felt that the results had been very good and that there are fewer boys under probation this fall.

After the business meeting of the Waban Woman's Club held on Monday afternoon at the Neighborhood Club House, Mr. Huyman Buitekan delighted his audience by his rendering of three selections on the piano. The speaker of the afternoon, Dr. M. H. Lichter, was then introduced by the president, Mrs. Dana M. Dutch. Dr. Lichter's subject, "The Vaudeville Mind," proved most absorbing. With his usual magnetism and sincerity he held the attention of his audience to the last word. After analyzing this Vaudeville Mind, with its emphasis on impression rather than expression, and its fragmentary culture, he made a stirring plea for a broad understanding and a wholesome spirit to combat it and called on all women's clubs to do their share in this great work.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Hector Holmes, Mrs. Karl Heinzen and Mrs. Clarence A. Sawyer. A delightful social half-hour followed.

FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

The Trustees of the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children have lately purchased the Bigelow Estate at Oak Hill, Newton Centre. Work on the new substantial brick building, on the site of the former Turner studios, is now in process and will be completed in June, 1921. The location is unsurpassed for the Sun Treatment of Surgical Tuberculosis. This Home was pioneer in establishing the Sun Treatment as carried on in Switzerland. There will be rooms for three grades of school children and for industrial work, where the children are taught sewing, basketry, wood-working, and cane-seating. There is also a perfectly equipped surgical room, where the After Treatment of Infantile Paralysis is carried on.

A Bazaar is to be held at the Conley-Plaza on Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 1st and 2nd; the proceeds to furnish the new building. Articles or money for the Bazaar will be greatly appreciated and may be sent on or before Nov. 25th to Mrs. John Codman, 646 Chestnut street, Waban, Mass., or to the Treasurer of the Home, Mrs. E. B. Kellogg, 554 Beacon street, Boston.

Among the Newton friends that have been interested since the organization of the Home are Mrs. John W. Carter, Mrs. Edwin P. Brown, Mrs. Nicholas Richardson and Mrs. G. Fred Simpson.

NEWTON CHORAL SOCIETY

The date for the Fall Concert of the Newton Choral Society has been set for early in December. A large number of good singers have enrolled, and though more men are still needed for the tenor and bass parts, the chorus is progressing rapidly at its weekly rehearsals. Among the songs that are to be rendered are: Hadley's "Song of the Marching Men"; Elgar's "Spanish Serenade"; Bach's Choral, "Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light"; and "Deep River," a Negro melody.

WEST NEWTON MUSIC SCHOOL.

Through a mistake at the printing office, some of the West Newton Music School circulars have several pages of matter not relating to the school inserted, while a like number of pages of our own matter is omitted. Anyone receiving one of these imperfect copies would confer a favor to the school by notifying the secretary, Miss Chidsey, and allowing us to mail them a perfect copy.

Under the auspices of the Stearns School Centre, the West Newton Music School is giving a concert on Sunday, Nov. 21, at 3.30 at the home of Mrs. Eben H. Ellison, 48 Sargent street, Newton. The concert is for the benefit of the Stearns School Branch of the Music School.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Nellie T. Barry to The Buttrick Lumber Corporation, dated October 23, 1917, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 4171, Page 142, for breach of the condition thereof will be sold at public auction upon the premises on Tuesday, the seventh day of December, 1920, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, the said premises being described in said mortgage as follows:

The land in Newton, County of Middlesex, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts with the buildings thereon, situated on the Easterly side of Craft Street, bounded and described as follows:—

Beginning at a point on the Easterly line of said Craft Street at land formerly of Leary two hundred thirty-six and 34/100 (236.34) feet to land now or late of Cephas H. Brackett; thence turning at a right angle and running southeasterly one hundred fifty-eight and 50/100 (158.5) feet by said Brackett land; thence turning at a right angle and running southeasterly still by said Brackett land one hundred fifty-one and 32/100 (151.32) feet to said Craft Street; thence turning and running northeasterly one hundred seventy-nine and 98/100 (179.98) feet by said Craft Street, to the point of beginning.

Being the same premises conveyed to Charles A. Harrington by Henry F. Ross by deed recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Libro 2381, folio 1. Also conveying all the interest of this grantor in the right of way described in a deed from Cephas H. Brackett, dated July 26, 1897, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Libro 2582 folio 296. Intending hereby to convey the premises described in a deed from Charles A. Harrington to the Buttrick Lumber Corporation, dated April 13, 1903, and recorded in Middlesex South District Deeds, Libro 3034, folio 240. These premises are conveyed subject to taxes assessed in the year 1917 and to all incumbrances of record.

Also the following described personal property: one gray mare; two single wagons; two single sleds; two single harnesses; together with blankets, horse and stable equipment; one ticket register; one safe; one roll top desk; one up-right desk; together with chairs and other office supply and equipment; one so-called "Harrington Hoist" ropes and tools; intending hereby to convey all of the office, yard and stable equipment this day bought by me of the Buttrick Lumber Corporation, whether or not specifically described therein. It is also agreed that this grantor shall replace any item of personal property which may be lost, worn out or sold with similar property of equal value, which shall immediately come within this mortgage.

In the covenant of said mortgage it is stated that said premises are subject to a mortgage of $4000 on the real estate. Said premises will be sold subject to taxes, municipal liens and other encumbrances of record if any such exist.

THE BUTTRICK LUMBER CORPORATION,

LAND COURT.

To George F. Richardson, Jr., and George F. Richardson, of Newton, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth; James W. Burke, of Boston, in the County of Suffolk and said Commonwealth; Trustees under the will of Samuel D. Garey, late of said Newton, deceased; Augusta A. Hutchins, of Sanbornville, in the State of New Hampshire; and to all whom it may concern:

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court by Gertrude M. Rand, of said Newton, to register and confirm her title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land situate in said Newton bounded and described as follows:

Northerly on Marshall Street; Easterly by land of George F. Richardson, Jr.; Southerly by other land of Gertrude M. Rand, formerly of Waldron H. Rand, Jr., Trustee, and Westerly by land of said George F. Richardson, Jr. The above described land is shown on a plan filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

You are hereby cited to appear at the Land Court to be held at Boston, in the County of Suffolk, on the sixth day of December A. D. 1920, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. And unless you appear at said Court at the time and place aforesaid your default will be recorded, and the said petition will be taken as confessed, and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness, Charles Thornton Davis, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this fifth day of November in the year nineteen hundred and twenty.

Attest with Seal of said Court.

A PORTFOLIO FOR MR. WEEKS

Because Mr. Weeks graduated from Annapolis in the class of 1881 and with the rank of captain commanded the Massachusetts Naval Brigade in the war with Spain, many Cabinet makers have assumed that he would be the next Secretary of the Navy. They ignore the many changes that have taken place at Annapolis and in the Navy in the last forty years; they overlook the fact that many of the classmates of Mr. Weeks are still on the active list as admirals and captains. In the wake of the Josephine joy-ride there must come reorganization before recuperation can set in. At best this is a difficult job. For Mr. Weeks it would also be a job so delicate in its embarrassments by reason of his early affiliations with, and abiding friendships in, the Navy that his reluctance to assume the portfolio could only be regarded as reasonable and to his credit.

Furthermore, Mr. Weeks did not follow the sea as a profession, but early entered the world of business and banking. His committee work in both houses of Congress was divided between solving problems having to do with banking and currency, the postal service and military affairs. He broke away from his party in the Senate to vote for the Federal Reserve bill and took a prominent part in the framing of that legislation. His service on a joint committee which recommended important legislation in relation to postal affairs gave him a keen insight into the operation of the Post Office Department, and one of the most creditable chapters of his senatorial service was written as a member of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, where he sustained the Democratic chairman, Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, in his patriotic application of the probe into the affairs of our Bakerized War Department in the memorable efforts of the legislative branch of the Government to speed up the preparations for prosecution of the war.

As Secretary of the Treasury, as Secretary of War, or as Postmaster General, Mr. Weeks would bring to his department a broad business experience and a wealth of information obtained first as a member of Congress and later as a senator, whose most valuable service in the two houses was rendered as a member of the committees on Post Office and Post Roads, Banking and Currency and Military Affairs.—Boston Transcript.

K. OF C. CLUBHOUSE

Much interest has been caused by the purchase by the Newton Council, K. of C., of the old Mitchell estate on Walnut street, Newtonville, for a clubhouse. The council has been growing rapidly in the last year, hundreds of the younger men of the city having joined, and for a long time vigorous campaigns have been carried on to increase the council building fund to an amount sufficient to start a home. The Mitchell house is a large building, close to the business center of Newtonville.

Plans have been drawn for the renovation of the interior of the building and work has begun on the decorating and other improvements. In a few weeks the council expect to have an opening night when the new home will be thrown open to inspection.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY

Children's Book Week—Nov. 15-20

There is a nation wide campaign to interest everyone in Children's Books. The librarians and book-sellers throughout the country are bringing to your attention books that will interest children of all ages and tastes.

The Newton Free Library, with the timely and helpful assistance of Newton merchants who have kindly loaned window space, has displays of children's books and pictures in store windows in nine Newton Villages. Look for the display in your village. It will be in a central location. You will get good suggestions for gift books for the children's Christmas.

Do you know what the Newton Library is doing for the children, parents, and teachers in Newton? There is an attractive Children's Room at the Library in Newton and a Children's Corner in each of the Branch Libraries. There are books for all children from the tiny tots to the older boys and girls.

Parents and teachers will be interested in the Mother's Shelf, a collection of picture books and attractive editions of books that mothers will enjoy taking home to read to their boys and girls. One of the mothers who makes use of this collection said she couldn't get along without these books and wished that all Newton mothers might know about them. See the Mother's Shelf at the Children's Room of the Main Library.

Some of the books in this collection are:—

Hope Dunlap, illustrator—
Browning: Pied piper of Hamelin (JYP.B821ph)
Mulock: Little lame prince
Maria L. Kirk, illustrator—
Chaucer: Story of the Canterbury Pilgrims (JYP.C393sd)
Longfellow: Story of Hiawatha Molesworth: Cuckoo clock.
Sprey: Heidi.
Arthur Rackham, illustrator—
Cinderella (JYL.C49r)
Dickens: Christmas carol.
Grimm: Little brother and sister (JYL.G881)
Lamb: Tales from Shakespeare (JY.S11)

E. Poyd Smith, illustrator—
Chicken world.
Railroad book.
Defoe: Robinson Crusoe.

Jessie Wilcox Smith, illustrator—
Jessie Wilcox Smith's Mother Goose.
Stevenson: Child's garden of verses (JYP.S84c)

'Twas the night before Christmas (JYP.M781)
Underwood: When Christmas comes around.

Milo Winter, illustrator—Andersen's fairy tales.
Hawthorne: Tanglewood tales.
Hawthorne: Wonderbook.

N. C. Wyeth, illustrator—
Cooper: Last of the Mohicans.
Malory: Boy's King Arthur (JYL.A5.M29)

Now that the Pilgrim Tercentenary is uppermost in people's minds you will be interested to find a collection of Pilgrim books and Pilgrim pictures in the Newton Library.

Make it a point to visit the Children's Room of the Newton Free Library during the Children's Book Week.

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE CENTENNIAL

There will be a Florence Nightingale Centennial Celebration by the Middlesex County Branch of the Massachusetts State Nurses' Association, assisted by the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross, in Bray Hall, Newton Centre, Saturday, November 20, 1920, at 8 o'clock P. M.

There will be music, appropriate addresses and motion pictures entitled, "Following in the Footsteps of Florence Nightingale."

All are not only cordially invited, but earnestly urged to attend this celebration for commemorating the life and work of the founder of modern nursing, as well as for arousing the enthusiasm so much needed if the Red Cross, the U. S. Public Health Service, the community, the hospitals of the country and other agencies for the care of the sick are to be able to meet the constantly increasing demands made upon them.

LEARN TO RIDE A HORSE

The outside of a horse is a rare health tonic within easy reach; it takes you into the fresh air and sunshine, tones up your entire system and adds years to your life. It builds up the anemic and reduces the fleshy. Horseback riding is a fine accomplishment and greatest of outdoor sports. For the beginner—man, woman or child—learn to ride. Your lessons include delightful rides through bridle paths, parks and woods. Horses and equipment to rent for riding or driving to experienced, responsible persons. Horses boarded, cared for and exercised.

You never waste heat that is produced right on the spot

YOU would certainly consider it a great waste to keep a light burning in every room of your house. It is even more wasteful to keep the whole house at the same temperature all the time. Housekeepers everywhere are discovering that there is a proper use for general heat and a proper use for local heat—produced on the spot.

General heat in all parts of the house and local heat from a Perfection Oil Heater—where you need extra, comfort-point warmth.

Keep warm and keep well

It is almost impossible to keep the cozy spots safe and comfortable with general heat. Drafts will come in through window sashes and door jams.

The Perfection goes anywhere and gives you the full benefit of its fresh, direct heat whenever you need it. Easy to light, convenient, clean and attractive—the Perfection is a necessity and ornament in every house. Burns about 10 hours on a gallon of kerosene.

Leading hardware, housefurnishing and department stores sell the Perfection Oil Heater. Your dealer will explain its simplicity and many advantages to you. Look at one today.

For best results use Socony Kerosene.

during which tea and sandwiches were served.

The Woman's Club of Newton Upper Falls appropriated $25 to the work of the Newton Hospital Social Service League at its meeting on Monday evening. Mrs. Celia Wellman spoke briefly of the results of the experiment of Sunday sports during the past summer. Mr. J. L. Harbort entertained the members delightfully with his lecture, "Blessed Be Humor," and his wish that, if any had come with a grouch, they should go home with a smile, was certainly fulfilled.

On Tuesday morning the Auburn Review Club had a very full, but intensely interesting program. Mrs. William I. Lawrence gave a graphic account of the Concord School of Philosophy. Mrs. Amos R. Wells presented an able paper on the life and work of American Historians and Mrs. Edward Payson Drew on the Orators, among whom she classed many of the ministers of their days, including Henry Ward Beecher.

A very large audience comprised fully half of children was fascinated by Ernest Harold Baynes' lecture upon "My Wild Animal Neighbors." Mr. Baynes told of his own successful attempts to domesticate certain animals usually considered impossible to tame. His talk was illustrated by slides showing these creatures as he had been able to "shoot" them with the camera. Violin solos with piano accompaniment were rendered by members of the West Newton Music School.

The Social Science Club deviated from its usual course of study by a consideration of Modern American Poetry at its meeting on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Charles B. Gleason discussed the work of Vachel Lindsay and of Robert Frost, as well as the modern tendency of free verse and the attitude of the public toward it. She also read Mrs. Joseph N. Damon's paper on Amy Lowell and Edward Arlington Robinson. The members found the papers of more than ordinary interest and entered into the discussion afterwards.

NEWTON FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

The Menace to our National Parks This menace cannot be exaggerated, and so many questions have come to the Conservation chairman concerning the situation and exactly what the clubs and women generally can do about it that it seems worth while to make an explicit, authentic, up-to-date statement.

National Forests and National Parks Much confusion arises from the failure to distinguish between these two groups of public lands, the respective purposes for which they were set apart, and the consequent difference in policy governing their use and management.

1. National Forests were set apart, protected, developed, and utilized under Federal control primarily for economic reasons. Irrigation, water power, lumbering, agriculture on suitable land, and hunting,—all are permitted and encouraged under Government regulation and supervision in National Forests, but not allowed in National Parks. The main purpose of National Forests, in other words, is to secure the permanent use, development, and increase of the natural resources within their limits. Recreational and scenic values are secondary.

2. The purpose of the National Parks and Monuments, on the other hand, is "to preserve forever untouched in their original condition certain few, small, widely separated examples of the American wilderness of the pioneer; of the works and processes of Nature, unblemished by the hand of man; of our native wild animals living natural lives in the natural homes of their ancestors"; together with scientific and historic records and remains of untold value. These treasures do now and always should belong to all the people, West and East, for study, enjoyment, and recreation. They include marvelous waterfalls, lakes, rivers, canyons, and waters; unique and ancient tree growth; active and extinct volcanoes; the ruins of prehistoric civilizations, such as the cliff dwellings of Mesa Verde; priceless records of natural phenomena; veritable paradises for trapping and camping; and much else of historic, scientific, scenic, and recreational value. These Parks are native, irreplaceable museums. There are no others like them in the world.

There are now two specific dangers imminently threatening these invaluable assets to our country:

1.—The Federal Water Power Act passed by Congress last June created a Water Power Commission, consisting of the Secretaries of War, Agriculture, and the Interior, with authority to lease all public waters, including those in the hitherto inviolable National Parks and Monuments.

2.—The Smith Bill (H. R. 12,466) which passed the Senate and remains pending before the House with a favorable committee report. This bill permits irrigation reservoirs in the Falls River Basin of Yellowstone Park. Other proposed bills plan the damming of Yellowstone Lake, with a tunnel through the mountains for irrigation, and the invasion of other Parks for power and irrigation. It is true that the present Water Power Commission has voted to grant no license for such purposes in any National Park or Monument. But the personnel of the Commission is subject to change and great influence may be exerted for the appointment of Secretaries favorable to commercial exploitation of the Parks.

Now do we want the beauty and value of our Parks and Monuments virtually spoiled for the people by dams, power houses, transmission lines, irrigation plants and reservoirs, canals, ditches, pipe lines, and all the rest? Do we want Yellowstone Lake dammed and the water drawn off from the wonderful Yellowstone Falls and River to the detriment of perhaps the most beautiful canyon in the world? And we must remember that the granting of one such project opens the door and establishes the precedent for exploitation of any and all of the National Parks.

If such destruction were absolutely required for a needy, hungry world there might be valid reasons against holding these areas intact. But at present there are two unanswerable arguments against this invasion.

1.—These same waters can be impounded and utilized for power and irrigation with less expense to the Government and equal usefulness to the people outside Park limits.

2.—There are millions of acres of idle agricultural and forest land the country over, lying ready for reclamation or restoration and cultivation at vastly less expenditure of labor and capital than that involved in these proposed bills.

What To Do

HOOD'S GRADE "A" MILK
Is Guaranteed

Less Than 10,000 Bacteria per C. C.

Science has found that the measure of the cleanliness of milk is the number of bacteria it contains. Milk that is properly produced and handled has but few bacteria. The Board of Health regulations allow 500,000 bacteria per c. c. in Milk.

Hood's Grade "A" Milk is guaranteed to contain less than 10,000 bacteria per c. c. This is fifty times cleaner than the law requires. This high standard is guaranteed upon the outer seal of every bottle of Hood's Grade "A" Milk.

UNION MEETING

Men's Clubs of Five Newton Churches Hear Representative Young Speak

The several Men's Clubs in Newton were the guests last week Wednesday night at Eliot Church chapel of the Eliot Men's Club and fully 400 members of the Unitarian Club, the Men's clubs of the Methodist, Grace, and Immanuel churches were present.

President Louis D. Gibbs, of the Eliot Men's Club, was in charge and there was community singing under the leadership of Mr. Geo. Lincoln Parker, with Mr. Truette at the piano, solos, and duets by Messrs. J. Garfield Stone and W. H. Kidder and a piano solo by Mr. O. E. Story.

The principal speaker of the evening was Representative B. Loring Young of Weston, the next speaker of the house. Mr. Young made an interesting and most instructive informal talk. He began by saying that the male citizen had never fulfilled his obligations to the public in such a way as to elicit the admiration of the women and the way the women had voted at the last election had shown a far higher standard of interest than the men. In 1919, Mr. Young said that notwithstanding the interest in the police strike, out of 660,000 voters in the State only 530,000 went to the polls. He believed that the individual citizen was as much a public official as the men he elected to office. Our government is built on the back of the individual and the whole structure is unsound if he does not do his full duty. We cannot get out of anything more than we put into it and politics is not different from other things. In politics things don't "just happen." They are brought about by thought and work. The community should inform itself on public questions and keep in touch with its representatives in the nation, the State, and the city.

Mr. Young then told of the great benefit brought about by the introduction of the system, contrasting the difference which he had noted in his first year in the House, 1916, and that now in vogue. But he neglected to state that this important reform was largely due to his own efforts as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the House.

Your representatives, he reminded his audience, cannot be expected to give intensive study to the 3,000 matters before the Legislature, and they ought to be given all possible advice and assistance. He paid a flattering tribute to the part Newton had always taken in the Legislature and on the high standard of righteousness in civic affairs which were characteristic of Newton.

Mayor Childs, the other speaker, said that the man who went to church not only supported the best institution in the city, but set a good example to the young people of the whole city. In addition he had noticed that the man who worships is generally not only the best citizen, but he is also the man who is willing to give of his money and his work.

He spoke of the high tax rate, but said that just as it cost more to run the home, the church and the club, so it costs more nowadays to run a city. He then went on to tell of the work of the Assessors, showing how they were trying to get the right answer in the proper assessment of property and stating his belief that, as a whole, Newton real estate was under rather than over-assessed.

The city officials, he said, want your co-operation and need your help. They are your servants and while others may be able to do better, the present officials know the city and its needs.

He urged those present to help the city by supporting its activities, the hospital, the improvement societies, the charities and the work of Americanization.

At the conclusion of the speaking Mr. Gibbs opened the meeting for general discussion and Mr. B. M. Strohmaier brought up the matter of a light lunch for the pupils in the schools, saying that at present, pupils who pay 20 cents a week are given milk and crackers at the morning recess. There are 20 children in the Bigelow and 16 in the Underwood, who are unable to pay this small sum, which amounts to about $8 per school year per child, and which for the 36 children for the remainder of the school year would amount to $216. He brought up the matter at the suggestion of the Newton Community Club and had also brought along a milk bottle which he hoped would be filled with ideas.

Mr. Arthur Kendrick favored some action on this matter, but suggested that it ought to be the function of the school committee to provide such things for those who cannot pay for them.

Dr. Gleason said that you could not expect strong men and women from present school methods and he urged a physical examination of each child at stated periods through their school life.

President Gibbs refused to allow any contributions to be taken up as suggested by Mr. Strohmaier, but subsequently he appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. Strohmaier, Kendrick, and C. V. Moore, to carry the matter further if deemed desirable so to do.

Light refreshments and a social hour followed.

WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Newton High Football Team First in Suburban League

Newton High football team won the championship of the Suburban League yesterday when it defeated Brookline High at Clafin Field, Newtonville by the score of 13 to 0.

Brookline held Newton for the first half and for a time Newton's record was in danger, but the arrival of Bob Garrity on the field in the third period sealed Brookline's fate.

For two periods Newton held the ball safely in Brookline's territory, but despite clever passes and end runs Brookline's goal line was not in danger. Near the close of play in the third period with Newton on Brookline's 15-yard line Garrity went in and after a plunge for three yards went around Brookline's end for a touchdown.

Garrity, because of his weakened condition, was taken out immediately, but the fourth period found Newton again within striking distance. Again Garrity came in, and in a fierce plunge through Brookline's center went over for the second touchdown. Herb Garrity, who kicked the first goal, missed the second.

The slush and mud on the gridiron slowed up the play considerably all during the game, but the few hundred who witnessed the game were rewarded by seeing Brookline put up one of the best fights of the year against Newton.

POLITICAL NOTES

The Chairmen of the Republican committees of the different wards in the city of Newton met on Tuesday morning with Mrs. Henrietta H. Ames of Highland street to consider plans for the future. The speaker was Mr. James D. Tillinghast of Boston, and her subject, "The Work Next at Hand." In spite of the weather, there was a very good attendance. All who came received much inspiration from Mrs. Tillinghast's message.

Present indications show but two contests for aldermen at large at the coming city election on Dec. 14, one in Ward 1, where Mr. William S. Ball and Mr. Reuben Forknall are candidates, and one in Ward 4, where ex-alderman George M. Heathcote and Mr. Jesse W. Weinberg are candidates. Messrs. Harry B. Ross and Herbert B. Morse are announced candidates for ward aldermen in Ward 4, and Mr. Francis McGill may also file papers for this office.

HAS NEW HOME

Auburndale Club Purchases the Briggs Estate for Clubhouse

The Auburndale Club, organized to continue the fraternal spirit created by the Auburndale unit of the Newton Constabulary, has been hard at work the past few months to obtain a home of its own. Its efforts have been so successful that on Friday night, its members were invited to inspect the Briggs property, corner of Melrose and Ash street, which has been purchased by officers of the Club. About one hundred gentlemen were present and inspected the house from attic to cellar, each room being labelled to show its future use.

Dr. H. W. Godfrey, president of the Club told those present that bowling alleys were to be constructed in an extension of the cellar and plans were prepared for an auditorium with stage and anti rooms, accommodating 400 people.

The club now has 215 members and about $12,000 of the proposed $15,000 has already been pledged by 112 persons. Considerable work must be done and it is proposed that considerable of it will be done by club members.

Representative George P. Webster was then introduced and gave some interesting incidents concerning William J. Bryan, Theodore Roosevelt, and other notables he had met, together with some humorous stories of debates at the State House.

Mr. George P. Brophy then got busy and sold some more of the club bonds, so that $13,000 had been pledged before light refreshments were served as the conclusion of the affair.

WHERE EAST AND WEST MEET

At Central Church, Newtonville, on Friday, Dec. 3, at 8 P. M., there will be an illustrated lecture by Dr. George L. Cady, formerly of Dorchester, titled, "Where East and West Meet; Hawaii, the Beautiful." The pictures were taken by Dr. Cady during his recent visit to the islands, last summer. Dr. D. W. Hillis of Brooklyn, says, "the slides were the most beautiful and artistic ever shown in our lecture room." Dr. Conrad of Boston said: "Both lecture and views were not only enjoyed, but they were splendidly illuminating, both as to land and people." Come and enjoy this worthwhile evening. Lecture under the auspices of the Woman's Association. Tickets may be had from Mrs. A. E. Vose or Mrs. W. L. Vosburgh, 50c. adults, 35c. children under fifteen. Adv.

NO OPPOSITION

At City Hall Hearing on Taking Large Tract of Land for City Purposes

Considerable public interest was manifested Monday evening at the meeting of the aldermen in the proposition to take for municipal purposes, the land bounded by Commonwealth avenue, Homer and Walnut streets.

Alderman Clement, for the committee in charge, said that the matter had been under consideration for several years and had been recommended by the Mayor in his inaugural address. The city solicitor had found no legal objections to the taking and the assessors had stated that all the land within a mile of the proposed taking will increase sufficiently in value to meet the annual expenses entailed by its purchase. Within a half mile of this place, Mr. Clement said, was over $2,000,000 in taxable property. In addition the Planning Board was also emphatically in favor. The tract included over 10 acres with a valuation of $53,300. Mr. Henry Bally, chairman of the assessors, in response to questions stated that in his opinion there would be an increase in valuations in that vicinity of $400,000 to $500,000, which would yield enough taxes to offset the annual cost of $11,000 for carrying a loan of $100,000 and loss of present taxes from present valuation of the property. He placed the betterment as far east as Morseland avenue and west to Prince street.

Mr. A. S. White, secretary of the Newton Centre Improvement Society read the favorable action taken by the Executive Committee of that body. Mr. E. S. Drowne, brought the favorable action of the Newton Highlands Improvement Society. Mr. Harry D. Cabot, the favorable action of the Newtonville Improvement Society and Mr. Alfred E. Alvord spoke for the Planning Board. Mr. Herbert M. Cole said that the present development of that land was an eye sore and called attention to the fact that the annual cost of this improvement would be about 10 cents on the tax rate. Mr. Henry B. Day told of the Commonwealth avenue improvement of 25 years ago, saying that it was one of the best things the city had ever undertaken. Land which had been assessed for but 2 cents a foot was assessed for 10 cents a foot, and to say nothing of the buildings and personal property valuations. He understood that this proposed land was once the bed of Bulloughs pond and did not believe it was fit for any good development.

Mr. Geo. H. Ellis thought he lived too near the property to give an unbiased opinion, but he fully realized the disadvantages to the city from the present condition.

Mr. George Hutchinson, as president of the Newton Cemetery, said that the cemetery was having a rapid growth and would some day utilize the land it now owned at the corner of Walnut and Homer streets, but he also called attention to the fact that the Cemetery was almost a park in itself. The trustees were also considering a new entrance to the Cemetery from Commonwealth avenue about opposite Valentine street.

President Harriman was in the chair and Alderman Young was the only absentee.

A representative of the Edison Co. spoke in favor of its petitions for poles on Crescent street, Winthrop, and Perkins street, and Mr. E. W. Ogden spoke in favor of the two last-named streets. Dr. H. B. Chandler and Mr. J. E. Lincoln opposed poles on their side of Winthrop street.

On recommendation of the Mayor, appropriations were made to offset some small deficits in sewer construction, for additional money for the Water and Charity Departments, and $2,000 was voted to be used for a survey of the Newton schools.

The Street Commissioner reported the cost of work on Oak avenue as $4,929.40.

Petitions of the Edison Co. for relocation of pole on Holly road, for attachments on Duncklee street, for relocation of pole on Auburndale avenue, and for removal of poles on Beacon street, of Hugh E. Devine and Amos M. Leonard for renewal of auctioneer licenses, of the Telephone Co. for removal of pole on Parker street, of Wm. G. Thompson, Hammond street, and A. L. Gray, Warwick road, for private garages and of Jeffrey D. LeBlanc for soldiers' relief were granted. Other petitions were received from Isabella F. McFarlane for soldiers' relief, for a sewer in Mague avenue, and for the resurfacing of Oak street.

Leave to withdraw was granted on petitions for a sewer in Harold terrace, on Edison poles on Newell road on claim of S. A. Linnekin and related.

4% Fat

Fat is cream. Cream contains large amounts of those peculiar elements called "vitamines." Without vitamins children cannot grow, nor adults retain their strength.

You get some 19% more fat in Hood's Grade "A" Milk than the Massachusetts Standard requires. Because Hood's Grade "A" Milk is rich in fat, and is rich in vitamins, children should drink it to grow strong and healthy. Adults should drink it as health insurance. It is guaranteed by a firm with seventy-four years of service behind it. Take no chances with ordinary milk. Use Hood's Grade "A" Milk. It is endorsed by leading health authorities.

BIBLE PLATTSBURG

Interesting Meetings Held Recently in Newtonville

During the first three evenings of the Third Bible School Plattsburg, which has taken place during the past week at the Central Church, Newtonville, a special effort has been made to bring to the attention of thoughtful people the modern viewpoint in Sunday School progress and the broad aspects of religious education. Dr. Fergusson, General Secretary of the Massachusetts State Sunday School Association, spoke the first evening on "World-wide Religious Education through the organized Sunday School." He began by referring to the part which the American Sunday School has played in the development of new communities on the frontiers of our country. Sunday Schools have proved a mighty force, preceding the advance of the church as an organization into those communities. With equally significant results, the Sunday School can be carried to all parts of the world, as a most effective means of advancing the missionary pioneer front lines. It is for this purpose that the World's Sunday School Association exists and employs secretaries in the leading centers of missionary endeavor. During the past month of October, this Association has held in Tokyo, Japan, a World's Convention. A large convention hall was erected in Tokyo, most of the cost being borne by the Japanese people, the Emperor himself having contributed a large sum.

In our own country, the International Sunday School Association, which includes Canada as well as the United States, is the agency of united Sunday School work. This Association, Dr. Fergusson stated, has been the leader in all those movements and methods which have made for progress in the Sunday School world. The latest and perhaps most significant movement is that of summer training camps, conducted for two purposes; first, to train Association leaders; and second, to discover and develop Christian leadership among the young people themselves. These summer camps exist at Lake Geneva, Wis., and at Lake Winnepesaukee, N. H. The last named was established during the past summer and was attended by a number of persons from Norumbega District.

Below the International S. S. Association is the State Association, which serves as the agency to adapt and carry out the international program in the state. The State Association stands back of and works through the District Associations, of which the Norumbega District is one of 47 existing in Massachusetts, and one of the first to make progress in this field.

The District can reach the local schools by providing training for all teachers and leaders, and by stimulating in many ways the interest and progress of our Sunday Schools, to the end that they may become highly efficient church schools, taking their place in a real program of religious education for the childhood and youth of America.

But even good church schools are not sufficient, said the Rev. Mr. Hageman of Lynn on the second evening of the Plattsburg, to give a real education in religion. There must be week-day instruction, correlated with the public school system, but governed and financed by church people of a given community. Successful results along this line have been attained in many places. Sometimes a single church takes the initiative, having its children come to the church before or after school on certain week days. The more desirable plan, however, is for several churches to cooperate, asking that the children, upon request of the parents, be excused an hour from school on certain days. This makes the matter assume more importance and does not take the play-time of the children. Enrollment and regularity of attendance at these schools, as well as interest of the children and of the parents, have been highly gratifying. A movement to carry out this sort of thing in New York City is now on foot.

Mr. Hageman said further that the tendency of public school men has been to release the child even before the church has been prepared to accept the responsibility. This is because they recognize that the Bible and religion are essential to a complete education.

In order to show how the Norumbega District is meeting its responsibility in the field of religious education, Mr. Walter of Auburndale, President of the District Association, explained on the third evening of the Plattsburg, "Our own Ideals and Plans." He said that the Plattsburg itself was conceived in war times as a means of bringing intensive training to our Sunday School workers, whose task has been that of developing 10,000 spiritual reserves in this District.

The Norumbega District covers fifty-five schools, where over 1200 Sunday School teachers and officers are giving of their time and service. The officers of the District Association consider themselves only the machinery through which the united desires of all the schools are carried out. The activities undertaken are those which can be done successfully by community action.

The Annual District Convention, held last May, authorized the employment of a field or executive secretary on part time. This position is now held by Miss Lilliana Barker, of Waverly. Miss Barker spoke for a few minutes to the assembly, suggesting ways in which cooperation throughout the District might be made more effective and helpful to the various schools. She spoke especially about the Young People's Division activities, which the schools in the District are looking for as the next important step in District work. She said that we need, both for the local schools and for the District, a constructive program, which shall in due time build up the Young People's Division and provide such training in service and leadership that the problems of our Sunday Schools and of church leadership in general may more easily be solved.

NEWTON POST A. L.

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Newton post in Legion Hall, it was decided to submit to the members of the Post the question of increasing the amount of dues to three dollars. The committee voted in favor of the increase and final action will be taken at the next meeting by the members of the Post. Commander Weeks wants the name of every Newton veteran, who is still in hospitals so that at Christmas time the comrades of the sick men may remember them by sending gifts. Those who know of any men in the hospitals of the country who enlisted from Newton are requested to send the man's name and address to the Post. On Dec. 5 the Legion will hold a housewarming. Their new quarters are to be thrown open to the inspection of the members and their guests.

You, Too, Can Lower the Cost of Living
By Cutting the High Cost of Laundry

Get a GAINADAY

THE EASY WAY TO CLEAN CLOTHES

With a Gainaday Electric Washer-Wringer in your home, you can do all your washing without the dragging drudgery that every housewife dreads.

The Gainaday does away with the rubbing and hand-wringing—and SAVES THE CLOTHES!

Try the Gainaday in your own home. That's the best way. Then you'll realize what a blessing it is.

YOU CAN AFFORD A GAINADAY

Don't say "I can't afford a Gainaday." Get the facts.

The cost of electric current and the soap, starch and blueing amounts to only a few cents a week. Compare this with what the laundry charges to do your work—or what you pay a laundress if you are fortunate enough to get one.

Figure the saving. You'll find that a Gainaday pays for itself in a year. It really doesn't cost you a penny!

Two Weeks' Washing FREE!

Special Limited Offer for Edison Customers Only

An Opportunity for 100 Newton Housewives Offered by the Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston

Without placing you under any obligation whatever, we will put into your home immediately, for free trial on two washdays, a Gainaday washer.

At your convenience, an expert demonstrator will call and show you how easy and simple it is to wash the Gainaday way.

If you so desire, an entire week's washing will be done during his call.

Keep the Gainaday for another week's washing. After putting it to every test possible, if you feel that you can afford to do without this electrical laundress, we will remove the Gainaday without question, and thank you for the courtesy shown in considering our offer.

Remember that this unusual offer is just as you read it. There are no ifs, ands, or buts about it. We repeat—If you do not decide to keep the Gainaday, it will be removed without expense, coaxing or coercion. Your decision will be accepted as final.

If you are convinced that the Gainaday meets your needs in every respect, and that the actual saving in laundry expense more than equals its small cost, you can make it yours.—cash if you wish,—or by paying $10 down and the balance stretched over many months, in amounts so small you can actually meet them through the cash savings the Gainaday will make for you.

FIRST PAYMENT ONLY $10.

Call up our Newton store right away. The telephone is handy. Our number is Newton North 184 or 45. Just say, "Send me a Gainaday."

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

A few gleanings from the current number of the Federation Bulletin may be suggestive of the lines along which the departments are working this year:

"Good taste is good art. Simplicity is the keynote, the home maker is the keystone. A glance through the rooms of any home gives silent proof of the artistic sense of the woman who planned it. The Art Department presents the opportunity for each club to help members in this direction."

The Christmas seals for 1920 sold for the benefit of anti-tuberculosis work will bear the double-barred red cross with pointed ends. The emblem was adopted after careful study of the history and of the artistic merits of numerous designs and the committee was influenced in its decision because this emblem is furthest removed from any design having a religious significance, because it is also furthest removed from the well-known emblem used by the American Red Cross, and because it has already been associated in the public mind with the tuberculosis movement.

Early in December the Home Economics department will hold an all-day conference in Boston.

From the Music department comes the request to think upon the lines of work suggested last year, remembering the little word so often used—listen. It has been said, "There are few good listeners in the world as there are good performers." Let us be good listeners.

The Motherhood work (now a part of our Newton Playground work) is spreading, not only throughout the United States, but requests have come from Mexico. A public health worker under the Red Cross in the Virgin Islands is to give this instruction to native girls. It is now probable that a Mothercraft film will be produced in Hollywood, Calif., in the near future.

The new National Director of Thrift acknowledges the work as organized in Massachusetts as the most constructive that has reached her desk.

Local Announcements

Mrs. C. Peter Clark of Newton Centre will be hostess for the Fortieth Anniversary of the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. on Monday, November 29. Luncheon will be served and appropriate exercises will mark this important occasion.

The Waban Woman's Club will meet at the Waban Neighborhood Club on Monday, November 29, at 2.30 p. m. Mrs. Owen D. Evans will speak on "Utilizing a Waste Product." There will be music by the pupils of the West Newton Music School. Tea will be served.

On Tuesday morning at the Walker Missionary Home, the Aurburndale Review Club will hold the meeting inadvertently announced for last week. Miss Ada Blanchard will speak on "The Essential Points in the Selection of Clothing."

The monthly business meeting of the Newton Social Science Club will be held at the Hunnewell Club on Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Grace M. Poole will give the second in her course on Current Events before the Newton Community Club next Thursday afternoon at three o'clock. per Falls is taking an active part in the affairs of its village in arousing community spirit and providing recreation for its members and their friends. December 6 will be Children's Night, while on the 8th, arrangements have been made for a concert by the Tufts College Glee and Mandolin Clubs in Emerson School Hall.

Local Happenings

The Colonial party given by the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club on Monday evening was largely attended in spite of the storm, nearly all the women appearing in some sort of old-time costume, from elaborate silk gowns to the simple Pilgrim and Puritan garb. The program included vocal solos by Mrs. Clifford Leighton, with Miss Gladys Billings at the piano, and also by Mr. Rowland Barnes of Newton Highlands, accompanied by Mr. Raymond Collins. There were trio selections by Mrs. Damon, violin, Mr. Spillaine, cello, and Mr. McAloon, piano, and piano duets by Miss Gladys Billings and Miss Dorothy Richardson of Needham. Mrs. Herbert E. Childs read an account of "The Women Who Came in the Mayflower." Refreshments were served in the kindergarten room under the direction of Mrs. Herbert S. Rogers, chairman. Informal dancing and a social hour completed a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. Grace M. Poole's lecture before the Current Events class of the Newtonville Woman's Club discussed the results of the election and treated at length the present European situation. The talk was packed full of information and was listened to with close attention.

Class in the Conservation of Natural Resources, Newton Community and Social Science Clubs, First Friday of each month at 10 o'clock at the Hunnewell Club House.

Subject for the season of 1920-1921: The Conservation of Water.

"Water is the Basis of Life," Van Hise.

Topics and Questions for Class Discussion:

The five basic necessities for human life are Drink, Food, Clothing, Shelter, and Fuel. Drink and Food, besides being obviously fundamental, are also plainly dependent upon the water supply. The needs for clothing, shelter, and fuel, vary greatly with differing climatic and other conditions, and their relation to water is sometimes not immediately apparent. Ultimately, however, all human requirements, not merely of bare existence, but of civilization and what we call the higher life, depend upon or are intimately related to water. The nature of this dependence and the better control and utilization of our water supply which is demanded by increasing population form, therefore, the subject for our consideration this season.

OUTLINES

Friday, 3 December, 1920. The uses of water in the order of their primary importance to human life are: 1. Domestic or Municipal Supply. 2. Agriculture in its broadest sense—culture of the soil—including horticulture and silviculture. 3. Water Power. 4. Navigation. DOMESTIC OR MUNICIPAL SUPPLY

The composition of plant and animal substance in terms of water:

1. What proportion of plant tissue is water?
2. What of animal tissue, including man?
3. How much water is required annually for drink by the average adult human being?
4. How much for other domestic and municipal purposes—ablutions, laundering, street watering, spraying, etc.?
5. What, in general, are the sources of municipal supply?—that is, where do cities and towns get their piped water?
6. Where, mainly, does the country at large, outside of cities and towns, get its water?
7. How thus does the great proportion of the whole country obtain its domestic supply?
8. From what source and by what means does the City of Newton get its water?
9. Where and how comes water for Boston and much of Greater Boston?
10. What are plans and prospects for future increase of this supply?
11. What have been and will be the effects, upon the surrounding country of these requisitions by cities and towns for their water supply?
12. What economic, industrial, and other inter-relations of city and country population are thereby affected and how?
13. Possible or conceivable adjustments.

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Elizabeth B. Dunmore late of Newton in said County, deceased, intestate.

WHEREAS a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Arthur C. Dunmore of Newton in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on his bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twentieth day of November A. D. 1920, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic a newspaper published in Newton the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this ninth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty.

TAXES AND SCHOOLS

To the Editor of the Graphic:

I find that some readers are taking too literally Mr. Blakemore's words in your last issue, that the new school houses under consideration "are proposed simply for a new experiment in education, called the Junior High School," of which no taxpayer would complain, he generously says, "if these expenditures were in the remotest degree necessary."

I presume he would justify this language as being mere exaggeration. But he is dealing with matters of serious importance to citizens, as to which they have a right to be not misled. As judgments should be based on facts, tax payers will be interested to have a more temperate statement, and to know how these problems confronting the City arose, and are being handled.

The school children of Newton must be housed. We now have five grammar school houses which overflow, so that one or more classes at each have to meet out in the yard, in portable class rooms; we have one at which the first grade is divided into two half-time shifts for lack of even a portable building; and of our other grammar school houses not one has a vacant school room, barring one at the city outskirts (Oak Hill), and a fractional size room at Newton Centre. The high schools may fairly be called full. Half of the corrective gymnastics room has been taken for school room. Pupils in the other building occupy two rooms in the basement; and are distributed on chairs, without desks, in the type writing room and the library, and on stools in the drawing room. Some of the teachers have no rooms. That is, in order for one of such to teach in a class room some other teacher has to move out. All of this hurts efficiency. The situation is steadily growing worse.

The impending large expenditure is to meet the housing needs of pupils for the present and next few years. As the locations and types of buildings would be different for handling the pupils under a junior high school system, the question arises, for which system shall we build? If we make our new investment on the present system we cannot change to a junior high school system later except at extravagant waste. To continue on the present system we must build another high school, or an equivalent addition, and new houses or additions to many grammar schools. On the other system, each single junior high school would relieve the central high schools to a degree, taking part of the freshman class, and one or more of the grammar schools of its own region, taking their 7th and 8th grades. It is an open question, which system would have the lower actual building cost. The point is, that the situation demands building on one plan or the other. The two and one-half millions of cost is probably an overestimate for either plan. The building is not "proposed simply for a new experiment," but is to house the pupils for efficient education. The existing buildings may continue to be used. They do not suffice. Anyone's real belief that expenditures are "not in the remotest degree necessary" can rather easily be discovered to be mistaken.

Nor is the junior high school "a new experiment." The idea is new in the sense that our present "high school" idea was new some fifty years ago. As with all new things of magnitude, details remain to be perfected. Improvements will continue to come, for a generation, with incidental experimenting; and the imperfect character of the junior high schools tried in the past may have proven faulty. But Newton will not propose to copy the failures. Out of nation wide experience the main outlines of a valuable new principle of education stand clear.

As I have heard from other sources the question whether it is not an uncertain experiment, it is worth while to quote our highest educational authorities:

I hold the letter of the Massachusetts Commissioner of Education to me, saying: "There is no question of the fundamental soundness of the junior high school idea," and that, "The junior high school presents the only economical plan" [for making provision for the individual differences which nature develops in children at the beginning of the adolescent period (age 12-15), differences that will be life long].

The United States Bureau of Education tells us that, "The junior high school form of organization, that is the 6-3-3 grouping, is rapidly becoming the standard form of school organization for this country, and the movement is well by the experimental stage. The feeling is practically unanimous among school administrators who have had experience with this type of organization, that it offers a great advance educationally over the traditional 8-4 group . . . you are making no mistake in organizing your school on this basis."

And the Russell Sage Foundation's Director, Department of Education, writes: "I have carefully investigated its working elsewhere. The broad outlook and the unanimity of statement of these public and private bureaus of expert knowledge afford a satisfying conviction, outweighing the innuendo—that junior high schools are an unsafe educational experiment."

But whether junior high schools are wise policy for Newton, is another question.

In providing the new buildings it is wise to build on the system which is to prevail in the coming generation, or on that which is now going out? Are the conditions in Newton so different from those elsewhere that the new system, although good as an abstract proposition, is inadvisable here? Have recent increases of salaries of teachers and other city employees, and diversion of income taxes by the legislature, so changed the financial situation that Newton can no longer afford as good schools as other places? Can any of the School Department's work be cut off, as a measure of economy? Are we getting proper efficiency with our present school expenditures?

A special group of Aldermen and School Committeemen and the Superintendent of Schools are working together in study of these and related questions, in conference with the Mayor, and with aid of outside advice. They all agree that a survey of Newton conditions by recognized experts from outside would be helpful in giving assurance of present efficiency, in finding possibility for improvement or curtailment, and in deciding on what plan the City ought to, or can, proceed in view of the financial and taxation problems. Tentative arrangements have been made for such a survey.

EVERETT E. KENT,

Chairman, School Committee.

DEATH OF MR. LANE

Mr. Nehemiah Hunt Lane, a resident of Newton for 30 years, died at his home, 40 Dickerman road, Newton Highlands, on Saturday after an illness of nearly a year.

Mr. Lane was born in Danville, Vt., 73 years ago, and had been engaged in the chemical dyestuffs business for the last 40 years. For 25 years he had been a partner in the firm of Bosson and Lane of Atlantic.

He leaves a widow, Josephine D. Lane, a daughter, Mrs. Mable L. Wells of Holliston, and two sons, Mr. Rollo E. Lane, of Merrimack, and Mr. Harry Lane of Newton. He was a member of Passumpsic Lodge of Masons.

Services were held at his late residence on Monday, the Rev. Rufus H. Dix, officiating. The burial was at Danville, Vt., where a committal service was held, Rev. Edgar R. Brown, chaplain, and the other officers of Passumpsic Lodge officiating.

LODGES

Capt. McClellan has given to the Newton Council, K. of C., permission to use the army drill hall for basketball and track meets. Capt. McClellan has arranged to instal banks in the hall for the track men, and very soon his basketball team will have its first game in the drill hall. Several members of the company are out for the team. Among them are James Odell, Frances Delahanty, J. Kelly, Frank Farrell, John Cronin, an old Co. C basketball star, and several others. Capt. McClellan, an old star in the basketball game is coaching the men.

CO. H. N. G.

Seventy men have enlisted in the recently organized company of the National Guard of this city, and drills are held on each Monday night. On Washington's Birthday a prize drill was held. Three cups are to be given, one to each of the three best drillers, and the best squad is to receive a bonus of $5 for each man in the squad.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Nellie T. Barry to The Buttrick Lumber Corporation, dated October 23, 1917, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 4171, Page 142, for breach of the condition thereof will be sold at public auction upon the premises on Tuesday, the seventh day of December, 1920, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, the said premises being described in said mortgage as follows:

The land in Newton, County of Middlesex, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts with the buildings thereon, situated on the Easterly side of Craft Street, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the Easterly line of said Craft Street at land formerly of Leary two hundred thirty-six and 34/100 (236.34) feet to land now or late of Cephas H. Brackett; thence turning at a right angle and running southeasterly one hundred fifty-eight and 50/100 (158.5) feet by said Brackett land; thence turning at a right angle and running southwesterly still by said Brackett land one hundred fifty-one and 32/100 (151.32) feet to said Craft Street; thence turning and running northwesterly one hundred seventy-nine and 98/100 (179.98) feet by said Craft Street, to the point of beginning.

Being the same premises conveyed to Charles A. Harrington by Henry F. Ross by deed recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Libro 2881, folio 1. Also conveying all the interest of this grantor in the right of way described in a deed from Cephas H. Brackett, dated July 25, 1897, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Libro 2582 folio 296. Intending hereby to convey the premises described in a deed from Charles A. Harrington to the Buttrick Lumber Company, dated April 13, 1903, and recorded in Middlesex South District Deeds, Libro 3034, folio 240. These premises are conveyed subject to taxes assessed in the year 1917 and to all incumbrances of record.

Also the following described personal property: one gray mare; two single wagons; two single sleds; two single harnesses; together with blankets, horse and stable equipment; one ticket register; one safe; one roll top desk; one up-right desk; together with chairs and other office supply and equipment; one so-called "Harrington Holst" ropes and tools; intending hereby to convey all of the office, yard and stable equipment this day bought by me of the Buttrick Lumber Corporation, whether or not specifically described therein. It is also agreed that this grantor shall replace any item of personal property which may be lost, worn out, or sold with similar property of equal value, which shall immediately come within this mortgage.

In the covenant of said mortgage it is stated that said premises are subject to a mortgage of $4000 on the said estate. Said premises will be sold subject to taxes, municipal liens and other encumbrances of record if any such exist.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of sale.

Eight Newton Boys and Girls Will Win Prizes Offered by The Edison Electric Illuminating Company OF BOSTON

Prize Essay Contest Open to Every Newton High School Student, on

"ELECTRICITY IN THE HOME"

Here are the Conditions of the Contest!

Write as far as possible from your own experience at home; why your mother uses a vacuum cleaner instead of a broom; or how much time she saves by using an electric iron in place of the old-fashioned kind; what a difference the electric washer makes in the cost of doing the washing. Do not make a catalogue of electrical appliances.

If you are a Freshman or a Sophomore, tell your story in not more than 300 words; if you are a Junior or a Senior you may use up to 400 words. There will be a prize for the best essay by a boy and for the best one by a girl in each high school class—eight prizes in all.

 closing date!

On or before the closing date, turn in your paper to your English teacher at high school, and watch for the announcement of prize-winners in December.

Fair for Every body.

Remember, you are competing with the boys and girls in your own class only, so everyone has a fair chance to win a prize. The essays will be judged by Maurice Lacey, Head Master of the West Roxbury High School; Frank Black, Publicity Director of Wm. Filene's Sons Co.; and Dennis McCarthy, the author.

Reports were received of the perambulation of the boundary lines between Newton and the towns of Brookline and Watertown.

Claims of John T. Burns, Jr., R. H. James, Michael Cunningham, and of C. G. McMullen were approved.

Hearings were assigned on the relocation of Beacon street at Centre street, and for rounding corners of Fuller and Chestnut streets.

The Mayor was authorized to grant the use of the land, corner of Washington street and Centre place as a site for a building to be used by the Boy and Girl Scouts.

An order for $1,125 for erecting a shelter for skaters on shores of Crystal lake was referred to the Finance committee.

The matter of a portable school-house for the Davis school, was recalled from the Finance Committee and referred back to the Public Buildings Committee.

There was the usual recess of about an hour for committee meetings.

AN OPEN LETTER

Newtonville, Nov. 22.

To the Editor:
 As the mother of a small boy, and in behalf of many other mothers and their children, I wish to protest vigorously against the dangerously inadequate lighting of the Adams school, or rather against its utter lack of lighting. At half past three this afternoon, reading without straining the eyes was almost impossible, as the days grow shorter it will be entirely so. There is not a light of any kind in the building; the dressing rooms are without windows and the teachers have to use pocket flash lights to enable the children to find their wraps and rubbers.

The stairways are windowless and turn twice. In case of fire it would be impossible for the pupils to get down safely to the ground floor. They are all small boys and girls, from the kindergarten to the fourth grade and the responsibility of so many little ones in such an unsafe building is a strain on any teacher. No work can be done after closing time in the afternoon; the teachers can do no work for themselves nor can they help the pupils.

It seems to me that Newton, with its high tax rate and its much boasted school system, might do better for its children in conserving their eyesight. We hear so much about good health lessons, milk drinking, etc., let us now have a little about saving the eyes and nerves of our teachers and our children.

A MOTHER.

LODGES

Newton Lodge of Elks will observe the usual Memorial Sunday of the order on December 5th.

Next Wednesday evening, Newton Lodge of Elks will hold its annual ladies' night at the Newton Club.

GIRL SCOUTS

The regular monthly meeting of the Executive Committee of the Newton Local Council Girl Scouts, was held on Friday, November 19th, with Mrs. Frank Day, Commissioner at the Hotel Touraine. The regular business was transacted and plans for a Local Council Meeting discussed, after which tea was served. Those present were, Mrs. Frank Day, Mrs. I. O. Palmer, Mrs. Albert P. Carter, Mrs. C. D. Meserve, Miss Jeanne Kenrick and Miss Caroline Freeman.

The Girl Scouts cleared nearly two hundred dollars from the Pageant. This is a very good sum to have made, as the expenses were rather heavy and the tickets only 25 and 50 cents.

The Leaders' Class will hold its next meeting on Thursday evening, December 2, at 7.30 o'clock, in the parlors of the New Church, Newtonville. There will be no speaker at this meeting, as more time is desired for the Scout work. There will be more time devoted to drilling at this meeting, more time to Folk Dancing and map making and the semaphore signalling will be taught.

Troop 4.—The atmosphere on Wednesday afternoon the 24th, was filled with the real Thanksgiving spirit, when about 30 Girl Scouts belonging to Newton, Troop 4, provided 4 families with Thanksgiving dinners. Automobiles left the Union Church at 2.30 o'clock carrying the different Patrols to their respective families where they carried cheer as well as food and were most cordially welcomed. The Troop extends a hearty vote of thanks to those contributing the transportation—Cornelia Holmes, Captain.

This report from Troop 4 could be duplicated 3 times. Troop 2—delivered 4 dinners on Wednesday, Troop 3, 5 dinners and Troop 5—4 dinners. In each case the girls provided the dinners and took them around themselves, accompanied always by an officer; 17 families in Newton had a real Thanksgiving because of the Girl Scouts.

DEAD IN CHINA

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Cormack of Bigelow terrace, Newton, have been notified by cable of the death in China, of their son, Mr. William S. Cormack, Jr. Young Mr. Cormack was in the employ of the C. E. W. Rician Company, which conducts aerial transportation between Macao and China.

Mr. Cormack was born in Charlestown some 24 years ago. He was educated in the Boston schools and at Bowdoin College, receiving a degree as of the class of 1917. He enlisted in the navy at the outbreak of the war and was sent to the flying school at Pensacola and later served in the Northern Bombing Group of the allied Air Forces, flying over the English Channel. On his return to America he left at once for Labrador to take part in an aerial survey of that country. Last January he went to China with a chum, William Smith, where they worked together. The cablegram was sent by Mr. Smith.

Mr. Cormack is survived by his parents, a brother, Floyd Cormack, and a sister, Miss Inez Cormack.

LADIES' NIGHT

Gethsemane Commandery, Knights Templar, held a ladies' night on Tuesday in Masonic hall, Newtonville, with about 200 Sir Knights and ladies sitting down to an excellent dinner at 6 o'clock. Eminent Commander Fred M. Blanchard was the toastmaster and the only speaker was Rev. M. H. Lichtner, pastor of Central Church, who spoke on the subject, "What is a Knight Templar." Following the banquet, the members of the Commandery held their usual meeting in the asylum, while the ladies played whist in the smaller hall. About 15 tables were in play and the souvenirs were won by Mrs. Snell at bridge and Mrs. Hersey at straight whist. Dancing followed.

EDITORIAL

We deeply regret that while the cost of many articles is coming down, the cost of printing is increasing and the cost of paper is still high. We are, therefore, compelled to increase the price of the Newton Graphic after January 1st, 1921, to $3.00 per year, or seven cents per copy. Until that date, we will receive subscriptions and renewals at the present rate of $2.50 per year.

Attention is invited to the letter from a Newtonville mother in this issue, relative to the lack of lighting facilities in our public schools. It is a shame and a disgrace to a city like Newton that our teachers have to use pocket flash lights in the school houses.

Send a Thanksgiving check to the Republican National Committee for what took place on Nov. 2nd.

MILITARY FUNERAL

The body of Sergeant Eugene Daley, U. S. A., who died in a German prison camp, was buried in Holyhood Cemetery last Friday morning after a military funeral had been held in the Sacred Heart Church at Newton Centre.

Sergeant Daley, who was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Daley of Market road, Chestnut Hill, was attached to the 326th Infantry in the Eighty-Second Division. He was wounded several times in the Argonne drive, was taken prisoner while helpless and succumbed to his wounds a month later. His body was recently brought home.

The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. A. Curtin, assisted by his curates, Rev. James F. Haney and Rev. Edward F. Murphy. Rev. William J. Farrell of West Newton, a chaplain who was decorated for bravery, was one of those present. Mayor Edwin O. Childs, Street Commissioner George E. Stuart and Oswald J. McCourt, overseer of the poor, represented the municipality and all flags in the city were displayed at half-staff as a mark of respect. Captain C. Sinclair Weeks, commander of the Newton Post of the American Legion, represented that organization, together with the executive committee. A bugler and firing squad from the Coast Artillery Corps detachment at Fort Banks assisted in the committal service and served as an escort.

The uniformed pallbearers, who represented the Army and Navy, were Robert Armstrong, Charles Henrikus, Leon Libby, William McKee, George Dunn, W. P. Fowler, W. P. Watson, John McMahon, John Foran, Francis Barry, Thomas Burke and Joseph Cavanaugh.

GOOD WORK

In the Superior Court last week Albert Doyle and James O'Brien, two of the three men who broke into the garage of the Crowell Garage Company in 1917 in Newton and stole some thirty-five tires, were sentenced to three and one-half to four and one-half years in State's Prison for complicity in the theft. The third man of the party, named McKinnon, died in prison in New York.

The men fled from Massachusetts immediately after the offence was committed but were sentenced in New York for offences there. They were brought back to Cambridge by former Inspector O'Halloran.

—An entertainment was held at Lincoln Hall last Wednesday evening under the direction of the Sunday School table of the Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church of this village.
—On Thursday evening, Nov. 18, the Newton Y. M. C. A. gave a movie entertainment to the Armenians at the Saco-Loell boarding hotel on Mechanics street, under the supervision of the Welfare Dept. of the Saco-Loell mills.
—A very delicious Thanksgiving dinner was served at the Stone Institute this week. Mr. Joseph Byers provided the turkeys, Mrs. George A. Frost, a large quantity of grapes, and Mrs. H. M. Freeman supplied oranges for all the ladies. All the ladies of the Home received on Wednesday their annual gift of five dollars from the Recreation Fund.
—Friends of Miss Josephine Cronin of Oak street called at her home last Tuesday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Progressive whist was enjoyed, after which several pleasing duets were sung by Mrs. J. Frost, and Mrs. C. Mayhew. A delicious buffet lunch was served. During the evening Miss Cronin was presented with a beautiful handbag. The party dispersed at a late hour, after wishing her many returns of the day.

Ralph Waldo Emerson School

Exercises of high merit and appropriate to Thanksgiving were held in the hall on Wednesday. A number of plays, group exercises, and single readings made up most of the program. The President's proclamation was read and several beautiful songs were rendered by groups of pupils. Rev. Frederick Palladino, of the Methodist Church, was the guest and spoke in a felicitous and interesting manner of some of his own experiences as a boy in the schools of New York. He commented in the very highest terms on the excellence of the exercises, giving due credit to the pupils and their excellent teachers.
Dr. John Brewer of Harvard University was a recent visitor to several classes in vocational guidance. Dr. Brewer was so pleased with the work he saw, that he sent personal letters of appreciation to Miss Sullivan, Miss Manter and Miss Dow.
It is expected that the shield won by the Emerson champion baseball team of 1920 will soon be placed upon the school walls.

COMMONWEALTH COUNTRY CLUB

On Monday afternoon, November 22, at 3 o'clock, the first of a course of lectures, on Events of the Day and Modern Drama and Dramatists with Mrs. J. W. Ferguson Kennedy (Barbara Bradford), as lecturer, was given with Mrs. Willard D. Pitcher as hostess.
This course is in behalf of the Fatherless Children of France. In addition to the ladies who have been previously mentioned, the following have consented to serve as patronesses: Mrs. Arthur R. Robertson, Mrs. Arthur C. Erisman, Mrs. Charles E. Young, Mrs. Earle G. Knight, Mrs. Carl K. Bacon, Mrs. Fred S. Dean, Mrs. James R. Hodder, Mrs. A. O. Fulton, Mrs. J. C. Heckman, Mrs. Daniel C. Beckwith and Mrs. Willard D. Pitcher will be the hostesses at an auction bridge party for their particular benefit. Mrs. Beckwith will also take charge of any Christmas gifts that the Commonwealth Country Club ladies wish to send to these children and will receive them up to December 10. This Auction Bridge Party will be a departure from the usual custom in that it will not be progressive. Ladies may make up their own tables for the card party of December 1st.
There was a Thanksgiving Dinner with "all the fixin's" Thanksgiving with a dinner dance in the evening.

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

Mr. William Northrup Dudley of Concord and for a number of years a resident of Newtonville, died Tuesday noon as the result of an accident the previous day. While Mr. Dudley was getting off an electric car he was struck by a passing automobile and seriously injured.
Mr. Dudley was born in Centreville, Ind., Jan. 15, 1869, graduated from Technology in the class of 1889, and was an architect by profession and a member of the Boston Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.
While in Newtonville, Mr. Dudley took a deep interest in community affairs. He was a leader in the Boy Scout movement in this city, was the captain of the Newtonville company of the Newton Constabulary, a member of the Naval Reserve, and during the police strike was the lieutenant colonel of the Newton Constabulary unit of the State Guard.
He was twice married, his first wife, Miss Grace Fuller, of Cambridge, died in 1902, leaving one son, R. Parker Dudley, now a sophomore at Yale. His second wife, Miss Edna Sloane, survives him with two small daughters.

FEAST OF THE INGATHERING AT ELIOT CHURCH

The Women's Association of Eliot Church invited all women of the parish to the Feast of the Ingathering on Tuesday afternoon.
After the devotional exercises and the taking of the collection, Mrs. Hannah Hume Lee from India told of conditions in that country. She said that India also had her Feast of Ingathering. Among those things for which the women of India are grateful she mentioned the chance for an education, the new social life brought about in part because of the influence of the war upon the men of India, and the solace of the Christian religion, particularly in sorrow.
Mrs. Lewis F. Pike gave several musical selections. Following her, Miss Carolyn Childs, recently returned from Serbia, spoke in regard to that country. After giving a brief survey of the suffering which Serbia underwent during the war when everything that the enemy was unable to take away with him, was destroyed, Miss Childs told of the conditions in the orphanage with which she has been connected. They had no glass, no desks, no chairs. Floors were of brick. Food was hard to obtain, owing to the lack of seeds for the harvest, and of labor. The daily diet contained onions and rice and dark bread. Sometimes there was honey and cheese. Lard could be obtained, but no butter. Clothing was in very great demand. Flannel was frequently used in exchange for food. Americans were often asked for their clothes.

In the entire orphanage, there were only three children, who had ever been to school before. At first the children would not smile, and did not know how to play. In a month's time, however, there was a marked change. The children were very responsive, and very demonstrative.
Serbians have to be taught our standards in regard to stealing and truth telling. They and very fond of music and of dancing, and make much of the 50 holidays in their calendar.
In addition to teaching in the orphanage, Miss Childs made a survey for the Serbian government in the course of which she visited 1,840 families. Everywhere she found the people hospitable and responsive. Women in Serbia have not yet come into their own; they still wait upon the men, and walk while their lords and masters ride.

Serbia is largely an undeveloped country. It needs machinery, transportation, and leaders along modern lines, but granted these, the country will soon be able to take its place in the world.
At the conclusion of Miss Childs' talk tea was served and a social hour followed.

Representatives of the city and officials of the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway differed at a hearing held Wednesday before the Public Utilities Commission on the petition of the city for approval of an order adopted recently by the Newton Aldermen to compel the company to relocate a section of its tracks on Walnut street, Newtonville.

The action of the city was taken, according to Joseph W. Bartlett, city solicitor, as a result of the widening of Walnut street and the failure of the company to relocate its tracks to conform to the street widening.

Pitt E. Drew, president of the company, opposed the position, and said that the existing location of the tracks despite the street widening, is not a menace to the safety of the public. He claimed that the railway cannot legally be compelled to relocate its tracks.

The Commissioners took the matter under advisement.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Leon G. Atkinson to the Newton Centre Savings Bank dated April 5, 1917, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds in book 4128, page 555, for breach of the condition of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described, on Saturday the eleventh day of December, 1920, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular, the following described real estate:—

A certain parcel of land and the buildings thereon situated in that part of Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts called Newtonville on the westerly side of the private way formerly called Victoria Street and now called Victoria Circle. The said land is shown as Lot G on a plan entitled "Plan of land in Newton, Mass., belonging to C. C. Streeter and C. D. Young, by E. S. Smilie, surveyor, dated August 30, 1916. The said land is bounded and described as follows: Easterly by said Victoria Circle by courses respectively nineteen and one-half (19½) feet and sixty and 71/100 (60.71) feet, as shown on said plan; northerly by the southerly side line of a private way shown on said plan ninety-two and 64/100 (92.64) feet; northwesterly by land now or late of Clark C. Streeter et al thirty (30) feet and southwesterly by land now or late of said Streeter et al shown as Lot H on said plan one hundred (100) feet.

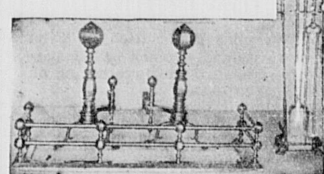

Subject to and with the benefit of a right of way for the purposes of a street in common with others entitled thereto in and over the private way known as Morton Street and in and over the private way known as Victoria Circle including a portion of Victoria Circle shown on said plan and also the continuation thereof to its intersection with said Morton Street, and also subject to the restrictions set forth in a deed of Clark C. Streeter et al to Henry C. Bourne et al dated October 1, 1916, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds in book 4099, page 112.

Three hundred Dollars ($300.) will be required to be paid by the purchaser at the time and place of sale. Newton Centre Savings Bank, Newton Centre, Mass.

DR. IRA LANDRITH
ON THE WATER WAGON

Dr. Ira Landrith, the famous southern orator and Chautauqua lecturer, is to give his famous lecture, "Atlas on the Water Wagon—Get it Done," at Elliot Church Chapel, Friday night at 7.45. The Baptist and Methodist Churches are omitting their regular meetings to unite. This is a lecture which has been given on many Chautauqua platforms with an admission charge, but it is given free here.

Dr. Landrith was born in Texas and has lived most of his life in Tennessee, and is a typical southern orator, combining epigram with a wealth of humor and all delivered with a rapid-fire that is irresistible. Dr. Landrith spoke in nearly every State of the Union during the campaign for the ratification of the Eighteenth Amendment, and he is now giving his knowledge and experience to make that amendment effective.

A TALE OF TWO CITIES

The story of Dickens' "A Tale of Two Cities" is based on the French Revolution. Many pupils of our Newton schools will be called upon to read this book as a part of their school work. If they will secure in advance a general knowledge both of Dickens and of the places and time of which the book treats they will be the better equipped to enjoy the story. If they will follow, while reading it, the "Scenes and characters" from the works of Charles Dickens" (WSBO-D55), which comprises over eight hundred drawings they will all the more be interested in the tale.

To become familiar with Dickens, his life, the country in which he lived, and his times, some of the following will prove valuable:

Mary Dickens' My father as I knew him. (ED555-DM)

Forster's Life of Charles Dickens. (ED555-F)

Frank's A Christmas eve with Charles Dickens. (YD-FS5S)

Kitton's The Dickens country. (ED555-K)

Ward's Dickens. (ED555-W)

Ward's The Real Dickens land. (ED555-Wa)

The following histories of the French Revolution will give a good understanding of the history of the times:

Belloe's The French Revolution. (F393-B41)

Birkhead's The story of the French Revolution. (JF393-B53)

Lowell's Eve of the French Revolution. (F393-L95)

MacGregor's Story of France. (JF39-M17)

Morris' French Revolution. (F393-M3)

Stephens' French Revolution. (F393-S83)

E. W. Lattimer's "My scrapbook of the revolution" (F393-L34), gives a good account of the people of those times; while Bingham's "The Bastille" (F393-B51) and Shelley's "Old Paris" (G39P-S54) give a good description of Paris and of the people there. For an account of London, read Mansfield's "Dickens' London" (G45L-M21) and F. Hopkinson Smith's "In Dickens' London" (ZYA-D55-S64).

For a study of Marie Antoinette it would be well to consult one of the following:

Belloe's Marie Antoinette. (EM339-Bc)

Bicknell's Story of Marie Antoinette (EM339-B)

And Mirabeau is portrayed in: Barbou's Mirabeau. (EM67-B)

Dumont's The great Frenchman and the little Genevese. (EM67-D)

Burton's Charles Dickens. (ZYA-D55-B)

Moses' Charles Dickens and his girl heroines. (ED555-Mo)

Chesterton's Charles Dickens: a critical study. (ED555-Ch)

Gissing's Charles Dickens: a critical study. (ZYA-D55-G)

Those desiring to follow up by reading some books of historical fiction should try:

Dumas' Agathe Pitou.

—La comtesse de Charney.

—The man in the iron mask.

Erickman-Chatrion. The story of a peasant.

—Grat. Reds of the mid.

—Martineau's The peasant and the prince.

Weyman's The red cockade.

Wentworth's A marriage under the terror.

MAJESTIC THEATRE—The attraction at the Majestic Theatre, Boston, opening Monday evening, Nov. 29, and continuing for a limited engagement will be E. Ray Goetz's new musical review of revues "Vogues and Vanities," prior to its engagement at one of New York's principal theatres.

It is a frank paraphrase of the Parisian and London revues which have been so successful in those European capitals for several years, and in which satire is woven through the dialogue in a series of skits and parodies on other plays and types of plays, as well as international eccentricities, fads and foibles.

In the present instance American fancies are held up to view in twelve breath-holding and eye-filling scenes, each one more brilliant than the one before. Some wonderful novelties are promised in smartness and dialogue and scenic art.

OF THE COUNTRY AND ALL THOSE WHO AIDED THEM

The Republican success in the 1920 election has been commensurate with the quality of our candidates and the righteousness of our cause.

This success is the partnership accomplishment of all Republicans everywhere and of hundreds of thousands of well-wishers of good government regardless of past party affiliations.

To all of these we now appeal, because it is the mutual responsibility of us all who will share alike in the consequent mutual benefit of good government.

The plan of limiting campaign contributions to $1,000, adopted by your national organization, has left your party unmortgaged.

It has been a most advanced step in placing the business of politics on the highest plane, and has brought an interest on the part of thousands who never before have been concerned with politics.

Some weeks before election it was apparent that the expenses provided for in our budget, with the strictest economy, would exceed the contributions, but we were unwilling either to leave undone any legitimate effort essential to complete success or to change the method of raising money. We were then sure and we are now sure that every Republican desires that the expenses of the campaign be distributed in this manner.

Your presidential campaign this year cost no more than that of 1916, when a dollar went nearly twice as far as it does today.

Four years ago the bulk of the campaign fund came from 750 contributors, while this year the approximately $2,000,000 contributed to date for the presidential election has come from 50,000 givers.

The victory won, the raising of the deficit would be easy, indeed, if your committee were willing to abandon the policy of keeping down the average of contribution. This we are determined not to do. It was a fight of all the people. The result speaks for itself. It lifted a burden from the minds of millions and points the way to better and happier days. We ask now for that additional help from all which is merited both by the successful conclusion of the effort and by the consequent contribution to the welfare of all of our people and the glory of the nation.

Let us now have help from every American who is grateful for the victory and all that it means to the country. It might well be in the nature of a thanksgiving offering for the return to a certainly safe, sane, constitutional progressive government.

Let us by general and generous giving put the seal of approval upon the policy of putting a national administration in power free from any possible embarrassment of special obligation to any man, men or group of men. Let us make the contribution, whether large or small, and whether or not we have heretofore given, commensurate with our means and our appreciation, always within the maximum limit heretofore fixed.

Let us get our names on the cornerstone of a sturdier political structure, upon the roll of those who have helped make possible a campaign of which, in methods and result, we may as Republicans and patriots be justly proud.

Most earnestly we urge that this aid be given quickly, that your committee may be enabled to discharge the party's obligations and turn to further constructive work in behalf of party and country.

Republican National Committee, WILL H. HAYES, Chairman.
Checks should be made payable to Fred W. Upham, Treasurer, and sent to the Committee's Office, 19 West 44th Street, New York City, N. Y.

HOSPITAL SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE

A meeting of the Hospital Social Service League was held on Monday at the New Church. After the business meeting, there was an address by the Rev. M. H. Lichter of Central Church. Mr. Lichter spoke in part as follows:

"There are 3,000 hospitals in this country and only one in ten has a social service department. As a general thing, the hospital does not come into very close touch with the community. The doctors, for example, are very little known by the community at large. The aim of the social service department of a hospital is to link the hospital with the community. The social-service worker must acquaint the doctor with the environment of the case in hand, remove all obstacles in the way of recovery, see that supplementary care is given, and educate the patient in regard to his own condition. The social service worker should represent the hospital in connection with other agencies in the community.

The social worker should have a body of volunteer workers assisting her. The church should send its members out into the community to do work of this kind. The social worker herself should be financed by the hospital and the community she serves.

There is a commanding need in a community like Newton of thinking of social problems as a unit. What affects one part of the city affects the whole, and the co-operation of all is necessary to successful work. At present there is a central council in Newton whose duties are purely advisory. It is hoped that eventually the budgets of all agencies may be considered as one, and a call for money to cover all the needs of all the agencies in Newton be issued once a year.

At the conclusion of the address, there was a piano selection by Mrs. Payson Allen, and a vocal selection by Miss Theresa Cram.

CITY OF NEWTON Forestry Division Street Department NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

You are hereby required on or before November 30, 1920, to destroy the gypsy and brown tail moths on your property in this City.

This notification is in accordance with Chapter 381, Acts of 1905, and the amendments thereto, which requires cities and towns to destroy the eggs, caterpillars, pupae and nests of the gypsy and brown tail moths under heavy penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of the law.

If a property owner fails to destroy such eggs, pupae and nests, then the city or town is required to destroy the same, and the cost of the work, in whole or in part, according to the value of the land, is assessed upon and becomes a lien on the land. (See Section 6, of said Chapter 381, and amendments thereto.)

The City Will Perform All Winter Moth Work Unless Otherwise Notified by Property Owners.

Full instructions as to the best methods of work against the moths may be obtained from the Forestry Division, City Hall, or from the State Forester, State House, Boston, Mass. Work done by contractors should be inspected and approved by the Local Superintendent before payment for the same is made.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Burr School

Beginning Monday, Nov. 29, the Burr School girls are to have their cooking at West Newton. The girls of the cooking class prepared a Thanksgiving dinner on Monday. Everything was included except the turkey.

The "Echo" will be ready for sale the first week of December. This is to be a special Christmas number.

Horace Mann School

During "Better Speech Week" this year the eighth grade of the Horace Mann School took the following pledge: "I love the United States of America. I love my country's flag. I love my country's language. I promise:

1. That I will not dishonor my country's speech by leaving off the last syllables of words;
2. That I will say a good American "yes" and "no," instead of an Indian grunt, "umhum," and "nupum" or a foreign "yah" or "yeh" and "nope."

3. That I will improve American speech by enunciating distinctly and by speaking pleasantly and sincerely;
4. That I will try and make my country's language beautiful for the many boys and girls of foreign nations, who come here to live;

5. That I will learn to articulate correctly one word a day for one year.

A creed, entitled, "My Language," written by Charles Swain Thomas, formerly head of the English Department in the Newton High School, has been learned.

Many of the pupils have made posters, which decorate the eighth grade room. One, drawn by Charles Hayden, is a picture of "Liberty" with a dark shadow of a man nearby and underneath the words, "Good English is Education and Light; Bad English is Ignorance and Darkness." An open dictionary with the slogan, "Use it often" was made by Ruth Peppard, and a water color sketch of two ships racing, the one entitled "Good English," in the lead, was painted by Louise Tomlinson. Still another with the American Eagle over the words from the creed, "I Hold the Language of America in Reverent Regard," was drawn by Rose Deagle.

Several plays have been written and dramatized and successful attempts at poetry have been made. Compositions, too, have been written, and Speech Week has been carried on with earnest ardor. The eighth grade will soon be a one hundred per cent Good English Class.

Grade VII, in their oral language stories, tried to avoid poor English and to use the right word in the right place. There written stories were interesting because they tried to kill the demons that troubled them. Poor English expressions were used as names of demons and Better English phrases were either good fairies or soldiers on the winning side. The girls and boys have conducted contests to see which have the fewer mistakes in Speech Work. They are also working on acrostics for Better English and plan to carry on this work throughout the year.

Pupils in the other Grade VII were earnestly asked to engage in competitive exercises where the use of correct English should be dominant. These exercises included word drills; the recognition of incorrect forms in every day use and the proper expressions instead; original written dialogues, playlets, and stories by the pupils themselves, all illustrating the applications of good English.

Posters, showing much originality and beauty were also devised, calculated to impress the idea of using better English.

The pupils in Grade VI were divided into two divisions, and a contest was held to see which side made the fewest errors.

Rhymes have also been written. The most popular rhyme was one written by Richard Welch, as follows: "Let Good English always rule. We don't want slang in the Horace Mann School."

"Slang" pictured as a football on one poster was being kicked by a boy, with the accompanying slogan, "Kick it off the playground. We don't want it." William Trussell made this poster. In the 3rd grade each child, who made a mistake had a slip of paper given him, on which was printed the correct form, which should have been used.

The work still continues and daily mistakes are noticed and corrected.

CLASSICAL HIGH SCHOOL

After much deliberation the athletic committee has decided to allow a post season game with Haverhill. The team will leave at nine o'clock, Saturday morning, on a special train from the North Station. Upon arriving at Haverhill the team will be put through a light practice in the stadium, where the game will be held at three o'clock sharp. Captain "Bob" Garrity, who has been sick in bed during the past week, will be in the lineup. Governor Coolidge and Mayor Childs have been invited to attend the game. Newton will receive half of the gate receipts, which ought to be about $10,000. Train schedule: Leave North Station at 11:50, arrive at Haverhill at 1:09 P. M. Leave Haverhill for Boston 4:11 P. M. arrive at Boston at 5:42 P. M. Leave Haverhill at 5:43 P. M. arrive Boston at 7:29 P. M.

On Thursday, Nov. 25, at 10 A. M. Newton plays Brookline High at Clifton Field.

The game with Cambridge last Saturday was one of the best games of the year except for the fact that Capt. Garrity was not able to play. Quarterback "Jake" Stafford played a remarkable game.

The Girls' Debating Club held its first meeting on Monday morning. Mr. Lane spoke to them on the principles of argumentation. At the second meeting of the Boys' Debating Club, six of the members acted as salesmen. The program was not quite finished, so at the next meeting the remaining speakers will have the floor for the first ten minutes. The judges, Wyman and McGill, will award a prize of $2.00 to the best salesman.

School closed Wednesday at noon and will not open until the following Monday.

The Edison Electric Light Co. are offering prizes of considerable denomination for the best essays written on the uses of electricity in the home. This contest is open to all pupils in high school. The essays are due on Dec. 1.

The essays on the Pilgrims are due on next Friday, Dec. 3.

The little paper known as "the Democrat," published by one of the boys in the school, has been suspended, due to financial conditions. Another little paper, "Bits of Sawdust," printed by two of the students in the school, is being distributed free of charge. The purpose of the paper is to express the opinions and comments of the pupils of the High School as heard by the Editors.

There is a great deal of comment and discussion over the two lunch period plan. The pupils desire that ten minutes be taken off each lunch period so that school may be dismissed at 2:10 instead of 2:30. Slips of paper have been given to every pupil, on which their parents are to sign their names giving consent to this plan.

DEATH OF MR. NICHOLS

Mr. Wallace H. Nichols died at his home on Hillside road, Sunday in his 41st year. He was born in Halifax, N. S., and came to the United States when he was 16 years of age and entered the wool business. He was a Mason, a member of the Episcopal Church, and a vestryman at St. Paul's Church, Newton Highlands. He leaves one son, Wallace H. Nichols, Jr. Services were held at his late residence on Wednesday, the Rev. Theodore R. Ludlow officiating, and the burial was in Newton Cemetery.

last 48 years for preserving the National Parks in a state of absolute nature.

That is considers our National Parks invaluable National Museums of nature which it is the Nation's duty to hold untouched for the study and enjoyment of posterity.

That it protests against the inclusion of National Parks and Monuments in the provisions of the Federal Water Power Act of June, 1920, and requests Congress to amend that Act so as to exclude these Reservations from its authority.

That it protests earnestly against the granting of any irrigation or other privilege in the Yellowstone or any other National Park, except those customary and necessary for the comfort and convenience of visitors.

That it authorizes the President of the General Federation to take such action as she deems necessary to carry out the spirit and purpose of these Resolutions.

Resolution passed by the Massachusetts State Federation:
Resolved: I. That the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs at its Autumn meeting (in Dorchester), 29 October, 1920, urges Congress

1. To amend the Water Power Act of June, 1920, so that it shall not apply to National Parks and Monuments.
2. To defeat the Falls River Basin Bill (Smith Bill, H. R. 12466), the bill to dam Yellowstone Lake, and any other bills of similar purpose affecting any National Park or Monument which appear before the next session of Congress.

II. That a copy of this Resolution be sent to our United States Senators and Representatives and to the National Parks Association, 1512 H St., Northwest, Washington, D. C.

The resolution of the State Federation was passed in virtually the same form by the Newton Federation. The same points will probably be correct in letters and petitions to Congress. Information will appear in the Graphic as occasion requires.

'HOME CIRCLE

The Newton Ladies' Home Circle will hold a regular meeting on Thursday, Dec. 2, at 2 P. M., in G. A. R. hall, Newtonville.

THE REVIVED INTEREST IN THE MEDIEVAL ARTS

Contemporary study of and interest in the life and arts of the Middle Ages grows stronger and keener each season. Having its spiritual impulse of the great war and finding expression in pageantry and even, occasionally, in women's head gear and costumes, the substantial part of the current is passing more to the medieval arts and literature. During the ensuing week an exhibition of copies of early Christian Medieval Carved Ivories will be held in Chicago under the auspices of the Renaissance Society of the University. This society is composed mainly of the members of the faculty who are interested in all fields of art. The exhibition will be open to students and invited guests. The Department of Romance Languages and Literature, Professor Ernest H. Wilkins, Ph.D., etc., will open the exhibition with an introductory paper. Dr. Wilkins work and eminence in the Romance languages and Byzantine Art are known to many of our readers. The works exhibited are one of the exclusive products of Frederick Parsons Waban studio, and follows a very successful exhibition of the same nature held by the faculty at Wellesley College during the past spring. Dr. Wilkins himself, is a product of Newton, one in whom the city may well take pride.

MORE SCOUTS

The President-Elect has just issued the following call for more Scouts: "I am with the Scout Movement heart and soul. It is an organization teaching the spirit of service and honor which we must always have in our citizenship. It is a school of our democracy because in it, standing is won only by taking the equal opportunity given all individuals to show their own merit, capacity and worth. I wish every boy in our America could have the advantage and the honor of being in the Boy Scout organization and of learning therein that cooperation, justice, the customs of fair play and the gentleness of good manner make for peace and growth as distinguished from the results of disorganization and selfishness and cowardice which lead to contentions and conflict."

WARREN G. HARDING.

Oct. 26, 1920.

How many boys of twelve years and over will answer this call before the end of this year? Troops meet every week in the following places.

Troop 1, High School Gym, Newtonville, at 7:30, Tuesday.

Troop 2, M. E. Church, Auburndale, at 7:30, Friday.

Troop 4, Congregational Church, Newton Highlands, 7:30, Monday.

Troop 5, Playground House, Newton Centre, 7:30, Friday.

Troop 7, Second Congregational Church, West Newton, 7:30, Friday.

Troop 8, Playground House, Newton Centre, 7:30, Monday.

Troop 10, Hall where dances are held. When dances occur on Friday, 7:30, Thursday. Otherwise troop meets at 7:30, Friday.

Troop 11, Bigelow School, Newton, at 7:30, Friday.

Troop 13, M. E. Church, Newton Upper Falls, 7:00, Monday.

Troop 1, W. Congregational Church, Wellesley, 7:30, Thursday.

NEWTON BOARD OF TRADE

The Board of Trade will hold its next meeting at the Newton Club on Tuesday, Nov. 30th, with the dinner being served at 7 o'clock and United States District Attorney Daniel J. COAL--3C--SAVER is a discovery, not an invention; a tried fact, not a prospect. Saves 15 per cent coal, adds 40 per cent efficiency, eliminates gas and cinders, absolutely as represented. Reference, Town of Brookline, Fisk Building, Boston, Beaconsfield Apartments, Beacon Street, Boston, Mr. Mansfield, Mgr., T. Dennie Boardman and Sons, Boston, Cunard Steamship Company, Ltd., City of Everett, City of Chelsea, Pierce Building, Coolidge Corner, Brookline, and many others equally reliable. Sample sufficient to treat one ton of coal, 50 cents to any part of U. S. A. Parcel Post, on receipt of express or money order for 50 cents. Directions with each package. I am located in business in Newton to stay. I realize to accomplish this end that it is absolutely necessary to deal fairly and squarely with the public, when I represent the Coal-3c-Saver, Insurance or Real Estate. I do so with every confidence in what I say, not to try to grab 50c or 50c or $50,000 from some person or persons without any satisfaction. If you are not absolutely satisfied with the Coal-3c-Saver, I will return your money as cheerfully as I received it. The same condition applies to Insurance, Real Estate, or any other transaction, which I represent. I am no stranger in Newton, as I was interested in Real Estate here 35 years ago.

Very respectfully yours,

DEATH OF MISS DAVIS

Miss Amelia Davis, a resident of this city for many years, died at her home, 25 River street, West Newton, on Saturday after a short illness.

Miss Davis was born in Medfield,
Mass., and was 77 years of age.

Miss Davis taught in the Framingham Normal School for forty-three years. In grateful recognition of her work and influence, her pupils have nearly completed raising $10,000 to be called the Amelia Davis Fund, and to be used for incapacitated teachers.

Miss Davis was a member of the Browning Class of West Newton, and an active member of the First Unitarian Church.

Miss Davis is survived by a sister, Mrs. Edward Rice, who lived with her, and two brothers, Mr. S. Warren Davis, a teacher in the Newton
High School, and Mr. Walter B. Davis of Shaw street, West Newton.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, the Rev. J. Edgar Park officiating in the absence of Rev. Julian C. Jaynes, and the burial was in Newton Cemetery.

TIE GAME

Cambridge Latin School gave Newton High a surprise in the Suburban League game at Russell Field, North Cambridge, Saturday afternoon, when it held the league leaders to a 7 to 7 tie. Newton High was handicapped by the absence of Capt. Robert Garrity, its sensational halfback, who was out of the lineup because of tonsillitis.

Cambridge made its score after Newton seemed to have the game safely in hand. With but 1 minute and 5 seconds left to play in the final quarter, Isadore Zarakov received a punt on his own 25-yard line and raced down the field for a touchdown.

After passing midfield Zarakov was afforded perfect interference, and the one man in his course was cleverly put out of the play.

Zarakov of Cambridge Latin had two tries for the goal from touchdown. He failed on his first attempt, but a member of the Newton High team had crossed the goal line too quickly. On the kick-over Zarakov registered.

Newton High's touchdown came 35 seconds after the second period had opened. A long forward from Herbert Garrity to Stafford placed the ball on Cambridge Latin's 8-yard line. Then, on two plays Herbert Garrity crossed the line and also kicked the goal.

50 years of service in that firm. The directors of the firm presented him with a Masonic charm and Mr. C. S.
Ober of Auburndale for the salesmen presented him with a gold watch chain.

DEATH OF MR. SIMPSON

Mr. Will Stover Simpson, a resident of Newton for the past eight years, with his home on Lakewood avenue,
Newton Highlands, was instantly killed last Friday evening in an automobile accident when the machine in which he was riding ran into a telegraph pole in Wakefield.

He was born in 1877 in Cambridge, where his boyhood was spent. After graduating from a business college, he became associated with Waldo Brothers, first as salesman, traveling over the New England States, and later was in charge of the sewer and drain tile departments. After sixteen years' connection with this firm, he established, in 1915, his own business of wholesaling and retailing building materials.

Mr. Simpson was a member of Mt.
Olivet lodge, A. F. & A. M., Newton
Royal Arch Chapter, Cambridge Commandery, K. T., and Aleppo Temple,
A. O. N. M. S.; also the Boston City Club and the New England Builders Supply Association. He attended the Unitarian Church in Newton Centre.

Besides his widow, he is survived by a daughter, Miss Barbara Simpson, and by his mother and two sisters in Cambridge.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon at the family home in Newton Highlands, where the service was conducted by Rev. George Kent, whose ministrations were interspersed with a vocal solo by Miss Hatch of the quartet of the Unitarian Church at Newton Centre.

The interment was at Cape Neddick, Maine.

Your Gas Meter is More Accurate Than Your Watch

Put one hundred of the best watches against one hundred gas meters in a crucial test for accuracy, exposed to the same varying conditions of heat, cold, humidity, and the meters will win out every time.

All things considered, the gas meter is one of the most accurate measuring instruments in use today.

Like the registering turnstile in baseball parks, railroad stations and fair grounds, the meter will not operate unless something passes through it. The mechanism is not set in motion and the indicator hands cannot move except as more or less gas passes through the meter and makes them move.

Before a meter is set in your premises, it is thoroughly tested and proved for correct registration by your gas company, or, in certain sections of the country, by meter inspectors employed by the city or state. These inspectors are your trusted representatives and they place an official seal upon the meters, thus certifying to their accuracy.

It is interesting to know that the original mechanical principles adopted in 1844 for the correct measurement of gas still persist. Hundreds of inventors have endeavored to get something better, but they have improved on details only. Today the meter stands as the survival of the fittest. If a more perfect device could be obtained, your gas company would promptly adopt it.

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE CELEBRATION

The centennial celebration by the Middlesex County Branch of the Mass. State Nurses' Association, assisted by the Newton Chapter of the Red Cross, took place in Bray Hall, Newton Centre, last Saturday evening. One hundred and fifty nurses were present in their uniforms. Addresses were made by the Rev. J. Edgar Park, Rev. Edward T. Sullivan, Miss Mary Riddell, of the Newton Hospital, Miss Allen of the Lowell Hospital, and Miss Wiles, a public health nurse from the New England Division of the Red Cross.

Mr. Park said, "When Florence Nightingale went out during the Crimean War in 1854 she faced Hell, but she insisted on keeping in it, and turning it into Heaven itself." He went on to tell of conditions in the Crimea at that time, and of the hardships endured. There were no stretchers; no provision for getting men up; they had to be carried by men who were a little less wounded than they were. Conditions in the hospital were very bad—no drainage, no materials for dressing wounds, the only light was given by candles stuck in empty beer bottles. Before Florence Nightingale came to the Crimea, nursing was looked upon as an objectionable profession; now it is one of the most beloved in the world—a profession which fits one for whatever profession one may be called to occupy.

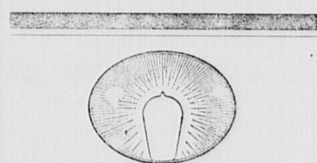

Miss Riddell spoke on "The Problems of Present Day Nursing." The greatest problem, she said, is the shortage of nurses. This is because of the variety of calls in other fields such as industrial work, schools, public health work, etc. We have not yet returned to normal conditions, and the demand for nurses far exceeds the supply. The solution of the problem lies in the training of more nurses, and in keeping the standard high, and making the work everywhere more attractive and more honored. Miss Riddell closed with a glowing tribute to Florence Nightingale.

Dr. Sullivan paid a high tribute to the nursing profession when he said that Miss Edith Cavell was not an unusual woman, but a nurse typical of the profession who saw her duty and did it. He told a touching story of a nurse in France who had her finger on an artery where a doctor was operating when the hospital was bombarded; the doctor killed at her feet. Still she held on, and was found after 72 hours still holding on and thus saving the soldier's life.

Miss Wiles appealed for public health nurses. The work of a Red Cross nurse covers a large ground—work for the expectant mother, child welfare, school inspection, tuberculosis work, and industrial work.

Miss Allen spoke for the Middlesex County Branch of the State Nurses' Association. It is the desire of the Association to present the nursing profession in such a way that mothers will desire to have their girls take it up. There is an Advisory Committee with headquarters in Boston who advise as to the best methods in which this profession can best be presented to the people.

Proceeding the addresses, Mrs. S. W. Wilder of Newton Centre sang two songs accompanied by Mr. Ralph McLean. There was also the singing of patriotic songs by the audience. Two moving pictures were shown, "In Florence Nightingale's Footsteps" and "First Aid."

THE CHRISTMAS SEALS

Very soon you will be asked to buy them again as you have been doing for a good many years. Would you like to know how your money was used last year?

Newton's share in the receipts from the Seals was $2990, a modest sum, but it sounded like a gold mine when it was turned over to the Welfare Bureau who used it in fighting the White Plague in our city. What did they do with it?

First, they applied a small part of it for emergency relief—milk in needy families where the wage earner had tuberculosis; a sleeping porch for an incipient case; help and nursing for a sick mother.

The Thrift Fair gave an opportunity for some educational work. Graphic and gruesome health films were shown each night, and the Welfare Bureau booth was lined with clever posters and overflowing with informing literature.

But the most important part of the work was done in the summer. Relief is good, but simply palliative. Literature is helpful but easily lost and forgotten; so they resolved to begin a health campaign among the children. The plan outlined by Miss Bragg, Director of Health Work in the Public Schools, included the securing of two trained workers on the Playgrounds, a teacher for Mothercraft, and another trained nurse who worked in the Well Baby Clinic, which had already been started at the Stearns School, and helped Dr. Bowers in the Nutrition Clinic to which underweight and anaemic children were sent from the Playgrounds. The "Health Game" has become an absorbing and exciting pastime among those children who consume milk with great enthusiasm, brush their teeth regularly, and go to bed early, and literally and figuratively swell with pride as they put on new weight.

The follow-up work of the trained workers, as they visit these children in their homes, has helped many an anxious and uninformed mother and has rounded up about 60 new babies for the Well Baby Clinic where mothers and babies have the benefit of professional examination and advice every week.

It is too soon to show concrete results and it is certainly worth while for several hundred children to learn to play the Health Game. Strong, well nourished children and youth are infertile soil for the dreaded tuberculosis germ.

The work done at the Stearns School last summer should be duplicated in many other centres of the city. If you bought 100 stamps last year, buy 200 this year. Let us at least double the amount we raised last year, that we may organize a campaign that shall teach all our children how to keep clean, and grow fat and strong and well.

NEWTON'S FOOTBALL HONORS

Never in the past fifteen years has any one Massachusetts high school come into such prominence in football circles as has Newton High during this present season. No less than eleven former Newton football players have made enviable records upon college gridirons this fall. Those who have attracted the most attention are the three who battled so brilliantly in the recent Harvard-Princeton tie in the Stadium—Garritty, Owen, and Macomber. Scarcely less notable has been the great line work of Gulian at Brown. In addition, the work of Harris, Mohor, Leete and Seavey has been watched by Newton people with keen interest.

But aside from all this, there is the achievement of the present Newton team. Coach Alfred W. Dickinson, combining his unequalled coaching system with a squad of veteran material, has developed this year an eleven which is recognized as the state's leader. Leading the Suburban League by a wide percentage, Newton High has marched through all the most formidable elvens in that circuit, having won eight straight victories since the opening of the season. Even with two contests remaining to be played, the team is practically assured of the league championship; in fact, the final outcome has not been in doubt since November fifth. For the third successive time Waltham has been defeated, after a thrilling 14 to 0 contest last Saturday.

Mr. Dickinson's worth to the school and to the city cannot be overestimated. His teams, even when material has been lacking at the start, have been without equal in scholastic circles. And he is more than a coach of winning athletic teams; he is a builder of character among the boys who are under his supervision.

This accomplishment of the Newton eleven is not unlike that of the well-remembered Everett High Jams of 1913, 1914, and 1915, when they paraded to the state championship for three successive years and were unscathed upon except for one field goal for two seasons. In fact, so delighted were the people of Everett by their team's performance that Coach Cleo O'Donnell received at one time a present of two hundred dollars and at another an automobile from appreciative citizens.

Next year a number of Newton stars will have been graduated. Whenever a large number of noteworthy players complete their school courses in one year, it is pessimistically remarked by some that Newton has had its last great team. That was said after Brady's 1913 team, and after Henry Garritty's great eleven of 1917. But Newton High will never be represented by a weak football team, that is, never while Mr. Dickinson remains at the school.

He is of large-college calibre and more than one prominent college has sought his services. His success this year can at least be said to have been accomplished in spite of difficulties. Newton, the league champion, has played at home this year under conditions which are not to be found elsewhere in the circuit; its big games have invariably been completed amid throngs which swarmed over nearly half of the playing surface, and before a grandstand which is obviously unsuited to a team of its class. It is to be hoped that Newton people will not be unappreciative of what Mr. Dickinson's presence has meant to their high school.

Chance Not to Be Missed.

It was Willie's first visit to the country, and after going with his uncle to feed the stock in the barn, he ran back to the house, shouting: "Oh mamma, come quick! Uncle Jim has a whole circus in his barn, and he is going to feed the animals!"

Children will get up with the chickens - before the house is warm

YOUNGSTERS in the early morning hours are a good deal like newly-hatched robins—"breakfast" is their only thought.

And they needn't stay in bed until their steam heater or furnace has warmed up the whole house. The cheery glow of a Perfection Oil Heater will make all comfortable—in the bedroom and alongside the high-chair.

How to economize on coal this winter

Don't try to heat "all outdoors"—or all indoors, for that matter. In heating all your rooms up to 70° or 72°, several of them are usually made stuffy.

Use a low, even fire in your regular heater to keep every part of the house warm. Then make the rooms you use most thoroughly cozy and comfortable with a Perfection Oil Heater.

The Perfection is light, clean, and effective—a portable radiator. Take it anywhere, light it as you do the gas. No bother or litter. Holds a gallon of kerosene and burns about ten hours without refilling.

Perfection Oil Heaters are sold by progressive hardware, housefurnishing and department stores. Blue or black finish, with or without nicked trimmings. Ask your dealer to explain its easy operation and many advantages.

For best results use Socony Kerosene.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gallond of Eldridge street are spending the winter at Hawks Park, Fla.
—Miss Clara J. Coburn of Washington street has returned from a recent visit to New York City.

—Hudson's Safe Depilatory has been used for 40 years for removal of hair from face. Sold in 50c jars.
—The annual Every Member Canvass of the Immanuel Church will take place the second Sunday in December.

—The Elliot Guild held a very successful sale at Elliot Church on Tuesday afternoon following the Feast of Ingathering.

—Miss Rosamond Conant won honorable mention with a prize of $10 for design for cretonnes and silks recently offered by the Museum of Fine Arts.

—The Ladies Benevolent Circle of the North Congregational Church on Chapel street will hold a Fair and Christmas sale Wednesday afternoon and evening, Dec. 1.
—Christian Endeavors, present and past, enjoyed an attractive Thanksgiving Social at Elliot Church on Wednesday. Rev. and Mrs. Beckwith were among the guests.

—A concert was given on Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Stearns School Centre for the Stearns School Branch of the Music School at the home of Mrs. Eben H. Ellison of Sargent street.

—The Women's Association of Elliot Church held its annual Feast of Ingathering at Elliot Church on Tuesday. The program included music by Mrs. Lewis P. Pike, and a talk by Miss Carolyn H. Childs, recently returned from Serbia, and a talk by Mrs. Hannah Hume Lee from India.

—Mr. Angier's Vaudeville entertainment at Channing Church parlors will come off tomorrow evening, previous announcements to the contrary notwithstanding. An evening of fun is assured. Better plan to be there. The program will include readings by Miss Alice Louergan, legedomain by J. Devere Simmons, monologues by David Grant, piano selections by Miss Rhoda Cohen, and an old-fashioned song sheet. Dancing will follow.

—At the Annual Election of Officers of Elliot Church last Friday evening the following were elected to begin service January 1, 1921: Deacon, Marcus A. G. Meads; Deaconess, Mrs. Edgar M. Horne; Clerk, Fred L. Trowbridge; Treasurer, George N. Putnam; Auditor, Frank Ashley Day; Councilor, Dr. William Duncan Reid; Trustee, James E. Clark; Sunday School Superintendent, George R. Grant; Mr. Putnam, treasurer for 25 years, was given a vote of thanks.

Newton Highlands

—The C. L. S. C. met Monday afternoon with Mr. Ward on Allen terrace.
—Miss Ruth Putney was the soloist at the Congregational Church last Sunday morning.
—The Monday Club are sewing on presents for the poor of the City Home on Winchester street.

—The Dramatic Committee of the Woman's Club will present two plays in Lincoln Hall on Dec. 7th and 8th.
—The Ladies of the Methodist Church will hold a fair in Lincoln Hall on Thursday, Dec. 9th, from 2 to 10.30 P.M.

—The Gamma Alpha is filling a Thanksgiving basket for a worthy family. The club met at Miss Marion Griswold's on Tuesday.
—Funeral services for Mr. J. S. Sedgwick took place from his late home on Floral street Friday at 2 o'clock. The body was taken to Palmer, Mass., for burial Saturday.

—Bessie Talbot Salmon leaves today to fill a group of recital engagements in the cities of Vermont. She will present, "Songs from the hills of Vermont," which have been recently collected by two Bostonians and set down as they were sung by three very elderly Vermonters, who still remember the ballads of other days. Miss Salmon sings these ancient songs in the costume of a country lass of a generation ago.

—The Monday Club this week presented most successfully Bjornson's fine play "Love and Geography." All the parts were remarkably well acted. Mrs. C. N. Thompson and Mrs. Fairchild presented the principal characters most effectively. Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. S. A. Thompson, Mrs. Keeler and indeed all those taking part did themselves and their club great credit. Altogether this was one of the most enjoyable and successful efforts of this club.

Auburndale

—Considerable trouble was caused Tuesday by the flooding of the tunnel under the railroad by the heavy rains and with the Auburn street bridge out of commission travel was forced to use the Woodland road bridge.

—The Auburndale Men's Club appealed for helpers with pick and shovel to work on the grounds of the new club house Thanksgiving morning. About 50 men appeared. Mrs. R. K. Fox of Prairie avenue served them with coffee and cheese.

—Mrs. Harriet Seaverns died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles R. Barker on Auburn street, Monday morning after a short illness. Mrs. Seaverns was a member of the Lincoln Park Baptist Church. Services were held at the home of her daughter on Wednesday, the Rev. Mr. Hass of Newton Theological Institution officiating. The burial was at Weston.

CITY HALL

Registration for the city election closed Wednesday evening with 4 men and 9 women added to the voting list.

PROBATE COURT

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Virginia W. Tucker, late of Newton in said County, deceased, Intestate. WHEREAS a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Nelson H. Tucker of Newton in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on his bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the fourteenth day of December A. D. 1920, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted. And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twenty-fourth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty.

F. M. ESTY, Register.
Nov. 26-Dec. 3-10.
